EVENING NEWS.
Monday, June 2, 1884.
OUR OGDEN BUDGET.
OGDEN CITY, UTAH, MONDAY, 1884.
Editor Evening News:
For a number of days past we have been visited each day with successive rainstorms, accompanied by a raw atmosphere, which at times rendered an outdoor excursion almost impossible. The clouds, which have been so continuous, have been the result of a low barometer, and it would be possible to hold any out-door service on Monday.

MEMORIAL DAY.
A lovely shower of rain fell during the night, but at seven o'clock this morning the sky had cleared somewhat and at 11:30 the sun shone brightly. The day was a beautiful one, and the people of Ogden gathered in the park to observe the funeral of the late General H. C. Ward. The procession was composed of the Knights of Pythias, the Grand Lodge of the Fourth Ward and the Grand Lodge of the Fourth Ward.

THE SOLDIERS' GRAVES.
The procession being formed under the command of Adj. General H. C. Ward, took up its march along Main street to Second street, where it turned to the right. The train was very small compared with some of those of former years.

THEIR OWN DEAR DEPARTED ONES.
and as I roamed over those grounds, I noticed that very many graves had been cleared of the rank weeds which luxuriated upon them. The graves were in the shape of a cross, and the appearance of new graves was very noticeable.

THE LIVER AND ITS FUNCTIONS.
The liver is a very important organ, and its functions are many. It is the largest organ in the body, and it is the seat of the life-giving power. It is the source of the blood, and it is the source of the energy. It is the source of the life, and it is the source of the power.
