OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

CLERICAL "HABIT" GOVERNOR MURRAY'S MESSAGE - ANTI-MONOPOLY - LIBELLERS - SOCIALISTS IN CHICAGO.

GOVERNOR MURRAY'S MESSAGE.

The quarterly conference of the Chicago Board of Trade, which was held in the Chamber of Commerce building, on the 21st and 22nd of January, 1895, was a most interesting and profitable session. The board, which is composed of the leading business men of the city, met to discuss the state of the market and the prospects for the future. The session was opened by a prayer, and then the president, Mr. J. H. McMillan, made a report on the work of the board during the past year. He stated that the board had been very active in its efforts to promote the interests of the city and the state, and that it had succeeded in securing many important concessions from the federal government. He then turned to the question of the market, and stated that it was in a very favorable position. He predicted that the year would be a successful one for the city, and that the board would continue to work hard to promote its interests.

THE BEST PLACE

for a man or woman who wants to die a natural death, and to take their bodies to the happy hunting grounds, would be to repair to Utah, and find out some little cave or gully, and there, in the quietude of the night, to slip off their mortal coil, and be at rest.
