CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

The Senate met at noon, the Vice-President in the chair. All the leading Senators were present. The chaplain in his opening prayer alluded to the death of Mr. Greeley as that of one whose pen had given direction to public thought and had been a benefactor to mankind.

The House was notified of the Senate's readiness for business. A number of bills were introduced, among them a resolution by Sumner as follows:

"Whereas, national unity and good will among our fellow citizens can be assured only through oblivion of past differences, and it is contrary to the usage of civilized nationalities to perpetuate the memory of civil war,

"Therefore, be it enacted that the names of battles with fellow citizens shall not be continued in the army or placed on the regimental colors of the United States."

Simpson, Ky., presented the credentials of Gen. Mathias, sr., from Kentucky to succeed Garrett Davis, and he was sworn in.

The Vice President presented the credentials of Morrill, elected from Vermont.

Wilson introduced a bill for the relief of sufferers by the Boston fire. The bill is similar to the bill for the relief of the Chicago sufferers.

Cameron introduced a bill granting a pension of $2,000 per year to the widow of Gen. Meade.

The bills were tabled to await the organization of committees.

A resolution was offered and laid over that on Monday next at 1 p.m. the Senate proceed to the consideration.

Rice, Ark., offered a resolution of inquiry, directed to the President, in regard to sending U. S. troops to Arkansas. Laid over.

A resolution was offered to amend the 21st joint rule prohibiting the passage during the first six days of the session of any bill remaining over from last session.

Sumner moved present consideration of his civil rights bill.

Pomeroy made a point of order that under the rules it could not be considered and the chair sustained the point.

Conkling and Thurman were appointed a committee to wait upon the President, and a recess was taken till 1:30

On re-assembling a message was received from the House, announcing the adoption of a concurrent resolution in regard to the death of Horace Greeley.

Fenton moved immediate consideration. Unanimously agreed to.

Conkling, from committee to wait upon the President, announced that they had discharged that duty.

The annual message was brought in by General Babcock, and read by the clerk.

Three thousand extra copies of the message were ordered printed.

The Vice President presented the annual reports of the several departments.—Tabled. Adjourned

HOUSE.

The House was called to order at noon by Speaker Blaine, proceedings opened with prayer by chaplain Butler. The roll was then called. One hundred and forty-nine members answered to their names, and a number of new members were sworn.

Hanks offered his resignation as chairman of the committee on foreign affairs. The House by 79 to 59 refused to accept. Speaker Blaine called Cox, N. Y., to the chair, and taking the floor offered a preamble and resolution setting forth charges which have been made public, in the press, based upon an alleged letter of Oakes Ames and an affidavit of F. H. McComb, that certain members of the House had received bribes from Oakes Ames in connection with legislation concerning the Union Pacific R. R., and called for the appointment of a special committee of five by the speaker pro tem to investigate the whole matter, with power to send for persons and papers.

Blaine made remarks, challenging investigation, and said he had requested of Cox the appointment of a majority of Democrats on the committee. The resolution was adopted by a few negative votes on the Democratic side, and Cox appointed Poland, Banks, Beck, Niblack and McCreary.

Dawes said, "Mr. Speaker, believing that all will concur in the propriety of the public recognition of events so impressive and so without parallel in the history of this government, that have recently transpired, I deem it proper to offer the following resolution:

"Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, in view of the recent death of Horace Greeley, for whom at the late election more than three million votes were cast for president, that a record be made on the journals of Congress of appreciation of the eminent services and personal purity and worth of the deceased, and of the sad impression created by his death, following a keen family bereavement."

Cox, New York, then paid a feeling tribute to the memory and charity of Greeley, after which the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Banks again offered his resignation as chairman of the foreign committee, remarking that it was proper that the House be represented by one who was unqualifiedly committed to the policy of the majority, as he could not claim to be. The House by 89 to 67 refused to accept his resignation.

The Indian appropriation bill was reported, and made the special order for Tuesday, the 10th inst. The amount of the appropriation is stated at $5,379,365, $982,697 less than last year.

After a short recess the President's message was received and at 1.40 p.m., read, and ordered printed.

The pension appropriation bill was reported, and made the special order for Wednesday, the 11th. It appropriates $30,480,000.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was also reported, and made the special order for Thursday, next week.

Butler introduced a bill for the relief of sufferers by the Boston fire. Referred.

Scofield introduced a bill for the reduction of officers in the Internal Revenue Department. Referred. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 3.—Beck, on his own request, was excused from service on the committee of the Oakes Ames investigation on the ground that, during the recent canvass, he had expressed a decided opinion on the subject. Merrick, of Neb., was appointed in his place.

A resolution was adopted, asking the secretary of war for the report of assistant Adjutant Gen. Vincent, on the Freedman's Bureau.

Scofield, Pa., from the committe on naval affairs reported a bill to authorize the construction of ten steam vessels, and appropriating three million for that purpose. The vessels are to carry ten or more guns of large calibre, and the hulls are to be of iron and wood, as the secretary of the navy may determine.

Hale, Maine, offered an amendment that not less than five of the ten vessels shall be constructed at the yards under contract. A debate ensued, Scofield and Shellabarger argued in favor of a policy which should be inaugurated by the passage of a bill. Cox suggested a reduction of the number to five. Banks said he introduced the bill last session in anticipation of trouble with Spain. The affairs of the Gulf of Mexico had not improved since.

Scofield, in reply to a question as to the proposed size of the vessels, said four or five hundred tons would be large enough. He did not suppose that any would exceed one thousand. He opposed Hale's amendment, and took occasion to refer to Banks as having sympathized with the effort to involve the U. S. in a war with Spain. Banks denied the imputation. The morning hour expired and the bill went over.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—R. M. Lee, indicted for attempting to influence, in an illegal manner, a juror in the Brotherton case, has been delivered into custody by one of his bondsmen.

The body of an unknown man was found floating in the bay to-day and taken to the morgue.

SAN FRANCISCO, 3.—Capt. Matthew Cox, superintendent of the Pacific Mail S. S. Co., on this coast has resigned, and Capt. Edward, his former assistant, takes his place.

Philip Cagan, while drunk, fell into a pond at the north beach and was drowned.

Gen. D. D. Colton is reported seriously ill.

YANKEE JIMS, 2.—A daring robbery was committed here last night. M. B Tubbs closed his saloon on Monday night, put the keys in his pocket and went to bed. The thieves entered the back room, took the safe keys and $180 in coin, but left one gold note, some greenbacks and a check for $100. No clue to the robbers.

SAN FRANCISCO, 3.—The foundations of the new city hall are nearly complete.

The rumor that there are ocases of the horse disease in this city seems to be without foundation.

ASHLAND, Ogn.—Caroll and Noah bring twelve hours later news from the Klamath country. They left on Sunday morning. Fifty Klamath Indians, from the agency, well armed and equipped, under the command of Capt. Tarre, had just arrived and reported ready for duty, to protect the citizens.

The people in Langell Valley, one hundred miles from Linkville, were all forted up, and Jesse Applegate, from Clear Lake, reported there also that no news from any further murders had been received, but great fears were entertained for the safety of families living south of the Boddy. Nothing has been herd of the family that were killed. Fourteen men, armed with Henry rifles, left yesterday for Klamath, and will get there to-night.
