LOCAL BRIEFS.

Leon Isaacs, once a resident of Salt Lake, but now of California, where he is secretary of the state horticultural society, paid this city a brief visit on his way home from a trip to Mexico.

Tuesday afternoon an informal reception will be tendered the members of the University faculty and their friends by the Alpha Phi fraternity at their house in Twenty-eighth East street.

Dr. James E. Talmage will lecture tonight in the Twenty-seventh ward chapel on "Scandinavia and her People" illustrated with stereopticon views. The lecture is for the benefit of the ward chapel.

The colored Odd Fellows held memorial services last evening at the Calvary Baptist church on First South street which was attended by the members of the order. The services were opened with a prayer, followed by a Scripture reading, and the singing of hymns.

According to the records in the county auditor's office, Edward Morgan, 15 years of age, has established a record for bounty on sparrow eggs. On Saturday, Morgan brought in $1 dozen, or 972 sparrow eggs. He received a bounty of 5 cents per dozen on them or a total of $4.05 for the entire lot. Dr. Charles Barker is second highest, he having brought in 57 dozen on May 10.

Judge Charles B. Bellinger, who died in Oregon on the 12th inst., is said to have been a member of a company that had been engaged in the timber business under President Brigham Young in 1847. Bellinger was a child at the time, and his father and associates parted with the Pioneers at Bear Valley, and proceeded to Oregon, where they permanently settled.

On account of the small attendance at the meeting in the city council chamber yesterday afternoon of the Utah Society of Philippine Veterans no definite arrangements were made for the Decoration day parade. The meeting will be held on Sunday, May 26, at the council chamber, and a full attendance is desired so that final arrangements for the exercises may be made.

Rev. Frank Fay Eddy discoursed upon the subject of "The Unitarian and Orthodoxy" at Unity hall Sunday morning. The Unitarian was described as being possessor of the two characteristics, love and rationalism. The first of these is the real test of Christianity, and unites the Unitarian with his fellow Christians. Rationalism drives him away from the claims of orthodoxy Christianity.

Prof. McClellan invited to give autumn concerts at Minneapolis.

Prof. John J. McClellan and wife and John E. Hansen and wife returned from Minneapolis yesterday morning, after an absence of 10 days from Salt Lake. Prof. McClellan gave his final organ recital at the great Minneapolis Auditorium on Thursday afternoon last. His last number was the heavenly in all of his extensive repertoire and was received with marked enthusiasm and cordial applause. The demonstration was such a one that is only witnessed on rare occasions. During the outburst he suddenly started the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," and the scene that ensued was quite unique, which caused much amusement.

When the last strains of the grand old air had died away there were shouts of brave and many an introduction without the formality of an introduction. The praise of the Utah artist's work was of the warmest and sincerest nature, and informed the professor that he must consider himself re-engaged for a series of autumn recitals to be given probably in November.

What you pay for extracts is important, but what you get more important. Ask for Burnett's Vanilla, get the best.

BISHOP WHITNEY AT TABERNACLE.

There is No Necessary Conflict Between Mormonism and Americanism

THE GOSPEL PROTECTS ALL.

Boundaries of Christ's Kingdom, Yet To Come, Wider Than Boundaries Of Christ's Church.

The services at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were presided over by President John R. Winder. The hymn beginning, "Author of faith, Eternal Word," was rendered by the choir, and Elder Joseph E. Taylor offered the opening prayer. "We're not ashamed to own our Lord," was then sung by the choir.

Bishop Orson F. Whitney addressed the congregation. He began by saying that before reading certain passages of Scripture, which would form the basis of his remarks, he desired to say that he felt honored at being called to address such a congregation. He had heard yesterday that several hundred ministers of the various Christian sects would be visitors in the city this Sabbath day, and that the services of the various Christian sects would be held in the Tabernacle. He said that he had been requested to speak on the subject of common consent. When the Kingdom of God comes, he said, all men, of all its subjects will not be Latter-day Saints, though necessarily all the members of this Church will be. The boundaries of the Kingdom will be wider and more extended than the boundaries of the Church, and all God's creation will be protected, regardless of party or irrespective of belief or disbelief in the doctrine that any church may advocate.

The "Hallelujah" chorus was rendered by the choir, and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Rudger Clawson.

The colored Odd Fellows held memorial services last evening at the Calvary Baptist church on First South street which was attended by the members of the order paraded the streets headed by the Twenty-ninth Infantry band.

Through this man's instrumentality the Gospel has been restored to the earth and the world has been saved from other worlds, in this earth, according to "Mormonism," is only one of many that God has created, people and redeemed. Hence it was the everlasting gospel.

Referring again to the setting up of the Kingdom of God, the Bishopric in itself, the Lord said that event in view when He sent Columbus to uncover a new world, and also when He inspired the pen of Jefferson to write the Declaration of Independence, and provided the sword of a Washington to defend it. This was the only instrument the Lord used to accomplish his purpose.
