

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Westminster Presbyterian ladies will give a bazaar and supper in the church next Friday evening.

The Easter music of the Catholic cathedral will be repeated tomorrow morning, by general request, at the 11 o'clock service.

An invitation has been received by Gov. Carter to attend the unveiling of the statue of Lieut. Nathan Bedford Forrest at Memphis, Tenn., on May 16.

Elder B. H. Roberts will speak in the Second ward Sunday night, the meeting commencing at 6:30. There will be special music, including a solo by Mrs. Robinson, with Tracy Y. Cannon as accompanist.

Sister Mary of the order of Notre Dame, and for 15 years a teacher in St. Mary's academy of this city, has just died at St. Joseph. The news of her death will be learned with regret by many friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Louise Bascom, a graduate of the Salt Lake high school, and a niece of President Bascom of the Utah state board of health, has captured one of the $50 prizes at Wesleyan college offered for the best story or play. Miss Bascom is in the sophomore class.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Brazier will be held at the Fourth ward meetinghouse, Sunday, at 12:30 p. m. The remains may be viewed at the residence, 145 west Seventh street, until 12 noon Sunday. Friends are invited to attend.

The Athletic association of the East Side high school has booked Robert L. Dunn, war correspondent for Collier's Weekly, for an illustrated lecture, to be given on Thursday, May 11, at the First Congregational church. Mr. Dunn comes highly recommended. His subject will be "First in Korea."

The committee on buildings and grounds of the city board of education met last night to consider the appointment of a superintendent of buildings to succeed the late William Finney. No selection was made, and another meeting will be held on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock to further consider the matter.

At the University Sunday school tomorrow, Elder John M. Mills will lecture on the translation of the Book of Mormon into English, while James E. Talmage will continue his interesting narrative on "Jesus, the Christ," dealing with the theme, "The Pilgrims of Men." The school opens at 12:30 p. m., and the public will be made welcome.

The Mutual Provident Federation has secured the old Clawson homestead at No. 3 Third East street, which it will occupy about May 15. The "home" is designed to be a place where girls coming to the country seeking employment in any kind of work, cooking and dressmaking will be taught, and respectable employment secured for those applying. The home is at 414 Templeton building.

The largest attendance of the season so far marked yesterday afternoon's organ recital in the Tabernacle. The organist was at his best, particularly in the popular fantasia on "Duke Street," and the Grand Offertoire of Battiste in D major. The effectiveness of the latter composition depends largely on the technical and interpretive powers it receives. "Down on the Suwanee River," with variations, and the audience took to this very kindly. It was a successful recital in every sense, and much enjoyed.

The Butchers and Grocers' association decided last night at their organization of the Salt Lake County Retail Butchers and Grocers' association; and the following directors were elected: J. S. Lindsay, Taylorville; Hyrum Nielsen, Hobbsville; William B. Erickson and Charles Caldwell, Murray; William Cooper, Bingham Junction; C. C. Crapo, Sandy; and S. J. Nicholson, Draper. The meetings will be held each week, alternating at Murray, Sandy and Bingham Junction. The butchers and grocers at Lehi, American Fork, Pleasant Grove and Provo are organizers will visit those places. A state organization will be formed some time in July, and delegates chosen to attend the national convention at Niagara Falls next January.

The kindergarten teachers of the Seventeenth ward Sunday school will conduct a May day festival in the ward meetinghouse on May day, beginning at 3 and 5 p. m. The meetinghouse will be beautifully decorated with flowers and a May pole will be erected around which will occur the May pole dances. After a spirited voting contest in which the whole ward participated, Miss Hazel Cannon has been elected Queen of the May, and will have for her maids of honor the Misses Edna Burbridge, Vivian Harding, Daisy Mumford, Georgia Bell, Millie Thayer, Alice Nibbel, Eva Jensen, Geneva Wright, and Irene White. The crowning of the queen will be done by little Helen Wright and Mary Gibbs. The crown will be of flowers, presented by Councilman Hobday.

Save your money and when you get a dollar, deposit it with Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co., Salt Lake City, Utah. Jos. F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

BUSY DAY FOR JUVENILE COURT

Sixty Children Out on Probation Reported to Judge Brown This Morning

WERE GIVEN FATHERLY ADVICE.

J. O. Draper Charged With Contributing to Waywardness of His Own Family.

Over 60 children out on probation reported to the juvenile court today bringing notes from their teachers and parents telling of their conduct during the past week. Practically all of the reports were satisfactory and after they were given some good advice by Probation Officer Wood the children were instructed to report again on next Saturday morning.

J. O. Draper is now in the county jail charged with contributing to the delinquency of his children. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Booth and will be taken before Judge Brown of the juvenile court on Monday and given his choice of either placing himself under the jurisdiction of that court or being tried before Judge Ditch under section 424 of the Revised Statutes, which makes it a misdemeanor for a person not to provide for his family.

It is claimed that he spends all of his money for drink and his wife is compelled to keep three of her boys from school in order to help make a living. The boys have been before the court for truancy and now Judge Brown intends to prosecute their father for contributing to their delinquency.
