THE SALT LAKE CROWD.

Salt Lake still remains the queen of all resorts. She occupies that proud position because of charms that she possesses that are all her own and can be found nowhere else. She is the best of all resorts, and her charms are beginning to work on the people of Salt Lake. The first train that went to Salt Lake yesterday left the depot at 11:15. It carried thirty cars that were fairly well filled. Then beginning at 2:15 five trains went to the lake loaded to the guards. The last crowd arrived there at 5 o'clock, and as a result there was very little open space anywhere about the pavilion. It was estimated that 7,000 people were there, a larger crowd by over 3,000 than on any previous Decoration Day since the resort was opened. The heavy wind tried to blow the crowd into an ill-humor, but it could not do it. It succeeded in making the dancing difficult and lowering the mercury, but it failed to lower the good nature of the happy crowd. It was a body of ladies and gentlemen with a few minor exceptions. The word minor is used advisedly for there were a small number of callow striplings who had watched some man drink a glass of beer, and the beverage seemed to have entered the cavity under their hats.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

At the Jewish synagogue this evening Rev. Mr. Panther of the Unitarian church will speak on "The Modern Problem."

Superintendent E. A. Twilan of the United States fish commission, has left for Colorado, but will return in July to give special attention to the fish interests in Utah.

THE SALT LAKE CROWD.

Brakenham Charles E. Boden, of the Rio Grande Western, was stoned by hoodlums at Provo last evening as the local northbound freight was passing through that city. Boden's face was severely cut and when he reached Salt Lake the company physician dressed his wounds.

THE SALT LAKE CROWD.

Horne Family Reunion.

Eighty-five Descendants of Late Patriarch Have Enjoyable Time.

THE SALT LAKE CROWD.

The Horne family association being the posterity of the late Patriarch Joseph Horne, gathered in annual reunion at the country home of Commissioner William J. Horne at Granger yesterday to the number of eighty-five. Henry Horne, oldest son of the deceased, is the president of the association, but he was unavoidably detained at his home in Arizona. Mrs. Miriam Horne James is the vice president and she gave an address to the younger members of the family. In the afternoon a banquet was spread and speeches were made by President Joseph T. Horne, of Sevier county, Mrs. M. Isabella Horne, Mrs. Mary P. S. Horne and Mrs. James. It was decided to have the biographies written of the late Patriarch Joseph Horne, Mrs. M. Isabella Horne and Mrs. Mary P. S. Horne, by Joseph S. Horne, Minnie H. James and Alice Merrill Horne respectively. These biographies will be added to the historical literature of the family.

THE SALT LAKE CROWD.

One of the most entertaining features of the reunion was a base-ball game in which all took a hand. Four generations were represented in the lively pastime.
