

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House, on Wednesday evening the 11th inst., at 7 o'clock.

Drumming Up.—Captain Beazley's martial band was out enlightening the election to-day with inspiring music.

Lost.—One of the News carriers lost a cloth cape with a velvet collar, Friday night, on the 19th Ward Bench. Will the finder please return it to this office?

Savage's Lecture.—Mr. C. R. Savage will lecture on "Thirteen Thousand Miles by Land and Sea," in the Tenth Ward Meeting-house to-morrow evening, at 7.30. The public invited, free.

Provo's Theatre.—The new Theatre about to be erected in Provo, will stand on a piece of ground purchased from Mr. C. W. Smith, just west of Worsley's blacksmith shop. The building will front north, on a dry and retired street, near the centre of the city.

Cases Dismissed.—The case of the people against H. C. Shurtliff, and that of the people against E. H. Shurtliff, charged with the robbery of Wells Fargo's express, which have been pending in the District Court since the trial last summer, were this morning dismissed.

Elected Officers.—As stated, the Educational Association held a brief session Saturday afternoon, for election purposes. Following is the new board of officials: President, T. B. Lewis; first vice president, John R. Park; second vice president, J. T. Kingsbury; secretary, Hyrum Barton; treasurer, Miss Lottie Clridge. The meeting adjourned to meet next on Saturday, the 21st inst., at 2 p.m.

Our Agent.—Mr. Joseph Bull, Sr., of this city, starts for the Eastern States to-morrow morning, on a visit to the principal commercial cities of the Union. He goes as the agent of the Deseret News, with full authority to make collections, receive subscriptions, and transact business in general for this office. We wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return, and commend him to the good graces of our friends in the East.

Money Found.—Professor T. B. Lewis, who lost his pocket book Saturday afternoon, containing nearly $500 in greenbacks, has fortunately regained possession of it, with its contents intact. After advertising Saturday evening, it was returned to him by Mr. Andrew Peterson, the janitor of the 13th Ward Hall, by whom it was picked up in the room where the Educational Association held its meeting, and where Mr. Lewis had accidentally left it several hours before. Mr. Peterson was offered a reward for his honesty, but would accept nothing. "An honest man is the noblest work of God."

Whatchman's Notes.—Beef in the Beaver market is scarce and of a poor quality. Batter by a luxury in Beaver that only those who town a good catch can indulge in. This has been the coldest winter that Beaver County has experienced for a dozen years.

Additional Remarks.—At the Bishop's meetings, held recently, we have been obliged to condense the remarks of the various speakers, in order to accommodate them to our space. Following is a portion of the sentiments uttered by Bishop Edward Hunter, at the last two meetings, which have not been published in full before: "We have, in time past, said all we can with propriety, on the subject of tithing and offerings. We do not desire to talk on the matter for ever. The bishops, with the aid of their counselors and the Lesser Priesthood, can know whether or not each member of their respective wards pays a reasonable tithing and offerings. This is required of them, and if members do not do it, they can not be held in fellowship. The Lord, in giving the commandment to pay tithing and offerings, says: 'I will not pour you out a blessing that shall be a curse to you to contain.' These things will be handed down to posterity, with the records of our obedience or disobedience to these behests. The records and schedules are preserved with the Bishop's books, from the early history of the Church down to the present time, by which the actions of every member of the Church, who has been faithful to these commandments, have been preserved, and are matters of history in this Church."

The speaker then dwelt upon the order of the Priesthood, and closed by saying: "The bishops are called to labor in both priesthods. Every Bishop in this Church is a Melchizedek High Priest, chosen to act in the Aaronic Priesthood in the absence of the literal sons of Aaron, who were none entitled, finally to abdicate in that Priesthood. It is for us to magnify our callings, wherever and whenever they may be, and we can become the sons of Moses and Aaron, the seed of Abraham, and the elect of God."

Keyser Found Guilty.—The trial of Henry Keyser, impleaded with Hunter and Hemingway for grand larceny, was concluded to-day. The testimony was all in on Saturday, and the case argued by Assistant District Attorney J. B. Beatty, for the prosecution, and by Frank Hoffmann, Esq., for the defense. In the evidence for the defense, it was endeavored to be proven that Hunter and Hemingway, who turned States evidence, had entered into a conspiracy against Keyser, it being testified by a certain keeper of a restaurant, that he heard these two worthies concocting the plan for the stealing of the cattle, and agreeing, if detected in the larceny, they would lay the blame upon Keyser.

This morning the case was further argued by W. W. Woods, Esq., for the defense, and by Judge Van Zile for the prosecution. The latter made a very able argument, in the course of which he showed the ineffective policy of imprisoning such boys as young Hunter for complicity in cases like the one before the court, while the main movers, such men as Henry Keyser and Ben Tasker, were allowed to go at liberty and continue their nefarious work of stealing and hiring others to steal for them. "We must get the ringleaders into prison," said he "before the offenses will decrease. When the keystone of an arch is pulled out the arch will fall. We think we've got hold of the keystone now, and we're going to break up this ring of cattle thieves on this principle."

At the conclusion of his speech, the jury were charged by the court, and retired at ten minutes after 12 o'clock, to consult upon a verdict. They were gone but 14 minutes, and returned with a verdict of "guilty." Thursday, the 12th inst., at 10 a.m., is the time set for the sentence. It is supposed that the case will be appealed.

District Court.—Proceedings on Monday morning, Feb. 9, 1880, before Judge P. H. Emerson: People vs. Adam Paul et al., Dr. Robinson master; defendant desires time set for trial; plaintiff notifies Court that motion will be made to dismiss action. People vs. K. J. Handley, assault; trial set to follow case of People vs. Stringham.

People vs. Alex. Moore; order issued for attachment of witness. People vs. H. C. Shurtliff; action dismissed. People vs. Ella Shurtliff; same. People vs. Henry Keyser et al.; argued by W. W. Woods for defendant, and P. T. Van Zile for plaintiff. Jury charged and retire at 12.10 p.m.; at 12.24 they return with a verdict of guilty. Thursday, at 10 a.m., set for sentence.

Proceedings before Chief Justice Hunter: P. Pugsley vs. A. C. Porter et al.; ten days given to amend answer. Selig and Simon vs. I. S. Waterman; order allowing ten days to answer, set aside. Willis Knapp vs. Societe des Mines, &c.; 10 days allowed defendant to answer.

The Careless Concert.—The programme for the grand concert in the Theatre, Thursday night, will be found in our columns this evening. The indications are that this, the closing performance of the series, will outclipse either of its brilliant antecedents. A good house is insured already, and no doubt by Thursday night enough seats will be sold to fill the building to overflowing. Remember, it is the last appearance of the Careless Orchestra this season.

In the Whole History of Medicine No preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation as AYER'S Cherry Pectoral, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in the first stages of disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it, never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practices, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible. For sale by all dealers. dsw

NOTICE TO SETTLERS. All persons who contemplate moving to the settlements on the Little Colorado River and its tributaries, in the Territory of Arizona, should take along with them sufficient flour and other supplies to sustain them until crops can be raised. The grain raised in those new settlements during the past year is becoming scarce, in consequence of so many going to that country last fall and this winter, and depending on the settlers for their bread. Flour cannot be procured for anything but money, and must then be hauled from 250 to 350 miles.
