Mr. Jacques suggested the revision of the laws on ten years. [Mr. Stout stated that the compiled laws remained him of a huge block of stone hammered into spalls, each succeeding Legislature having mutilated them, so that if an attorney could understand them at present, then he merited all the fees he received. It was much worse for the farming man appointed as justice of the peace. A farmer coming from the plow to try a case, an intelligent lawyer could have what ever law suited his case in force, and quote it from the Compiled Laws. The book looked as though it had been struck with lightning. It was likely to be struck again, and therefore required stimulation. Was in favor of referring the corpse to a standing committee instead of degrading the minds of its speakers by ranging it by its incoherence. The bill was finally sent to the judiciary. Mr. Penrose presented the biennial report of the Territorial Superintendent of District Schools, pending the reading of which the House adjourned until Tuesday, 2 p.m. Benediction.

Correspondence.

CASA GRANDE, Pima Co., A. T. January 7, 1892. Editor Desert News: In my last letter we were still at Smithville on the upper Gila, or the Valley of Pueblo Viejo. On the evening of the 28th, we held meeting, when President Macdonald read the 8th sec. of the Book of Doctrine and Covenants, and spoke on that subject. Followed by Elder H. W. Brice and Bishop Joseph W. Rogers. On the morning of the 27th we visited the Sunday school under the superintendency of Elder A. P. Newell with Alfred Chiff and Winfield Moody his assistants. There are in this school 90 scholars enrolled and twenty-six efficient teachers. After roll call and the administering of the sacrament they dispensed with their other exercises when Elder C. L. Robison addressed the school, followed by John S. Merrill. In the afternoon the sacrament was administered by Elder John Taylor and George M. Howe, when Elders C. L. Robison and President Macdonald addressed the meeting on the subjects of local government, union, obedience, etc.

After the meeting we met, and after singing and prayer by Elder Wm. Johnston, the choir, which cannot be excelled in this Territory, and is under the direction of Elder Peter L. Robison addressed the school, followed by John S. Merrill. In the afternoon the sacrament was administered by Elder John Taylor and George M. Howe, when Elders C. L. Robison and President Macdonald addressed the meeting on the subjects of local government, union, obedience, etc.

On the morning of February 1st we left this place, Brothers Teeples, Eugene Holladay and Wm. Ransom accompanying us. Twenty-six miles across the east side of Sulphur Spring Valley brought us to Elder W. N. Fife's (ex-marshal of Ogden City). We found them all well and very busy making improvements. His place is situated on the west side of the Chloricua Mountains 45 miles east of Tombstone and about 35 miles north of the Arizona line in a very beautiful grazing country with a good amount of stock and garden vegetables with a saw mill six miles from his house which supplies a great deal of timber to Tombstone. In the evening we held a meeting in Elder Fife's house; there were four strangers present besides our company and Bro. Fife's family. Elders H. W. Brice and D. P. Kimball encouraged these present to live up to their principles of the Gospel. During the night we had four inches of snow fall.

In the morning we left for Tombstone, arriving 8 p.m. we spent the evening very agreeably with Dr. J. H. Heman, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Greer and wife, formerly of Payson, Idaho, called on John Young, son of Elder E. R. Young, of Washville, who is doing a commission business under the name of Armstrong and Young. Leaving here in the morning, 16 miles travel brought us to St. David making a distance of 250 miles. We have traveled since leaving here. After refreshing ourselves we held meeting in the evening, when President Macdonald and Elder F. C. Merrill addressed the meeting on the government of God through his Priesthood, when Elder Calvin Reed was voted in to take charge of this branch till D. P. Kimball returns.

February 4th was spent in council with the brethren. In the evening there was a picnic party gotten up by the sisters of this place which was a very agreeable affair. Presiding Elder, D. P. Kimball gave some good instructions to the young in carrying out the counsels of the Priesthood in regard to round dances.

About noon on the 5th we parted with our friends at this place. Joseph McRae bringing us eight miles to Benson, at which place we took cars for Tucson. On our reaching this point the train was boarded by a doctor, who enquired into our health, especially if there was any symptoms of small-pox. We laid off here for the night in order to do some business with the U. S. Mail office. Took train on the afternoon of the 6th for Casa Grande arriving here at 6.45 p.m. all well, and 40 miles from home, which we expect to reach tomorrow night, which will make a distance of 60 miles that we have traveled, visiting all of our people that we could hear of in our circuit. Trusting that we have been able to do some good.

I remain, your brother in the gospel, CHAS. I. ROBISON.
