TELEGRAPHIC.

THE COST OF PEACE.

Amount of Assessment as Stated by China and Japan.

THE MONEY INDEMNITY REDUCED.

In Effective and Peaceful Alliance Russia Is Found to Be One of the Gentlemen.

London, April 15.—A Copenhagen dispatch to the Times from Shanghai says that Li Hung Chang's salutation telegraphic message of congratulation was signed on the second Monday of the present month by the plenipotentiaries of China and Japan. Following are the terms of the convention:

Japan—The payment of an indemnity of 200,000,000 taels.

China—The Japanese shall also retain temporarily the city of Wei-hai-wei.

Further, the island of Formosa is ceded permanently to Japan.

Also—The cession of an island off the coast of Kiang-su.

Also—Positive and definite commercial concessions.

The Scandinavian Treaties.

London, April 15.—The Standard prints a letter on the probability of a long war of Sweden and Norway against Russia, in which the writer says: "The Swedish army is the finest military organization in the kingdom. Its men are the strongest and will develop fighting qualities on land. If it comes to a war with Russia, Sweden will not be alone. Norway will undertake the transportation of an army corps. The Norwegian army would then defend its frontier, surrounding the Russians between Norway and Sweden, and would unite with the Norwegian army. The Swedish fleet is very powerful. Cruisers and torpedoes would be sent to sea. It is admitted, however, that the task would be very difficult, but the task would be accomplished."

It's the strongest, and cost, Dr. Price's Baking Powder, and it's absolutely pure.

LAST CHANCE SEIT.

Action in the case by the United States Supreme court.

Washington, April 15.—The case of the Last Chance Mining company against Mollus company, for alleged trespass on Iron hill, was decided by the United States Supreme Court, today. The case was appealed from the United States circuit court of Arizona to Sixth circuit on a question of a writ of certiorari made by the Last Chance company. The circuit court of appeals was to file its opinion in the Tyler company. The circuit court of appeals decided that it had no jurisdiction in the matter, and so in favor of the Last Chance company.

Decision was handed down by Judge Brewer. The Supreme Court does not go into the merits of the important questions presented by the case, saying that the court has no jurisdiction to review the decision of the circuit court of appeals in such cases. It is upon the validity of the judgment sought to be taken to the Supreme court of the United States that the latter court is called upon to pass.

The court does not pass upon the question of priority of location, and its opinion was favorable to the Last Chance company. The case was argued in the United States circuit court, which held that the judgment in the Tyler case was binding upon the Last Chance company. It is upon this point that today's decision turns. The Supreme court holds that the circuit court of appeals has no jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari to inferior courts, except in cases involving questions touching the validity of treaties or statutes of the United States, or where the matter in dispute exceeds $1,000.

The most important question is settled, which will probably be brought before the new civil court for the Territory of Arizona. The Supreme Court says, in substance, the owners of a mine have a right to follow the vein below the boundaries of the claim, although the apex of the vein may be on the surface of the claim adjoining. The argument which Bradley brought to bear upon the case was that Justice Brewer said was apparently a question not covered by statute, and that it had never been passed upon by the court.

MAY IMPORT MEXICAN CATTLE

In View of the Rise in the Price of Beef in this Country.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—In view of the great rise in the price of beef and the scarcity of cattle, the case of the threat of animal contagion, Dr. Salmon, the veterinarian of the department of agriculture, has recommended to Secretary Morton the removal of the embargo on cattle from Mexico under stringent regulations, intended to obtain a safe importation of all such animals. Secretary Morton intends to confer with the cattle men of the country, and if they concur in the recommendation it is probable that the embargo will be removed.

CAPTAIN OF THE ROAD DEAD.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Another of the veterans of Napoleon's army, a soldier who served in the grand army of the empire, has passed away. Captain Jean Baptiste Lemoyne, who died in this city on the 12th inst., was born in 1776. He attended as a private the funeral of Napoleon I. He was also present at the coronation of Napoleon III. He was a captain of the old guard. He was the last survivor of the battle of Waterloo.

FRANK JAYE KILLED

This is the Story as to Hasten Latest from Cameron.

London, April 15.—The Daily Mail publishes an account of the killing of the scout of the Jameson raiders, Frank Jaye, by the Matabeles. The account was brought to Johannesburg by the scout Heany, who left Cameron's camp on the 6th inst. Heany says that Jaye was killed by the Matabeles while he was scouting in front of the column. Jaye's horse was found dead, with the saddle and bridle on. Jaye's body was not found. Heany says that Cameron's column was attacked by the Matabeles on the 5th inst. The fight lasted all day. The Matabeles were finally repulsed with heavy loss. Cameron's column had only one man killed and two wounded.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

Bimetallists and Monometallists Meet in Convention.

Denver, Colo., April 15.—An immense hall in Tabor's block was filled to its utmost capacity this evening by the delegates to the bimetallic convention, and hundreds of others were unable to gain admittance. The meeting was called to order by Governor Waite, who, in a few words, introduced Hon. Edward Rosewater of Omaha, who was chosen temporary chairman. Mr. Rosewater, in his address, said that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering the financial question, and that it was the duty of every citizen to do all in his power to bring about the restoration of silver to its former place as money. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully.

SAY IMPORT MEXICAN CATTLE

In View of the Rise in the Price of Beef in this Country.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—In view of the great rise in the price of beef and the scarcity of cattle, the case of the threat of animal contagion, Dr. Salmon, the veterinarian of the department of agriculture, has recommended to Secretary Morton the removal of the embargo on cattle from Mexico under stringent regulations, intended to obtain a safe importation of all such animals. Secretary Morton intends to confer with the cattle men of the country, and if they concur in the recommendation it is probable that the embargo will be removed.

CAPTAIN OF THE ROAD DEAD.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Another of the veterans of Napoleon's army, a soldier who served in the grand army of the empire, has passed away. Captain Jean Baptiste Lemoyne, who died in this city on the 12th inst., was born in 1776. He attended as a private the funeral of Napoleon I. He was also present at the coronation of Napoleon III. He was a captain of the old guard. He was the last survivor of the battle of Waterloo.

FRANK JAYE KILLED

This is the Story as to Hasten Latest from Cameron.

London, April 15.—The Daily Mail publishes an account of the killing of the scout of the Jameson raiders, Frank Jaye, by the Matabeles. The account was brought to Johannesburg by the scout Heany, who left Cameron's camp on the 6th inst. Heany says that Jaye was killed by the Matabeles while he was scouting in front of the column. Jaye's horse was found dead, with the saddle and bridle on. Jaye's body was not found. Heany says that Cameron's column was attacked by the Matabeles on the 5th inst. The fight lasted all day. The Matabeles were finally repulsed with heavy loss. Cameron's column had only one man killed and two wounded.

For the asthmatic, use Dr. Price's Baking Powder, and it's absolutely pure.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

Bimetallists and Monometallists Meet in Convention.

Denver, Colo., April 15.—An immense hall in Tabor's block was filled to its utmost capacity this evening by the delegates to the bimetallic convention, and hundreds of others were unable to gain admittance. The meeting was called to order by Governor Waite, who, in a few words, introduced Hon. Edward Rosewater of Omaha, who was chosen temporary chairman. Mr. Rosewater, in his address, said that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering the financial question, and that it was the duty of every citizen to do all in his power to bring about the restoration of silver to its former place as money. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully.

LAST CHANCE SEIT.

Action in the case by the United States Supreme court.

Washington, April 15.—The case of the Last Chance Mining company against Mollus company, for alleged trespass on Iron hill, was decided by the United States Supreme Court, today. The case was appealed from the United States circuit court of Arizona to Sixth circuit on a question of a writ of certiorari made by the Last Chance company. The circuit court of appeals was to file its opinion in the Tyler company. The circuit court of appeals decided that it had no jurisdiction in the matter, and so in favor of the Last Chance company.

Decision was handed down by Judge Brewer. The Supreme Court does not go into the merits of the important questions presented by the case, saying that the court has no jurisdiction to review the decision of the circuit court of appeals in such cases. It is upon the validity of the judgment sought to be taken to the Supreme court of the United States that the latter court is called upon to pass.

The court does not pass upon the question of priority of location, and its opinion was favorable to the Last Chance company. The case was argued in the United States circuit court, which held that the judgment in the Tyler case was binding upon the Last Chance company. It is upon this point that today's decision turns. The Supreme Court holds that the circuit court of appeals has no jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari to inferior courts, except in cases involving questions touching the validity of treaties or statutes of the United States, or where the matter in dispute exceeds $1,000.

The most important question is settled, which will probably be brought before the new civil court for the Territory of Arizona. The Supreme Court says, in substance, the owners of a mine have a right to follow the vein below the boundaries of the claim, although the apex of the vein may be on the surface of the claim adjoining. The argument which Bradley brought to bear upon the case was that Justice Brewer said that was apparently a question not covered by statute, and that it had never been passed upon by the court.

SAY IMPORT MEXICAN CATTLE

In View of the Rise in the Price of Beef in this Country.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—In view of the great rise in the price of beef and the scarcity of cattle, the case of the threat of animal contagion, Dr. Salmon, the veterinarian of the department of agriculture, has recommended to Secretary Morton the removal of the embargo on cattle from Mexico under stringent regulations, intended to obtain a safe importation of all such animals. Secretary Morton intends to confer with the cattle men of the country, and if they concur in the recommendation it is probable that the embargo will be removed.

CAPTAIN OF THE ROAD DEAD.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Another of the veterans of Napoleon's army, a soldier who served in the grand army of the empire, has passed away. Captain Jean Baptiste Lemoyne, who died in this city on the 12th inst., was born in 1776. He attended as a private the funeral of Napoleon I. He was also present at the coronation of Napoleon III. He was a captain of the old guard. He was the last survivor of the battle of Waterloo.

FRANK JAYE KILLED

This is the Story as to Hasten Latest from Cameron.

London, April 15.—The Daily Mail publishes an account of the killing of the scout of the Jameson raiders, Frank Jaye, by the Matabeles. The account was brought to Johannesburg by the scout Heany, who left Cameron's camp on the 6th inst. Heany says that Jaye was killed by the Matabeles while he was scouting in front of the column. Jaye's horse was found dead, with the saddle and bridle on. Jaye's body was not found. Heany says that Cameron's column was attacked by the Matabeles on the 5th inst. The fight lasted all day. The Matabeles were finally repulsed with heavy loss. Cameron's column had only one man killed and two wounded.

For the asthmatic, use Dr. Price's Baking Powder, and it's absolutely pure.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

Bimetallists and Monometallists Meet in Convention.

Denver, Colo., April 15.—An immense hall in Tabor's block was filled to its utmost capacity this evening by the delegates to the bimetallic convention, and hundreds of others were unable to gain admittance. The meeting was called to order by Governor Waite, who, in a few words, introduced Hon. Edward Rosewater of Omaha, who was chosen temporary chairman. Mr. Rosewater, in his address, said that the meeting was called for the purpose of considering the financial question, and that it was the duty of every citizen to do all in his power to bring about the restoration of silver to its former place as money. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully. He said that the money question was the most important one before the people, and that it was the duty of every one to study it carefully.

LAST CHANCE SEIT.

Action in the case by the United States Supreme court.

Washington, April 15.—The case of the Last Chance Mining company against Mollus company, for alleged trespass on Iron hill, was decided by the United States Supreme Court, today. The case was appealed from the United States circuit court of Arizona to Sixth circuit on a question of a writ of certiorari made by the Last Chance company. The circuit court of appeals was to file its opinion in the Tyler company. The circuit court of appeals decided that it had no jurisdiction in the matter, and so in favor of the Last Chance company.

Decision was handed down by Judge Brewer. The Supreme Court does not go into the merits of the important questions presented by the case, saying that the court has no jurisdiction to review the decision of the circuit court of appeals in such cases. It is upon the validity of the judgment sought to be taken to the Supreme court of the United States that the latter court is called upon to pass.

The court does not pass upon the question of priority of location, and its opinion was favorable to the Last Chance company. The case was argued in the United States circuit court, which held that the judgment in the Tyler case was binding upon the Last Chance company. It is upon this point that today's decision turns. The Supreme Court holds that the circuit court of appeals has no jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari to inferior courts, except in cases involving questions touching the validity of treaties or statutes of the United States, or where the matter in dispute exceeds $1,000.

The most important question is settled, which will probably be brought before the new civil court for the Territory of Arizona. The Supreme Court says, in substance, the owners of a mine have a right to follow the vein below the boundaries of the claim, although the apex of the vein may be on the surface of the claim adjoining. The argument which Bradley brought to bear upon the case was that Justice Brewer said that was apparently a question not covered by statute, and that it had never been passed upon by the court.

SAY IMPORT MEXICAN CATTLE

In View of the Rise in the Price of Beef in this Country.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—In view of the great rise in the price of beef and the scarcity of cattle, the case of the threat of animal contagion, Dr. Salmon, the veterinarian of the department of agriculture, has recommended to Secretary Morton the removal of the embargo on cattle from Mexico under stringent regulations, intended to obtain a safe importation of all such animals. Secretary Morton intends to confer with the cattle men of the country, and if they concur in the recommendation it is probable that the embargo will be removed.

CAPTAIN OF THE ROAD DEAD.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—Another of the veterans of Napoleon's army, a soldier who served in the grand army of the empire, has passed away. Captain Jean Baptiste Lemoyne, who died in this city on the 12th inst., was born in 1776. He attended as a private the funeral of Napoleon I. He was also present at the coronation of Napoleon III. He was a captain of the old guard. He was the last survivor of the battle of Waterloo.

FRANK JAYE KILLED

This is the Story as to Hasten Latest from Cameron.

London, April 15.—The Daily Mail publishes an account of the killing of the scout of the Jameson raiders, Frank Jaye, by the Matabeles. The account was brought to Johannesburg by the scout Heany, who left Cameron's camp on the 6th inst. Heany says that Jaye was killed by the Matabeles while he was scouting in front of the column. Jaye's horse was found dead, with the saddle and bridle on. Jaye's body was not found. Heany says that Cameron's column was attacked by the Matabeles on the 5th inst. The fight lasted all day. The Matabeles were finally repulsed with heavy loss. Cameron's column had only one man killed and two wounded.

For the asthmatic, use Dr. Price's Baking Powder, and it's absolutely pure.

EASTER OPENING

Baer

24 MAIN STREET, SALT LAKE CITY.
OPPOSITE Z. C. M. I.

YALE'S
ALMOND BLOSSOM
COMPLEXION CREAM.

J. P. FOWLER,
67 South West Temple St.
HORSE SHOEING AND GENERAL BLACKSMITHING.

DIXSONS' CELEBRATED
SAWS
Cross Cut, Drag, One Man, Upright, Mill, Hand, Rip, Panel, Tenon, Pruning, Compass, Butcher, Cook, Keyhole, Etc.
CIRCULAR.

GUN POWDER

THE HAZARD POWDER COMPANY,
Wilmington, Del.

SALT LAKE HARDWARE Co.

AMERICAN CENTRAL INSURANCE CO.

HARRIS & WEBER, Agents.

Queen Insurance Company of America.

GUN INSURANCE COMPANY

CONNECTICUT FIRE INSURANCE CO.

SODA
WATER
PAR
EXCELLENCE.

JOHNSON PRATT
DRUG CO.

F. Auerbach & Bro

Wash Goods.

At 5c yard.

At 5c yard.

At 8c yard.

At 8c yard.

At 10c yd.

At 12½c yd.

At 15c yd.

Laces Laces.

Black Bourdon Laces

Chantilly Laces.

Guipure Chantilly Laces.

Point Venice Lace.

Real Venetian Laces.

Latest Novelties in Wash Goods.

HOME COMFORT

ROLL OF HONOR.

STEEL
HOTEL AND FAMILY RANGES.
CARVING AND STEAM TABLES,
BROILERS, MALLEABLE WATERBACKS,
ETC., ETC.

ABOVE HONORS WERE WROUGHT IRON RANGE CO.,
Hotel Steel Ranges, Kitchen Outfittings and "Home Comfort" Hot-Air Steel Furnaces.

SALES TO JANUARY 1st, 1895, 289,327.

Waverley

The Sensation of the Year

Z C M I