

THE EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, June 4, 1870.

NOTICE.

All Advertisements for the EVENING NEWS must be handed in to this Office not later than one o'clock on the day on which advertisers wish them inserted.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

PRESIDENT AND PARTY.—The President and party arrived at Brigham City about 9 a.m.; all well. Held meeting this morning.

THEATRE.—The bill presented for this evening's entertainment at the Theatre is a very attractive one and ought to draw a crowded house. The performance will be sufficiently varied to suit the tastes of all. In these dull times we want something to make us laugh and feel cheerful. The entertainment this evening will consist of a farce, a comedy, a play, and a variety of songs and dances. The farce is "The Emigrants," which will afford you a good deal of amusement. The comedy is "The Emigrants," which will afford you a good deal of amusement. The play is "The Emigrants," which will afford you a good deal of amusement. The variety consists of songs and dances.

GONE NORTH.—President Young and party started north at half past five o'clock this morning, by special train. They will hold meetings at Brigham City to-day and to-morrow, after which part of the company will continue on north through the settlements and the others will return to this city. Quite a large party we presume, will take advantage of the opportunity offered for a visit to Brigham City by to-morrow's train, which on that occasion will go direct through, and return after the services of the day are over.

POLICE.—James Watson, brought before Justice Clinton yesterday, on a charge of drunkenness, was fined $10. Moroni Duncan, for profanity, paid $5.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.—We slip from the Sacramento Record of the 25th ult, the following notice of the marriage ceremony of John D. Yost, Esq., and Miss Mary E. Ormsby, daughter of Elder J. S. Ormsby, the well-known physician of this city:

At noon yesterday a large and fashionable assemblage gathered in the Congregational Church on Sixth street, to witness the nuptials of Mr. John D. Yost and Miss Mary E. Ormsby. The railings in front of the pulpit had been decorated for the occasion by wreaths and festoons of ivy and lilacs intertwined, the effect of which was extremely graceful and pleasing. At half past twelve o'clock the bridal party entered the church and proceeded to the altar, where the Rev. I. E. Dring was in attendance to perform the ceremony. The bride was supported by Miss Mary E. Hooker, Miss Maria Wood, Miss S. Sparhawk, and Miss Annie Rose, and the bridesmaids were attended by Messrs. Ed. Cadwalader, Charles J. Campbell, E. P. Starr, and A. D. W. McCullough. The bride was dressed in a flowing robe of white Swiss, elegantly trimmed, and surmounted by a wreath of orange blossoms and a long lace veil. She looked lovely, and many a whispered allusion to the good fortune of the bridegroom was exchanged, as she entered. The bridesmaids were also dressed in white, and contributed much to the grace and beauty of the scene. The ceremony was performed by the officiating minister in a solemn and impressive manner, and at its conclusion the organ broke forth in a voluntary, as if welcoming the young couple to the pure delights of the married state. A reception was subsequently held at the residence of Judge S. W. Sanderson, on the northeast corner of Ninth and H. streets, Mrs. Sanderson, the sister of the bride, welcoming the invited guests, who presently were called upon to partake of a collation. The newly married couple proceeded to San Francisco by the Valley route shortly after the completion of the ceremony, on their bridal trip. Both of them are so well known, not only in Sacramento, but in the principal cities of the State, that their union will be learned with interest by an unusually large circle of acquaintances, who wish with us in wishing them all the happiness and all the pleasures and peace of mind, now and hereafter, that the most sincere friends can desire for the most amiable and attached couple.

FELL DEAD.—This morning a gentleman, a stranger here, while examining the attractions in the Desert Museum, was observed to reel, and immediately after he fell to the floor insensible. (Dr. J. S. Ormsby was called in, but before he arrived the unfortunate gentleman had breathed his last. From the examination of papers on his person his name is supposed to be Spencer Smith, of St. Louis. He had on his person the duplicate of a check for $320 on a bank in St. Louis, a gold watch and other property. The deceased is believed to have been a scientific man—a geologist, naturalist and botanist. Death is supposed to have been caused by apoplexy. An inquest was being held upon the body at the time of going to press.

Editor Desert News.—In the Omaha Herald, of the 31st ult, I find the following telegram:

"SALT LAKE, May 30.—The authorities of the city, to-day, refused to allow the United States Marshal the privilege of putting United States prisoners in the city prison, as has heretofore been the custom. They were taken to Camp Douglas."

Being keeper of the City Prison I, of course, am able to speak with certainty as to the truth or falsity of the above statement, and I do so by saying that no such occurrence took place on the above date nor on any other, and the entire story is without any foundation whatever. Respectfully,

W. HYDE, Keeper of City Prison.

We have no doubt that the above telegram owes its paternity to the same malicious source as the one sent East and West, in reference to Judge Wilson being prevented by the "Mormon Authorities" from holding court in this city. No lie is too monstrous or vile for the members of the Anti-Mormon "ring" infesting and disgracing this city and grading a certain burgh up North. No notice would be taken of their villainous attempts to make trouble and mischief, if their lies were confined to Utah, for all here know them to be so notoriously mendacious that none think of placing any more reliance on their word or oath than upon the narratives of Messrs. Munchausen and Gulliver.

EARTH CLOSETS.—We have just received an illustrated work, in pamphlet form, on the subject of earth closets, earth sewage, etc., of which George E. Waring, jun., is the author. The history of the system adopted by the Earth Closet Company is amply detailed in the work, and it contains a great deal of useful information. It is published at fifty cents, by the Tribune Association, 154 Nassau street New York.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 4, 1870.
Ed. News.—Sir:—I am informed that that Reverend gentleman has returned from the East with the funds collected for the support of the poor, etc., in Utah. As there are a great many needy and needy people, who have waited anxiously for months for the return of the aforesaid gentleman and funds, would it not be wise to notify the poor, the blind, the dumb, lame, jaundiced, and all others interested, that their wants can now be supplied in cash or its equivalent in cold victuals or something else on demand?

Respectfully,
J. C. RICH.

BASE BALL.—A match game of base ball was played between the Alert and Step and Fetchit base ball clubs on Thursday, on the grounds of the latter club, resulting in victory for the latter, by a score of sixty-nine to thirty-eight runs.

SMALL POX.—Brother William Eddington, Mayor of Morgan City, Morgan county, called in this morning. He reports one case of small pox in Morgan City, the patient progressing favorably. The authorities of the city have established a hospital about a mile from the town, to which the patient and his family have been removed, and they are using every effort and precaution to prevent the spread of and to exterminate the disease. We sincerely hope their efforts may be successful.

THE JUVENILE INSTRUCTOR.—The seventh number of this interesting little paper is before us, and is not less interesting than the previous numbers. Its contents are: The Distaff—Illustrated, Chemistry of Common Things, Force of Imagination, The Lighthouse, Missionary Sketches, Wonderful Memories, The Wonders of the Deep—Illustrated, Joseph Smith, the Prophet, How Chewing Gum is Made, Winning his Plumes, a Military Goat and Poetry. The little sheet is very popular with persons of all ages, but especially so with the young, who look anxiously for its appearance. It amply merits the high reputation it has of being a valuable and instructive little paper.
