FIRST STRETCH OF TRACK

From Ogden to East Shore of Lake, Distance of 14 Miles-All to be In by Feb. 10.

Judging from a letter received in this city this morning from Chief Engineer William Hood, of the Southern Pacific, the Ogden-Lucin cut-off will be built across the lake despite the assurances. that have been received by the "News" from responsible parties who professed to be informed otherwise.

The letter referred to is a type written request that has been mailed to all railroad contractors in this and adjoining states asking for bids on the proposed stretch of track from Ogdan to the lake, a distance of 14.46 miles, and stating that all bids must be by the end of the next two weeks.

The request is as follows:

"Proposals will be received by the Southern Pacific company until February 10, for grading and masonry on constituction of the Ogden & Lucin railway from a point on the Central Pacific railway near and westerly from Ogden station, Utah, to a point near the easterly shore of Great Sult Lake near Little Mountain, a distance of fourteen forty-six hundredths miles.

"The Southern Pacific company here-by reserves the right to reject any or all said proposals, and reserves the right to accept any proposal that may to it eem most desirable, without reference to the prices named in any other proposal or proposals that may be submitted to any person or persons. "Plans and specifications can be obtained from the office of the chief en-gineer, Southern Pacific company, 4 Montgomery street, San Francisco, California.

CONTRACTORS PUZZLED.

HUGE UNDERTAKING.

The building of the Ogden-Lucin cutoff will be a huge undertaking and will cost in the neighborhood of $6,500,000, If the route already set forth is taken there will be over fourteen inlies to negotiate where the water averages 50 feet in depth. This will mean the building of solid masonry piers to sup-port the girders of the bridge at stated intervals. Owing to the network of the intervals. Owing to the nature of the water, it will be impossible to use steel unless it is embedded in concrete.

From the east to the west shore of the lake the distance is about thirtytwo miles, and all of this, save two nules across the rocky Promontory Point and several miles of fills on the vest shore of the lake will be trestlework over the lake. There is said to be only one place on the west shore where the railroad can approach the water the rairoad can approach the water in the vicinity of the proposed line, and that is the narrow strip where the great American desert comes down to the water's edge, the place supposed to have been the outlet into the former Lake Bonneville of the justernary period. It is supposed that the desert was the bed of this lake.

SOME FIGURES.

One of the most important advant-tages to be gained by the new cut-off, aside from the shortening of the dis-tunce, is the reduction of the grades. On the old line a trait leaves Ogden at an elevation of 4,301 feet above the see level. A drop of about 100 feet is made in the sum of trants als when the made in the run of twenty-six miles to Corinne. Then comes the famous climb to Promontory, where the last spike was driven which joined the Union Pa-cific and the Central Pacific. West from this point comes a thirty-nine-mile descent to Kelton, which has an elevation of 4.225 feet. Then begins the sharp 500 foot climb in ten rollies of the sharp 500 foot climb in ten miles of Kelton hill. Lucin has the same vation practically us the point of Kel-ton hill, but the forty-sight miles in-clude a drop of about 150 feet to Ter-nace, a similar rise. The new line will do away with all the pusher engines that have for yes been employed on that section of i Central Pacific. From Ogden to i lake shore there is a drop of about feet, then will come a dead level r neross the lake until Strong's Knob reached on the west shore. From the point to Lucin the elevation is said t icrease 500 feet for close on to the sixty miles covered.

OLD FOLKS COMMITTEE. FEDERAL CANAL PROJECT.

Should Make the Grand Valley the Greatest of Peach Centers.

State Engineer Doremus is encouraged as to the Grand Junction canal scheme, because the government has practically promised to run the surveys and report on the practicability of the same. If the report is favorable, the chances are that the canal will be constructed by the government which will "get its money back" in the en-ranced value of the public lands under ad Mazurka" excellently, and Misa the big ditch. This scheme involves diverting the Grand river a distance above Grand Junction, and carrying the water immediately south of the Book Cliffs west across the desert to the reen river at Blake City on the Ric france Western, When the idea is arried out, Grand Junction people laim that thousands of new settlers ill be brought into the country to take these reclaimed lands and turn them to fertile acres. It is figured this ans an increase in the local fruit inests that ought to make of that part the Grand valley the greatest peach enter in the United States. It would not only grow peaches, but it would iry them, can them and add immensely the rallroad freights and the general traffic of the country.

PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING

"I used to think it was largely a waste of money for our Presbyterian home mission board to send much money out West for evangelical pur-poses," said Rev. Dr. Campbell of Pawnee, Neb., at the Kenyon today, "but after traveling over the far West as much as I have within the last few months and studying the character of the people, I am convinced that I was mistaken. I shall take pleasure in recommending that more money be ex-pended in religious work in this western country." Dr. Campbell remarked his blief that a remarkable field for
