FRANCE.
A New Constitutional Bill.
The sub-committee of the third of thirty have drawn up a new constitutional bill. The measure provides for the continuance of the President of the Republic, for the creation of the second chamber, for the organization of a purely personal senate, which is to terminate with the expiration of President MacMahon's seven years' term, or sooner in case of his death or resignation. No provision is made for a successor to the President, and it is thought that the object of the omission is to leave an opportunity for the restoration of the monarchy, which may be possible when the septennate expires.

Wounded.
Bayonne.—Don Alphonso was wounded in the arm in one of the recent engagements with the republicans.

PRUSSIA.
Compliment to Bancroft.
BERLIN, 1.—The North German Gazette pays a warm tribute to the Hon. Geo. Bancroft. It says the German government sees his departure with regret, and feels that it is a loss to the world. It is a man of high character, and his services to the United States have been more profound than at present. The Emperor William has been so much interested in the man, that he has ordered a portrait of him to be painted in the gallery of the palace.

WEST INDIES.

Our Visit to Denmark.

On Tuesday, May 19th, after attending the London Conference, we embarked at London Bridge, on board the steamer the Copenhagen, and thence to Copenhagen; to attend a conference appointed for May 23rd and 24th. Our passage across the German Ocean, 480 miles to Hamburg, was extraordinarily pleasant, being free from sea-sickness and the many disagreeable features of stormy weather and rough seas. Three hours slow travel by rail brought us to Kiel; seven hours more, by steam, took us across an arm of the Baltic, skirting the coast of the island of Schleswig, and thence to Copenhagen; to attend a conference appointed for May 23rd and 24th. The following day, the opening meeting of the Conference was held at the same place, where the local business of the Conference was transacted in a prompt, spirited and agreeable manner, under the guidance of the President of the Conference—Elder Carstensen, and remainder of the time being devoted to short discourses by some of the Elders. On the Sabbath, three meetings were held, in a large hall, hired for the occasion, which was well attended by the Saints and strangers. The discourses of the elders were listened to with the utmost attention, great interest being manifested in the same by all present. We also helped noticing the contrast, in this respect, from what we experienced twelve years ago, on our first visit to Copenhagen—it was then a mere thing to hold a meeting without molestation or interruption from a bigoted and senseless class of persons who sought on every opportunity to annoy the Saints in their religious worship.

On Monday, the 26th ult., at 10 a.m., a priesthood meeting was held in the same hall, where the local business of the Conference was transacted in a prompt, spirited and agreeable manner, under the guidance of the President of the Conference—Elder Carstensen, and remainder of the time being devoted to short discourses by some of the Elders. We have been very much gratified and pleased in observing the lively and healthy condition of the Copenhagen Conference, (which numbers 92 members), as well as the earnest and commendable zeal of the elders in bearing the banner of Truth. We observed one feature in the conduct of that mission, which we would commend to the notice of the Saints of all the Conferences in the British Isles, wherever it can be made practicable. In agricultural or other districts, work is brisk during the seasons of plowing and sowing, and at other seasons, the local brethren who, during the dull seasons, are out of employment, could be as they are in Denmark, profitably employed in the ministry,—visiting from village to village, or from house to house, among their neighbors, and preaching the everlasting Gospel,—trusting in God, as did the ancient disciples, and as all engaged should do to-day, and at all times, taking no thought as to what they should eat or drink, or what they should wear, but, knowing that He who notices even the sparrow, will not desert the faithful laborer who is worthy of his hire, and when the busy season for the laborer returns, resume work again at their trade, keeping steadily in view the great object of gathering to Zion, and realizing that the quickest and best method leading there, is to be diligent from the many parables in which the poor are inevitably subjected in the over-crowded countries of the Old World—live in the spirit and careful observance of the just and righteous laws of God, revealed to us in His Word.
