The Ready trips to this city soliciting funds for his church. Father Kaspar, carrying a smail leather bag in which his collections were placed, came to be a familiar fig-ure in Greek and Armenian circles here, and it is believed that he was murdered for the money he carried. The autopsy revealed that the priest had probably been drugged and placed while still alive in the trunk, there to be suffocated. The neck and one arm had been broken, but apparently these injuries had not been the cause of death. Thrown upon the body, and as if to fill the trunk to the point of suf-focating, was the priest's clothing. The coroner's physician said that the man had probably been dead six or seven days. The contents of the stom-ach will be examined to determine whether some drug was used. The police have sent out a general alarm for Sarkis Ermoylan, Sarki Bar-morvian and Paul Sarisatan. smooth-shaven, and the man said he had conducted a restaurant in the ten-derioin. The other wore a mustacha, The men had been visited, she said, by a man wearing a clerical garb, who looked not unlike the murdered man. She thought that this man called at 8 o'clock last. Wednesday evening. No one heard any unusual noises that day. Late Wednesday afternoon an express wagon brought to the house the trunk which later was found to contain the body. One of the lodgers, with the ald of a young man who drove the ex-press wagon, carried the trunk with considerable difficulty to the room-ers for the rent due. They pointed to the trunk and said it would be found to contain ample se-curity for what they owed. Later the men said that the trunk was not theirs, and that a mistake had been made. It remained in the house, how-ever, and was there the next morning, although the roomers had left before Mrs. Sherer was up. She did not see them again. The next day unpleasant odors were detected coming from the room, and today Mrs. Sherer appealed to the police and the trunk was forced open. The body was removed to the morgue and the police began a minute examination of its hiding place. It was a cheap-built affair and showed marks of hard usage. In side the cover was printed a name that looked like L. E. Pärkis. On the chest was the name "Ermovian." The autopsy developed that the neck had been broken, as had one arm. The police have sent out a general alarm for Sarkis Ermoylan, Sarki Bar-morvian and Paul Sarisatan. Simron Pashakarlan of 506 Tenth avenue tonight identified the trunk as belonging to Sarki Ermoylan, an Arme-nian, who, he said, roomed with him for four months and up to last Mon-day night, when he quit the house. Pashakarian told the police that Er-moylan, previous to his coming to this city, had worked in a restaurant in West Pullman, Chicago. The police theory is that the priest was murdered in the Tenth avenue house. They believe that the priest was lured to this room, there drugged, robbed and murdered, and the trunk later sent to the West Seventh street address. According to one man who saw the body. Kaspar went to Hobok-en from Providence, R. I. He had been in the habit of taking his meals at a Greek restaurant in West Fourtieth street. The bag in which he carried his collections was found with his clothing.

clothing. The identification of the body was made by John Karanfialan, a trustee of the Armenian church in Hoboken. He declared that he could not be mistaken. Karanfialan said Father Kaspar lived at the home of Bishop Horsap Survgin. The church trustees said Father Kass-par had visited at Karanfialan's house on Sunday afternoon two weeks ago, a 4 o'clock, and he had not see the dead priest since. Father Kaspar, according to Karan-fialan, had been in this country five years, but had no parish, going from city to city as a visiting clergyman does, Karanfialan agreed with the po-lice that robbery was the motive for the crime.

"Ermovian." "Ermovian." The autopsy developed that the neck had been broken, as had one arm. Coroner's Physician Lehane declared, however, that death was due to suffo-cation. The internal organs were con-gested, and Dr. Lehane gave it as his opinion that the man was thrust into the trunk while allve and the cover of the trunk had been held down until death ensued. The condition of the or-gans was found to be similar to those in the cases of asphyxiation. On the left wrist the date 1894 was tattooed with little stars, and on the right wrist was a wreath with a cross.

Great Britain Has Issued no Ultimatum to the Republic.

um to the Republic. London, May 26.—The foreign office has received a cable dispatch from Lionel E. G. Cardon, minister resident to the Central American republics, de-nying the report recently circulated in the United States and Europe that he had issued an ultimatum to Cost& Rica demanding that the republic pay its debts to Great Britain within two weeks. The government will publish Mr. Cardon's dispatch, together with a denial that such action by Great Britain is contemplated.

NO FRICK ART INSTITUTE. New York, May 26.-H. C. Frick de-nied the published report that he was to erect at Pittsburg at a cost of $5,-000,000 a building to be known as the Pittsburg academy of fine arts. Of the story Mr. Frick said: "It is absurd. I am not going to give Pittsburg an art institute."

IRON AND STEEL EXPORTS.

IRON AND STEEL, EXPORTS. Washington, May 26.—Iron and steel exports from the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will aggregate approximately $175,000,-000 in value, against $57,000,000 a decade earlier, and $16,000,000 two decades earlier, according to figures issued by the bureau of statistics of the depart-ment of commerce and labor. The value of iron and steel manufactures exported in the 10 mopths ending with April, 1907, was about $156,000,000. This rapid growth has brought fron and steel manufactures far in the lead of any other group of manufactures in the export trade of the United States.

cause She Wouldn't Shake Hands. Cieveiand, O., May 26.—Mrs. Mary Steadman, wife of William Steadman, proprietor of a hotel by that mame, was shot three times and instantity killed today by William Brown, a vet-eran of the Spanish-American war. Brown was pursued by a crowd of men through Luna park, near where the shooting occurred, and was finally cap-tured. According to the police he con-fessed, saying that he was sorry he killed the woman. Brown bears a scar on his forehead from a bullet that struck him during the charge of the American troops up San Juan hill. Brown was efected from the Steadman hotel today by Steadman, according to Brown's own story. Later in the day Brown returned to the hotel and was met at the door by Mrs. Steadman, who refused to shake hands with him. Brown professed to be insulted at this and drew a revolver, firing three shots, one of which plerced Mrs. Stead-man's heart.

The clash came over the alleged opposi-tion of Voliva to the calling of a gen-eral conference. Barnes, McCulloch and other "rebels," after trying in vain to address the meeting, arranged a subsequent one at the Zion college building, which was at-tended by 800 opponents of Voliva, who banded themselves together to depose the general overseer. Voliva an-nounced the right to name his successor and declared he would take the fight into the United States courts.

EQUESTRIAN STATUE TO GEN. JOHN B. GORDON.

Atlanta, Ga., May 25 .- The splendid questrian monument to Gen. John B. Gordon was unveiled here today. Thou-equestrian monument to Gen. John H. Gordon was unveiled here today. Thou-sands gathered from all parts of the state and from many sections of the south to pay tributes of respect to the general's memory. The equestrian state of Gen. John B. Gordon, cast in copper bronze, which was unveiled today, stands on a broad pedestal of Georgia granite at the northwest corner of the state capitol grounds. Hising 25 feet from the base of the pedestal to the top of the head, it occupies a commanding position over-looking the business part of the city some distance away. The figure of Gor-don is represented seated on his favor-ite mare, his head bared, the left hand holding the refis over the borse's neck while the right hand hangs at his side. The pedestal raises the figure of the horse and rider about 10 feet above the granite coping which surrounds it. The name "Gordon" in raised letters is cut upon the front of the pedestal, while on either side will appear a bronze bas-relief, one representing Gordon at the battle of Spottsylvania, when before his division he insisted on Gen. Lee going to the rear; the other bears fig-ures typical of the three phases of Gordon's life, typifying the soldier, the statesman and the patriot. The statue is the work of Sculptor Solon H. Borgium of Norwalk, Conn. Ten thousand dollars of the cost of the monument was raised by private sub-scription, the remaining $15,600 being an appropriation by the Georgia legis-iature. The dedicatory oration was delivered

New York, May 26 .- Rev. Father

church of Hoboken, N. J., was murdered in this city some time last week.

The body was found today in a trunk which had been left for security for their room rent by two Greeks, who rented a room from Mrs. Henry Sherer, at 332 West Thirty-seventh street.

PRIEST'S BODY

New York, May 26.—Three weeks ago Mrs. Annie Sherer rented one of her six rooms in a tenement at 333 West Thirty-seventh street to two unknown men. When, last Wednesday, the rent was not forthcoming, her lodgers, two Greeks, told her that she was amply secured by their well-filled trunk. The secured by their well-filled trunk. The following morning the men disap-peared, and today the trunk was brok-en open. To the horror of Mrs, Sherer, it was found to contain the badly de-composed body of a man believed to have been a priest of the Greek church. The body was in a kneeling position, with the head bound against the knees The body was in a kneeling position, with the head bound against the knees by a heavy strap that passed over the back of the neck and was buckled un-der the shins. The murdered man must have been about 60 years of age. He weighed probably 160 pounds and was about five feet four inches in height. A flowing beard 12 inches long was streaked with gray, but the long and bushy hair was black. An un-dershirt of balbriggan and a cuff on the right wrist were all the body wore, but on top of it had been thrown three coats of elerical cut, a white laundered shift, two pairs of black lace shoes, a soft felt hat, two collars and a de-tached cuff. The police think it possible that the body was shipped here by express from Chicago, and the authorities of that city have been asked to follow one clew, based on a meal ticket also found in the trunk. This ticket was issued by a restaurant at 1220 Halstead street, word "brothers" several red ink thes had been drawn. Because of the con-dition of the body it was not possible to determine the manner of death. Following an autopsy at the morgue, the men were arrested on suspicion. Mrs. Sherer told the coroner's jury that when the two men engaged the room in her home they described themselves as John and Paul Sarkis, gach about 25 years of age. John was dark and ight wrist was a wreath with a cross. There were two little tattooed circles on he back of the right hand, each about the size of a dime. A dozen detectives were set at work upon the case, and tonight a score of physicians living in the vicinity of Mrs.

sherer's home were examined at police headquarters.

CHICAGO'S PART.

Chicago, May 26.—At the West Pull-man address, 12220 Halstead street, two Armenians conducted a restaurant un-til five months ago under the name of S. Ermoylan Brothers. The police learned tonight that about the time the Ermoylans closed out their business an expression also an Armenian an expressman, also an Armenian, whose name they withheid, hauled a trunk answering the description of that found in the New York boarding house from the restaurant to the railway sta-tion. It bore a New York address, ac-cording to the police. Inquiry among the Greek priests, of whom there are but a few in Chicago, failed to discover but a few in Chicago, failed to discover any unaccountably missing. The police learned tonight that on Feb. 7 of this year a trunk which is said to answer the description of that found in the New York boarding house was shipped from West Pullman by express to Sarkis Ermoyian, 426 West Forticth streets. It was shipped by a man who gave his name as K. Kenos-iam. Louis B, McDonaid, agent for the Adams Express company at West Pullman, said that Kenosiam told him that the trunk contained sliks and was valued at $200. Search was begun at once for Kenosiam. once for Kenosiam.

their room. The investigation of the police re-vealed that the murder of the priest might have been due to the exposure a few months ago of an attempt to usurp the throne of Servita by a pre-tender who is now supposed to be in Jersey City. A story was given out, supposedly by the Armenian priest, that a prince of Servia was in Jersey City organizing a movement to put him on the throne. It was runpored that the local adherents to the pretender had vowel vengeance upon the man who had given out the story, as the publica-tion would hinder the plans which the prince and his supporters had on foot.

IRISH BILL WILL BE UNCEREMONIOUSLY DROPPED

London, May 28 .- When parliament meets tomorrow Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman will tell the commons what the cabinet proposes to do with the Irish council bill. Every one expects it will be dropped with as little ceremony as pos-are that the government will do nothing for Ireland this session, since the memers of the cabinet resent the repudi-tion of their Irish allies of the trish ouncil bill. Mr. Birrell, ohlef sceretary or Ireland, betook himself to the counfor reland, betook nimser to the coul-try before the Dublin convention and his secretary refuses information as to his whereabouts today to all inter-viewers.  "My physician told me I must not eat any heavy or strong food and ordered a dist, giving me some medicine. I followed directions carefully, but kept on using coffee and did not get any better. Last whiter my husshand, who was away on business had Postum Pood Coffee served to him in the family where he boarded.

 "He liked it so well that when he was home be brought some with him, we began using it and I found it most excellent. While I drank it my stomach ack never bothered me in the least, and I got over my nervous troubles. When the Postum was all gone we returned to coffee, then my stomach hervous condition came again.

 "That showed me exactly what was the cause of the whole troubles of the whole trouble so I quit drinking coffee altogether and kept on using Postum. The old troubles left again and I have never had any trouble since." "There's a Beas son." Read, "The Road to Wellytile," in pkgs.

Gen. Evans said Gordon's prompti-tude in battle was never more con-spicuously displayed than in making the charge at Gettysburg. He insisted that history should not class the Gettysburg battle as more than a technical confed-erate defeat upon the one lone ground that Lee withdrew across the Potomac. Gen. Evans told of a conference he had with Gen. Gordon after the war when they found their minds in accord upon the resolve to stand by their peo-ple for weal or wee, that the state must be honorably restored to its place in the Union and that friendship between the people south and north must be re-Union and that friendship between the people south and north must be re-gained and put upon a patriotic basis so that sectional hate would be extin-guished. Gen. Evans said he called the country to witness the faithfuiness with which Gordon carried out those high resolves during his entire life. He had, he said, the beart and hand of the south and of his confederate comrades be-cause of his unfailing fidelity to their cause, and he won the good will of the north by his broad and true patriotism.

JEWISH IMMIGRATION. Jacob H. Schiff Talks of Turning it to

The South and West.

New York, May 27 .-- Jocob H. Schiff the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Jewish Benevolent soclety B'Nai B'Rith last night talked of turning the Jewish tide of iminigration to the south and west.

Mr. Schiff said that an unordered immigration was coming to this country. "Such an immigration," he said, "is forced hito the north Atlantic cides. The Jew should be and has been a blessing wherever he goes. We should take time by the forelock and while welcoming the Jew to this country, we should turn the tide of immigration from the north Atlantic cities. There is a north Atlantic cities.

from the north Atlantic cities, There is a great American hinteriand in which there is not 10 per cent of fewish population. This great terri-tory should accommodate many of the Jews now unhappy in our north Atlantic towns. "Lately a movement has been start-ed for this puropse. We can render our country a great service by turn-ing this immigration in the direction of Texas. I can see no greater work than to aid this cause, to make the immigrant webcome not in the crowdimmigrant welcome not in the crowd-ed towns, but in this region."
