De Wolf, Reese, O'Connolly, Roache and

Troxelle. The card party given Wednesday evening by the ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was an enjoyable event.

PROVO.

The Sorosis club met Wednesday af-ternoon at the home of Miss Hogland. Mrs. Speckart gave an interesting paper subject, "Lace Making." The club will meet next Wednesday with Miss Beulah Bachman.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. J. D. Jones, Monday evening. Games, speeches, music and a delicious luncheon furnished the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. O. C. Newell, informally enter-tained a number of her friends at a dinner party Tuesday evening. The ta-ble was beautifully decorated with carnations and smylax. Covers were laid

Mrs. Biersach of Missouri is the guest of her son, Mr. Biersach of Provo. She expects to remain until after the Christmas holidays.

The Sixth ward bazar will open Monday morning, Dec. 5, at the old tubernacle. Judging from the amount of work that has been accomplished by the ladies during the past two months, in quality and quantity it will surpass anything of the kind ever given in

Mrs. John R. Twelves, entertained Wednesday evening at a pleasantly ar-Wednesday ventual with the beautiful flowers, linen, cut glass and silver, the table presented a pretty picture.

Miss Ada Dusenberry was a Salt Lake visitor on Monday,

Mr. Joe Smith of Lehi arrived in Provo from Berlin Monday morning. Mr. Smith has been studying music of some of the leading professors of Germany, for the past two years. He has accepted a position as instructor in the music department of the B. Y. university. His many friends welcome him home, and are pleased to note the mostlest progress he has made described. excellent progress he has made during

The recital, given last evening in col-lege hall by Miss Maud May Babcock, was in every way most excellently renwas in every way most excellently rendered. From the beginning to the end of the program she carried her audience with her into the different scenes of life. Miss Babcock is one of the artists who will always find a welcome at the R. Y. university. at the B. Y. university.

Mrs. Roberts, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. C. D. Clark, for the past month has returned to her home in Denver.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. George Howe, on Academy avenue was the scene of a pleasantly arranged dinthe scene of a pleasantly arranged dinner party Monday evening. The table decoration was a profusion of pink and red roses. The guests present were
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tweives, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farrey, Mr. and Mrs. John Farrer, Mr. and Mrs. Denhalter, Mr.
and Mrs. R. A. Barney, Mr. and Mrs.
Jessie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MurJessie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MurJessie Smith, Mr. Torence, Taylor and Miss. lock, Miss Florence Taylor and Miss

Miss Jennie Knight entertained at a "pit" party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Knight. The invited guests were Miss Josie Barton. Miss Sytha Brown, Miss Lucille Young, Miss Lizzle Summer. Miss Clara Allen Miss Effic Howe, Mr. Jean Roberts, Mr. Smith, Mr. Lester Mangum and Mr. Will Alexander.

Miss Maurice Hales of Mammoth is a Provo visitor she is the guest of her mother Mrs. Brown.

Mr. A. C. Hatch was visiting friends in Prove on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams have returned from a visit to relatives and friends in St. George, A number of prominent Provo people took advantage of the excursion to American Fork this afternoon. A prettily arranged children's party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook in boner of the birthday anniversary of their daughter Florence, Monday even ing. The evening was made happy for about 35 little friends with songs, music, rames and a delicious luncheon.

Mr. John Walsh of Farmington spent Thursday in Provo, visiting his children who are attending the B. Y. uni-. . .

Miss Maud May Babcock was the" guest of Miss Angie Holbrook on Fri-

The Card club was entertained on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Grant C. Bagley. The home was artistically decorated and everything, even to the smallest detail was perfectoven to the smallest detail was perfectly planned for the pleasure of the invited guests. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Corfman, Mr. and Mrs. Newell, Mrs. C. D. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Sullon, Mr. and Mrs. Havergramp, Mr. and Mrs. Searle, Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Twelves, Mr. and Mrs. Hursach, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Speckart, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schwab, Miss Merlam Nelke and Mr. Ben Schwab.

Mr. Corfman was a Salt Lake visitor

The Provo Book club held its first Mrs. O. C. Nuvell Monday evening. The evening was devoted to auctioneering off last year's magazines and books, to the different section of the different section. off last year's magazines and books, to the different members of the club. It is the desire of the club to open a free public library. They have applied to "Carnegie" for funds and are in receipt of two favorable replies. The matter may be submitted to the city council, at its next session, and every effort made to accomplish this worthy undertaking. The members of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. Sam King, Miss Hogland, Miss Alice Reynolds, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Whitecotton, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Speckart, Mr. and Mrs. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Warwick, Dr. and Mrs. Calder, Mr. and Mrs. Searle, Mr. and Mrs. Havercamp, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Irvine, Misses Lena and Bealah Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. LO. Taft, Mrs. Bonham, Mr. Sorenson, Mr. Townsend, Mr. McGraw, Dr. and Mrs. Westwood, Mrs. Nunn, Miss Kellogg and Miss Burles,

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Davis left Provo for Salt Lake City yesterday, where they expect to make their home.

The concert given in the tabernacle Friday evening by Mr. Goddard proved a most artistic success. A fair sized house greeted this most talented artist, and all and all present pronounced it one of the most pleasant musical evenings ever spent in Provo.

Old and New

The old kind of soap is hard on the hands, back and clothes. Fels-Naptha is twice as easy-cuts wash-day in half. Pels-Naytha

Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bennett of American Fork spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mont Roberts of Provo.

Mrs. Ida Emcot Dusenberry entertained at a dinner party on Wednesday evening. Her guests were Miss Arella Young, Miss Lusa Talmage, Miss Elia Larsen and Miss Whitby. The evening was pleasantly past in listening to an account of Mrs. Dusenberry's travels

Mr. S. L. Chipman of American Fork spent Thursday visiting his family at

EUREKA.

The choir of the Latterday Saints' Church, assisted by the Eureka Union band, will give a grand concert at the Church Friday evening, Dec. 9. A spiendid program has been arranged and the music lovers of Eureka will enjoy a great musical treat.

The dance given Thursday evening by the Eureka band was well attend-ed and highly enjoyed by all partici-pants. The music for the ball was furnished by the band of eighteen pieces.

The Mammoth Home Dramatic com-pany presented the melo-drams, 'The World Against Him,' at Hassell's hall. Monday night. The actors did very creditably in their different parts and elicited rounds of applause from the large audience assembled.

Mrs. James Larsen is visiting with friends at the metropolis.

Miss Katie Burnett of Pocatello, Ida., who has been the guest of Mrs. Thom-as Stewardson, returned to her home Sunday night.

Mrs. George M. Hayes and son have gone to Salt Lake City to spend the winter.

Mrs. Dr. A. H. Taylor has returned from a pleasant visit with friends at Salt bake City. Mesdames Parker and Taylor were the guests of Payson last week.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Dr. C. C. Countryman Thursday af-

Miss McBride of Provo is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Williamson of this

A farewell party was given in honor city.

VERY STYLISH.

of Mr. Ed Nelson at his home Wednesday night. About 30 friends of the fam-ily were present, and the evening was spent with music, games and feasting. Mr. Nelson leaves for Tonopah next Springville, after a visit w

The ladies of the L. D. S. Church are making active preparations for a bazar to be given on Dec. 15 and 16. The ladies propose to make it the social

Royal Williams, assistant agent at the San Pedro depot resigned his posi-tion and left Sunday for San Francisco to accept a position with the Southern Pacific railway, Herman Backman and Mrs. Maria Backman were married at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening by the Rev. C. W. Nobbe.

Mrs. William Adams is visiting with friends at Nephi.

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Depue are the guests of Salt Lake friends. Antone Novack of Nebraska is visit-ing his brother, Joseph Novack, of this place. The brothers had not seen each other for 18 years. The Kempton Komedy Kompany will play a return engagement at the Opera House here on Dec. 6 and 7. Mrs. Sadie Mangum is entertaining ner sister, Mrs. John Beddows of Sa-

Mrs. John Eva and daughters. Miss Franks and Mrs. Bowman of Los An-geles, Cal., are visiting Eureka friends.

Prof. Cummings, Miss Fintry ad Miss Dix, teachers in the Eureka public schools, returned Sunday evening from Salt Lake after several days' visit with

A surprise party was given at the home of Mrs. Dennis Sullivan on Fri-day evening in honor of her daughter, Genevieve. Music, cards and games were on the program, and a merry eve-ning was passed, closing with a deleious luncheon.

Miss Annie Bonner was over from Mammoth this week, visiting with rel-

Belthazar Christensen treasurer-elec of Juab county, left Sunday for the county seat, to take up his residence preparatory to taking his office on Jan-

Mrs. Jennic Shale returned to her home at Salt Lake this week, after a visit with relatives in this city.

Mrs. Alex. Gourley and children are $000x60000000000000000000000000000

Miss Maude Dittmer has returned to Springville, after a visit with Eureka

The members of Eureka Miners' union gave a "amoker" at Elks' hall on Wednesday evening. There was an abundance of eatables and an excellent program was rendered by local tal-

Mrs. Thomas Adamson of Salt Lake is visiting her sons, Robert and Thomas, of this place.

Miss Nettie Roper has resigned her position at the Paxman House at Silver City to make preparations for her marriage to Mr. White,a well known young man of Eureka, the happy event to the head about Christman take place about Christmas.

Alexander Cowan of Payson left for his home this week after a pleasant visit spent with Tintic relatives.

Mrs. Sarah Bust of Payson will spend the winter with the family of Isaac Allred at McIntyre's ranch.

Dr. C. P. Harivelle of Danville, Ky., s the guest of Dr. Stevens and wife of the Tintic hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cowan were the recipients of a pleasant surprise party on last Saturday night, by a number on last Saturday night, by a number of their Robinson friends. About 30 guests were present, who spent the evening with music, songs, games and

Hans Hassell, commissioner-elect, will give a grand free ball in honor of the voters of Tintic district, who helped put him into office for the next four years. Hans never does things by halves, and a merry time may be expected. A party of young friends of Miss

Fannie Chapman, surprised her at her home Saturday evening, it being the fourteenth anniversary of her birth. Various games were played and a birthday supper wound up a happy oc-

Arthur Hanks and Robert Thompson, former residents of Eureka, are here from their Idaho homes, on a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Kate Knight returned this week from a visit with Provo friends.

Mrs. Mamie Hales of Mammoth is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Brown, of Provo.

C. A. Conklin gave a moving picture show at the Latter-day Saints' Chirch Monday night for the benefit of the Sunday school.

Miss Pearl Stewardson was the guest of Mammoth friends this week,

LEHI.

Lehi, Utah. Dec. 3.—Miss Virginia Schow entertained a number of her friends at her home Tuesday evening. A very pleasant time was had.

Mrs. Sadie Taylor of Garlandd has been spending the past week with her mother, Mrs. Oda Stoddart.

Mr. John Y. Smith was a Bingham visitor Tuesday, Mr. Will Davis was visiting friends in Leht Friday last. Mr. John J. Thomas came in from Fish Springs Friday for a short visit.

Mrs. Ellen Clark of American Fork has been visiting old friends here the

Miss Sexia Trane is visiting in Salt Lake City, the guest of Miss Lucy

Mr. Joseph F. Smith, one of our prominent young citizens who has been in Berlin studying the piano and voice culture, returned home Tuesday. Mr Smith has accepted a position as in-structor of piano at the Brigham Young University at Provo.

Mr. S. I. Goodwin was a visitor to Garland Wednesday on business, .

Mrs. S. L. Wells was visiting relatives in Salt Lake City the first of the

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cutler of Sait Lake City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Friel Thanksgiving.

Mr. A. O. Smoot, Jr., of Provo was n Lehi visitor Tuesday. Messrs, James H. Gardner and M. W. Ingails have gone to Sugar City, Idaho, to inspect the sugar factory

Miss Edna Johnson of Prove and Mr. Thos. J. Russon of this place were mar-ried in the Salt Lake Temple Wednes-

Mr. Monroe Wilson is down from Sugar City, Idaho visiting with the Mesers. Robt. Evans, J. Hamilton Gardner, and Misses Violet Long, Amy Sharp and Lulu Dorton, who are athome Thanksgiving.

Mr. Jos. L. Honden and wife will leave shortly for Manning, West Vir-ginia, for he winter, Mr. Holden has some oil lands there on which a fine fldw has been obtained.

Mrs. L. E. Pearson of Spnaish Fork is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Glover. Father John Austin, Mr. and Mrs. George Austin and Miss Emma Austin spent Thanksgiving in Heber City with Mr. and Mrs. John E. Austin.

Judge Eli Kendall was a Salt Lake visitor Friday.

Hon. Geo. Webb and Postmaster S. W. Ross were visiting the capital Mon-

Mr. P. D. Shuping, the night operator at the R. G. W. station, has gone to Pecatelle to reside, Messrs. Wm. F. Gurney, Jos. S. Broadbent and Monroe Wilson were Ealt Lake visitors Wednesday.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Thursday evening, Nov. 24, a grand Thanksgiving ball was given at the Academy of Music. The hall was tastefully decorated, and about 300 people enjoyed themselves in the social dance,

Last Esturday afternoon the stake Sunday school officers, with all the Sunday school workers of the stake, met in a convention. At the opera house in the evening a social was given for all sunday school teachers and officers. A very fine program was rendered, after which all present repaired to the upper hall and engaged in dancing till a er hall and engaged in dancing till a Monday evening the Y. L. M. I. A. of the First ward gave a "Toe Party" at the opera house. A curtain was drawn across the end of the hall and all the ladies were required to go back of the curtain when a number was penned on the tox of one above. Then the foot with the number on was pushed under the curtain and the gentlemen selected their toys. pariners for the evening. A short musiwere sold during the evening.

Aporade R. Clawson, Elders Seymour B. Young and J. W. Morton were pres-ent at the quarterly conference Sun-

Mrs. R. H. Jones of Logan came over to Brigham last week to remain dur-

Wednesday, Nov. 23, in the Logan temple. Miss Anna Rasmussen and A. M. Nelson were made man and wife. Both young people are very favorably known in Brigham City, Mr. Nelson being one of our leading merchants. A receiving was tendered them Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Wednesday, Nov. 30, Miss Amelia Knudson and Joseph L. Wight of this city were married in the Logan temple. A host of friends wish them joy. A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Wight Friday evening at the home of Emile G. Jenson returned week from visit to the fair.

Prof. D. O. McKay of Ogden was in attendance at the Sunday school con-vention Saturday.

J. Johansen, the jeweler, was a visitor to Ogden Wednesday,

Coughing Spell Caused Death. Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, chocked to death early yesterday morning at his bome, in the presence of his wife and child. He centracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was siezed with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globs-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1991," Ballard's Horehaund Syrup would have saved him. 25c, for and $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. J. Drug Dept.

Why

yourself Into worse than several fits of blues when we offer you such exceptional insurance policompanies in the world, compa-nies backed by millions of sur-plus, and reputations for conservatism in investment, fairness and promptness in paying claims.

WE WRITE PLATE GLASS, ACCIDENT, STEAM BOILER, AND FIRE INSURANCE.

Selz Royal Blue Shoes

are money's worth

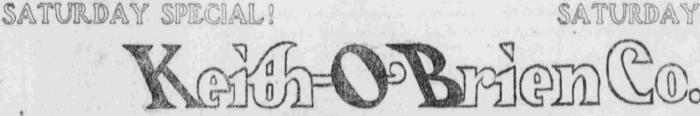

Every time you buy a pair of Selz Royal Blue shoes you get your money's worth; they're better than they cost, $3.50 and $4.

The important thing about Selz shoes is that the name is like the Sterling mark on silver, it always means "good shoe."

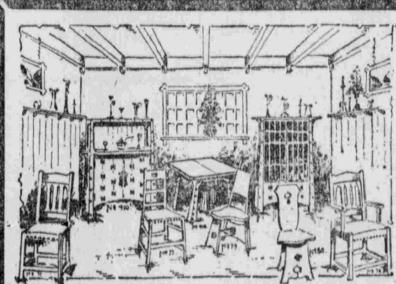

You may be sure of it; we are. Get Selz Royal Blue $3.50 and $4.

Big Clearance Sole of broken lines of Children's Vests, Pants and Drawers. Among these you will find wool fleece, mottled camel hair and gray.

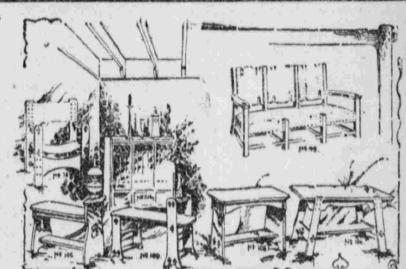

From 20c to 371c for From 40c to 85c for

Chereople Are With

WIND THE RESIDENCE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROP

A SPLENDID DISPLAY OF

Dinwoodey's are now displaying novelties in furniture, Each article contains the necessary qualities attributed to practical and sensible Xmas Gifts. # # # # # #

H. DINWOODEY FURNITURE CO.