A large sperm whale was recently harpooned on the coast of Madagascar. From It was obtained 285 pounds of ambergris, worth about $25,000. Saifors may that ambergris is produced by dyspepsia in the whale.

Josh Billings says: "When a young man aint good for anything else, I like tew see him carry a gold headed cane. If he can't buy a cane, let him part his hair in the middle."

An Irishman being in church where the collection apparatus resembled an election box; on its being passed to him, whispered in the carrier's ear, "that he was not naturalized, and could not vote, Stoves and Stove Furniture but was ready to make a speech."

A few weeks since, in a Boston eating house, a man discovered a cock-roach in his pudding. He turned the insect over, examined it closely, and finally remarked to a person who was sitting near him: "That ain't right. I don't like it, and if I find another I Have just received from Chicago a well-selected won't eat the pudding.'

A scientific gentleman of Portsmouth, N. H. whose wife used tea pretty freely, and for the last few years has suffered much from a nervous affection, recently made an analysis of her beverage and found that the coloring material was gypsum and Prussian blue, and that the amount in a pound of tea adminis-tered at once would produce instant death.

The dancing proclivities of a United Presbyterian Church at Le Claire Prairie, in Illinois, have driven away its pastor, Rev. S. S. Ralston. He says to the Presbytery: "Having failed in the off-repeated effort to remedy the dancing propensities of some of my Block, which I will sell cheap. people, I am driven to the necessity of due tr retiring from the field as to me impracticable. I therefore tender to the Pres-bytery my charge of Le Claire Prairie congregation."

Old Dickey S. was a very wealthy, but a very illiterate East India merchant, and a member of the Oriental Club of London. One day Dickey took a pair of compasses and set about examining a map of India, the margin of which was illustrated with drawings of the wild and domestic animals of the country. Suddenly Dickey dropped the "It can't be!—it ain't in the horder of natur' that it should be! It is impossible—ridiculous!" "Why, Dickey, what is the matter?" "Vot's the matter? Vy, this Bengal tiger is ninety miles long!" Dickey had measured the tiger by the scale of the map.

It is authoritatively announced by a San Francisco paper that five and a NAISBITT & HINDLEY'S. half million dollars' worth of silk worm. Main Street, S. L. City. dll3 3m eggs were exported from the port of Yokohama, Japan, in 1868. The purchasers were mostly Frenchmen, though a few Italian buyers were in the market. Forty days are required to transport the eggs to Europe by the India over-land route, hence it is argued that upon the opening of the Pacific Railroad the the opening of the Pacific Railroad the silk worm crop in California can be made to replace the Japanese and Chinese article. It is claimed that the California eggs bring a higher price in all European markets, are sought for with greater avidity, and produce stronger and healthier cocoons than the Japanese or Chinese eggs.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the old firm are requested to settle immediately and save further costs.
