

The table was decorated in white and green, carnations and plumosa being used.

Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson went to Provo this week to give an address before the Nineteenth Century club.

The Shakespeare section of the Ladies' Literary club commenced the reading of Hamlet on Wednesday, Mrs. Lehart reading the soliloquy, Mrs. Arthur Peters singing the song in the play, and Mrs. John Cain giving a paper on the philosophy of the drama.

Yesterday at the Ladies' Literary club Mrs. Harry Gunn gave the final paper of the day, entitled, "The Jew in Fiction."

The Cleofan met with Mrs. H. L. A. Culmer on Tuesday, and the club continued the reading of Ruskin's "Sesame and Lilies."

The P. E. O. met this afternoon with Mrs. Freeland.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

The marriage of Miss Letitia Richards to Mr. Robert H. Burton Wednesday was the leading social event of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Burton returned to Ogden on the afternoon train and left for California on a two weeks' wedding tour, after which they will return to Ogden, where they will be at home to their friends at No. 536 Twenty-fourth street after Jan. 1, 1904. The bride and groom are among Ogden's most popular young people. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Richards and has for a number of years been prominent as an instructor in the Ogden public schools. Mr. Burton recently returned from a three years' mission in Germany, and is now in the employ of the First National bank as bookkeeper.

Mrs. Don Maguire entertained a large number of her lady friends Wednesday afternoon at cards. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants.

Wednesday evening Mrs. J. F. Brown was given a delightful birthday surprise at her home, 679 Twenty-second street, the occasion being her forty-seventh birthday. The evening was very pleasantly spent. The guests were ushered into the diningroom, where a dainty supper was served. There were present a number of Mrs. Brown's relatives and friends.

Miss Lulu Bell entertained Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John McGregor. The hours passed quickly away at music, games, etc., after which dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were Mesdames Woods, Alfred Bell, V. Farr, Trille, Charles Bell, W. L. Wattles, Lambert, Bell, S. Dee, James McGregor, Misses Farr, Nettie Bell and Russell.

Mrs. Ecklund entertained the Rathbone sisters Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Warner left Wednesday for California, where they will spend a few weeks' pleasure.

Mrs. Martha H. Brown and daughter May and Frances have gone to Los Angeles where they will spend the winter.

The recital given Tuesday evening at the Ogden tabernacle by Prof. Charles Kent, assisted by Prof. Willard Welhe, violinist, Misses Leona Taylor and Ivy Price, sopranos and a male chorus under Prof. Squire Coop was one of the finest musical evenings ever enjoyed by an Ogden audience. Each number on the program was received with a round of applause, and all who took part on the program shared equally in the honors of the evening. The people say with Prof. Kent "May we meet often."

Tuesday evening the Knights of Pythias were surprised in their session by the wives and daughters of the members calling at the hall bringing with them a dainty lunch which was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Larkin, Sen., returned to their home at St. Joseph, Tooele county, yesterday, after a pleasant visit with their son George W. Larkin in Ogden.

PROVO.

The Elks Ladies' reception was one of the notable events of the season. The rooms were beautifully decorated with purple and white, and palms and flowers were used in profusion. Cards were indulged in and later refreshments were served. The color scheme being carried out in every detail. Salad was served on purple cabbage leaves and the loss and cream were purple and white. Piano music was furnished by Miss Lena Bachman and Miss Pearl Jones. Prof. Neilson's guitar and Mandolin club were in attendance and rendered music, a being stationed behind a screen of palms and potted plants.

Mr. Joseph C. Jones and daughter Pearl have left for Mammoth to reside there permanently.

Mrs. T. Buttle entertained at dinner on Sunday last.

Mrs. Phil Spreckhart was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Mrs. Edith Beck Martin has returned from her extended California trip feeling greatly improved after her much needed rest.

Miss Clara Allen entertained the M. U. club at her residence on Thursday evening. Readings were furnished by Messrs. Mangum, Cheeser and Roberts, and musical selections were rendered by Miss Lucile Young, Miss Effie Howe, Miss Jennie Knight, Mr. Angeline and Mr. McAlister. Those present were Misses Clara Allen, Sylvia Brown, Lucile Young, Effie Howe, Jennie Knight, Chapman, Messrs. Smith, Audeline, McAlister, Roberts, Cheeny and Mangum.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taylor have moved to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Busath of Salt Lake are Provo visitors. Mrs. Busath will remain here for a month or six weeks, the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. R. H. Paxman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ridges have returned from their extended visit at Logan.

Mrs. F. J. Tilton is visiting her sister at Ogden.

The ball given by the Business Men's club on Thursday evening was a successful event.

Miss Dougall of Salt Lake is visiting her Provo friends.

Miss Pearl Daniels has returned from her father's ranch and will spend the winter at her Provo home.

EUREKA.

The members of Tintie No. 13, K. O. T. M. will entertain the state commandery, W. T. Gray of Salt Lake, and the state officers at their hall on Saturday evening. A light luncheon will be served and a royal time is expected.

Miss Frances McChrystal of Salt Lake was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. McChrystal, this week.

The L. D. S. church was the scene of gaiety and happiness Thursday night, the occasion being a dance given to the children. The little folks had a merry time and enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

Darton's orchestra gave a very enjoyable dance at the Odd Fellows' hall on Saturday evening.

The Lyceum Dramatic company composed of young people from Tooele City, played Monday and Tuesday evening at the opera house, presenting the plays "Perils of a Great City," and "Debt of Honor." They gave very creditable performances and deserved the better houses than they drew. The company is making a tour of the state.

The ladies of the Maccabees, Tintie No. 6, have engaged the L. D. S. church for Christmas day and are making active preparations for a grand band and supper on that date. Darton's complete orchestra will furnish the music.

Jesse Knight, the well known mining man of Provo, spent several days this week in Eureka.

Mrs. J. P. Turner and Misses Dot and Myrtle Turner of Salt Lake City were the guests of Mrs. P. E. Turner at the Yankee mine this week.

Mrs. W. D. Myers is the guest of relatives at American Fork.

Mrs. Ed McGovern of Butte City, Mont., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. William B. Mitchell.

A mammoth ball will be given at Hassell's hall, by the people of Mammoth ward on the evening of Dec. 14. The affair should draw a good crowd as it is to be given for the benefit of a good cause—the Relief society fund.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will conduct an art exhibit at 1. O. O. F. hall Dec. 16, 17 and 18. A fine supper will be served afternoons and evenings and as the ladies have the name of being good U. I. entertainers, no doubt the exhibit will receive a liberal patronage.

County Supt. Christensen was over from the county this week visiting the schools at Eureka, Silver City, Mammoth and Knightsville.

Prof. B. L. Holiday of the R. Y. academy delivered two interesting lectures Monday and Tuesday evenings at the L. D. S. church. Large audiences greeted the talented speaker on both occasions who were highly pleased with the entertaining and instructive lectures.

LEHI.

Lehi, Utah, Dec. 4.—Mr. A. B. Bennett is down from Canada, where he has been in the ranching business the last summer. He reports the Lehi people up there as being happy and well satisfied with the country. Mr. Bennett will stay here during the winter and will move his family to Canada in the spring.

Mr. Edw. Southwick, who has charge of the Saratoga Springs for the Utah Sugar company, has moved his family in from the resort into his beautiful new home two blocks north of Main street.

Mr. T. H. Edwards, superintendent of the Garland sugar factory, and Mr. Charles Edwards, foreman of the Idaho sugar factory, were here during the week.

Mr. James Schow has returned from Colorado, where he holds a prominent position with a sugar factory there.

Mr. O. A. Kirkham was in town Wednesday. He will give a concert here on the 11th, and will be assisted by some of the best talent in the state.

Mr. John Olstrom of Grantsville, who has lately returned from a mission to the Sandwich Islands, has been visiting friends here the last few days.

Mr. C. H. Halliday has gone to Idaho Falls, Ida.

Mr. Olof A. Olmstead is down from Bear River, where he has been for some time past.

Mr. Bert Carson of Cedar Fort has been visiting friends here the last few days.

Misses Trysa and Rose Boyer of Springville were visiting relatives here this week.

The Ladies' Literary club met at the home of Mrs. G. N. Child Wednesday afternoon, and a very pleasant time was had discussing prominent authors.

Mr. B. S. Loft is down from Canada, visiting relatives and friends.

BIRMGHAM CITY.

Birmingham City.—Mrs. Hannah K. Stewart of Logan and Mrs. Frenna K. Selley of Salt Lake City spent Thanksgiving and the week following visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kotter of this city.

On Friday and Saturday of last week the state Sunday schools held a union. Officers from every Sunday school in the state were present. Dr. J. M. Tanner and Mrs. Morris of Salt Lake City were present as instructors. Friday evening at the opera house, all the workers enjoyed themselves in a grand ball. During the evening a short musical program was rendered.

Messrs. W. B. Dougall, Jr., Gomer Richards of Salt Lake City have been in our city during the past week.

On Tuesday last the pupils of the Emerson school successfully carried out a surprise on their teacher, Mrs. Alga E. Lee, who was recently married. When the young people came back to school from dinner, they brought their picnic along, which they left with the families living near the school building. When school was dismissed for the day, all the children went quietly out of the room to reassemble in another room of the same building. When all were seated, the teacher sent word in to Mrs. Lee to come to her room on an errand of punishment. When Mrs. Lee opened the door she was astonished to see all her pupils, while they made the air ring by shouting surprise. After the "shock" had passed over the children all scampered off for their picnic, and when they returned all sat down to a "sumptuous banquet." The children were unanimous in wishing their teacher long life and happiness.

Bishop L. N. Stohl, Norman Lee and J. P. Bowring were visitors to the capital Wednesday.

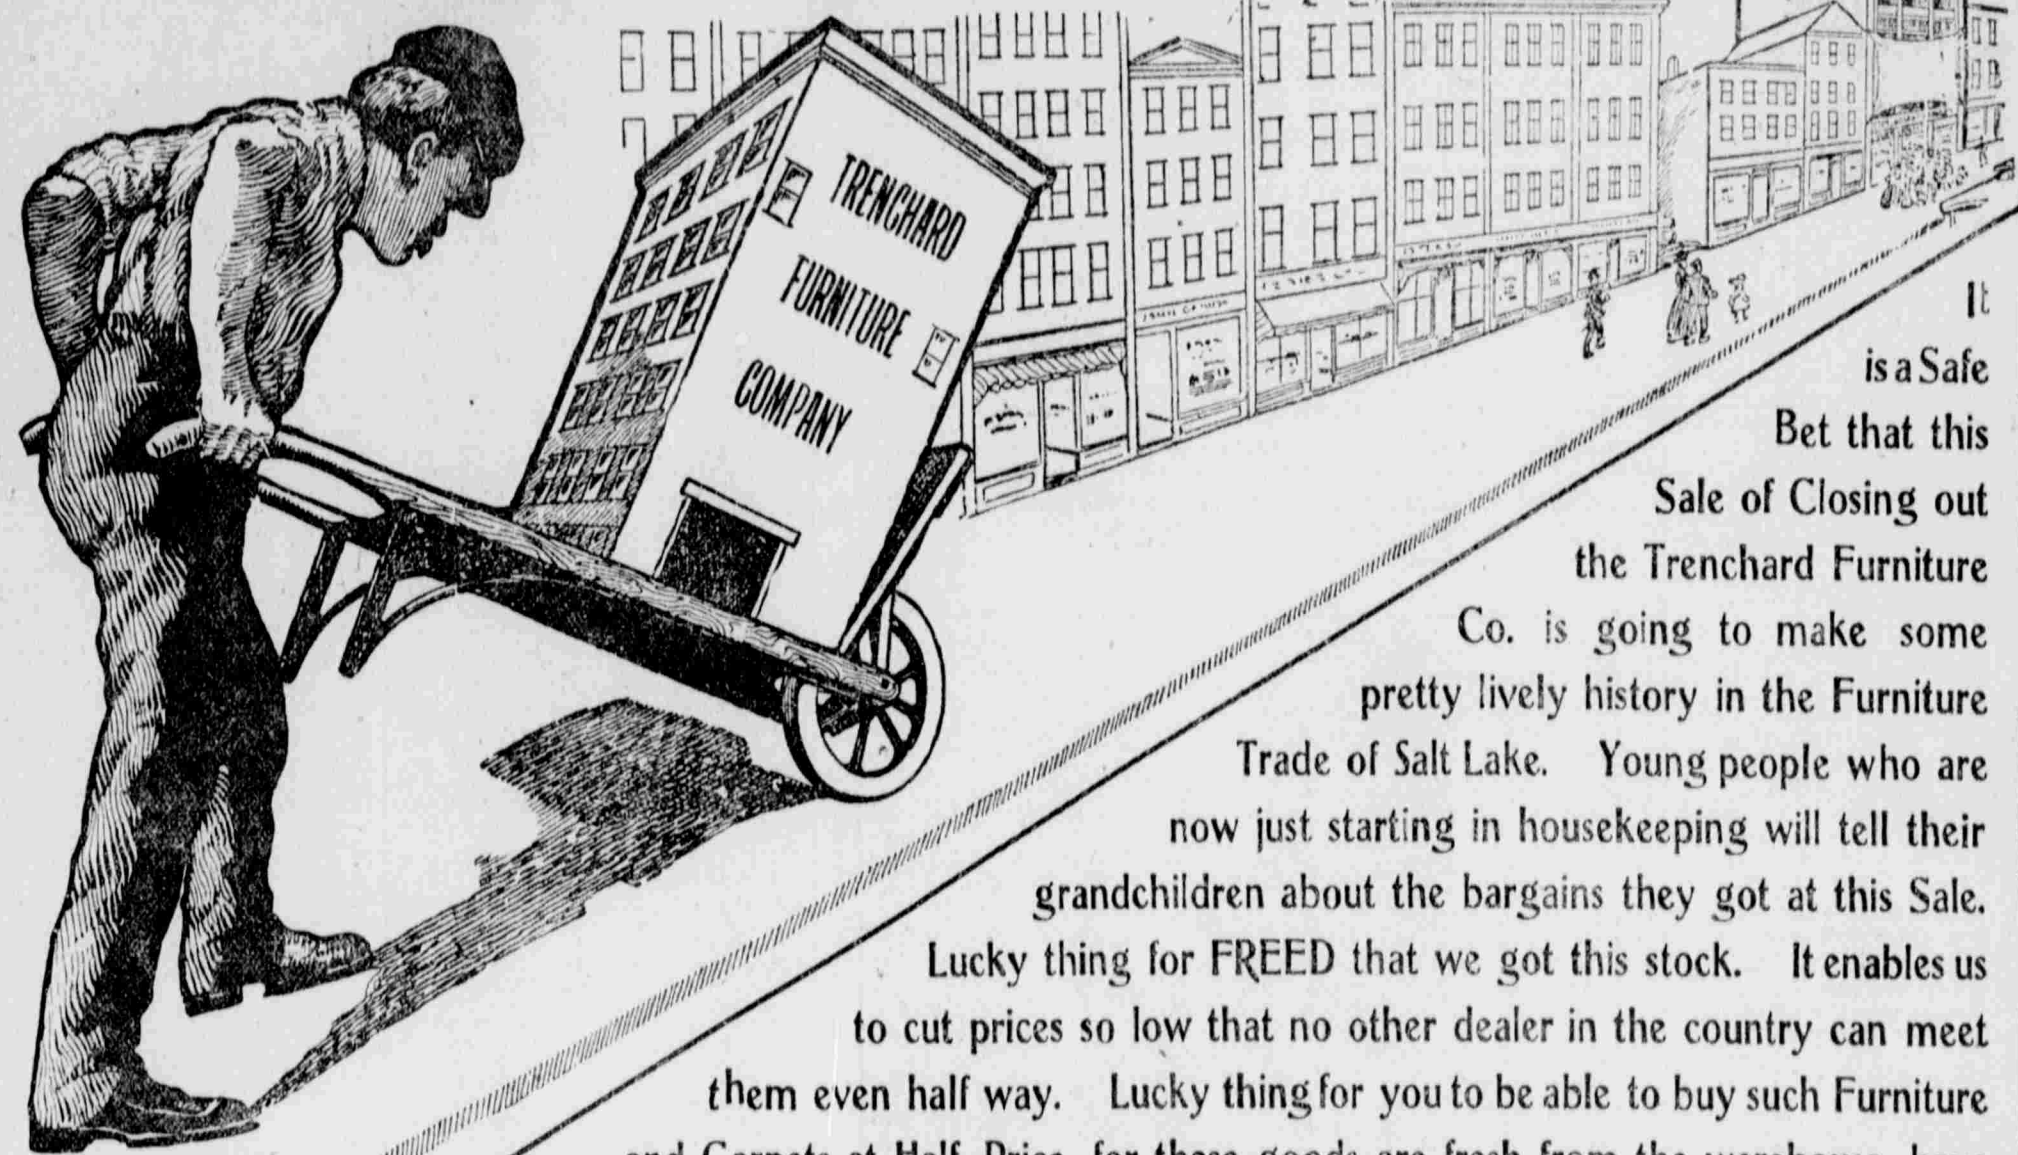

Mr. George Gronoman of Provo has been engaged as first violin in the orchestra, and will very likely be in our city for some time to come.

Mr. C. H. Hyde of the "News" has been in our city during the week gathering material for a "write-up" of our city in the Christmas "News."

Leo Madsen came up from Ogden Saturday last to spend Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. B. Midgley is here from Salt Lake City visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Bowring.

A Stupendous Feat

It is a Safe

Bet that this

Sale of Closing out

the Trenchard Furniture

Co. is going to make some pretty lively history in the Furniture

Trade of Salt Lake. Young people who are now just starting in housekeeping will tell their grandchildren about the bargains they got at this Sale.

Lucky thing for FREED that we got this stock. It enables us to cut prices so low that no other dealer in the country can meet them even half way. Lucky thing for you to be able to buy such Furniture and Carpets at Half Price, for these goods are fresh from the warehouse, have never been unpacked. They are new, up-to-date, fine goods, just as bright and spotless as the day they left the factory. We are now up with our deliveries for last week and can get the goods out prompt. The Trenchard Furniture Co. carried a nice line of goods, and you can rest assured anything you buy here is first class; and Then remember the Freed Furniture and Carpet Co. is running this sale which guarantees satisfaction. Our second week's sale starts Monday. Come in the morning if possible to avoid the Afternoon Rush.

FREED IS GOING TO MAKE THIS THE GREATEST SALE EVER HELD IN SALT LAKE!

Glass Lamps at— 35c	Table Oil Cloth, yard— 15c	Fancy decorated Cups & Saucers, $18.00 at— $10.	Fancy Dinner Plates, each— Cuspidors, Fancy, at— 12½c 15c	$15.00 Dresser at— $9.00	Shades at— 20c
$18.50 Sideboard at— $11.85	$20.00 Dresser at— $12.50	We have 25 Beautiful Pictures, all different subjects, size 23x27 inch, regular price $3.50, we will close them out at $1.25		6 Piece Toilet Sets at— $1.85	$20.00 Dressing Table at— $12.50
5 foot Brass Rods at— 15c	$8.50 Mahogany Music Cabinets at— $5.15	We have 50 Center Tables, size of top 24x24 inches, while they last . . . $1.15		$20.00 Maple Chiffonier at— $14.50	$9.00 Chiffonier at— $5.95
$18.00 Extension Table at— $9.85	Full Size Iron Bed at— $2.00	Extra Special Tapestry Rug, 9 feet by 12 feet, at . . . $13.50		High Chairs at— 90c	Childs' Rockers at— 85c
Sofa Pillows at— $1.00	Folding Bed at— $13.50	Axminster Carpets, per yard, 95c. Velvet Carpets, per yard . . . 90c		Rubber Door Mats at— $1.10	Towel Rollers at— 25c
4 Hook Hat Racks at— 50c	Ingrain Carpets at, yard— 32c	Carpet Remnants, ranging from 2 to 15 yards, at per yard 35c		9x12 Mirrors at— 45c	Heavy Brussel Carpet at, per yard— 75c
40 cent Matting now— 25c	Velvet Rugs at— $1.30	We have 25 nice little Center Stands at only 65c		Art Squares 9 feet x 9 feet at— $3.25	Art Squares, 9 feet x 12 feet at— $4.95
Cream Pitchers at— 20c	Chamberettes at— 40c	We have 50 different styles and colors of Iron Beds, which we are Closing Out at about HALF PRICE. Remember we have nearly everything for the house, which MUST BE SOLD to Close Out This Stock. If you ever had a chance to buy Furniture cheap, now is the time. Come in and see Prices before you buy. Goods bought now for Christmas we will store free of charge until you want them delivered.		$30.00 Buffet now— $18.50	$32.50 Buffet now— $19.50

Our Advice to You is to Come Early Monday and Make Your Selections, as many of the Articles Advertised We Only Have Limited Quantities of. Remember this Stock will be Sold at The Trenchard Furniture Co.'s Show Room, Nos. 228 & 230 South West Temple.

Freed Furniture & Carpet Co.,

Successors to TRENCHARD & HARRINGTON FURNITURE CO.

STOCK TO BE SOLD AT 228 and 230 SOUTH WEST TEMPLE STREET.