

THE INSIDE OF SAN FRANCISCO

Well Defined Plans to Be Made to Check Thieving in the Future.

MORALS AMONG REFUGEES.

Bad State of Affairs in Camps in the Public Parks that Are to Be Broken Up.

Special Correspondence.

San Francisco, June 29.—A conciliation committee composed of well-meaning but easily discouraged citizens has held its final meeting with several strikes still unsettled. That did not prevent the committee from issuing a splendid declaration of principles. After some things were not going their way, the other members declared: "We affirm that industrial peace in itself does not always mean true welfare for the community. It may go hand in hand with an abject state of labor or with economic conditions prohibitive to capital. It is proposed to hold an industrial peace conference and get some sage advice from Seelys, Straus, Metcalf and Garfield."

PLANS TO CHECK GRAFTING.

The vast amount of official grafting done here of late has caused some well defined plans to be made to check thieving in the future by means of an auditing agency. This agency is to be non-official in character and to be operated at a cost of $100,000, raised by private subscription. It is estimated that it will save the city over $5,000,000 and lessen the annual municipal expenditure to something like $5,000,000. Many of our citizens are somewhat skeptical as to the success of the new plan because if officials are kept from grafting in the past, what is the law have stolen in the past, what is to prevent private experts from criminal connivance. Incidental to the new plan, however, is the statement that Detective W. J. Burns, who has run the grafters to earth will live permanently in San Francisco.

JUDGE HEBBARD BITTER.

Rather than have Gov. Gillett afflict the state with a special session of the legislature to impeach him, Superior Judge J. C. B. Hebbard tried to kill him. The other judges were very bitter against the local bar association for recommending his impeachment, and he accuses most of its members of gross ingratitude of the law.

REFUGEES MUST GO.

The refugees have to go and that soon. There are some 18,000 of them living in 6,000 little shacks scattered over 13 public parks, and in less than two months they must find quarters elsewhere. The ministers of the city say that the state of morality in one of the camps has reached so low a point that reform could not be accomplished except by wiping the camp out of existence. It is stated that the irregular family life has sprung up and that boys and girls are in a lamentable condition of debauchery.

COMPLIMENTS EXCHANGED.

Brigadier General Frederick Funston has successfully closed the incident as to his objecting to the federal troops parading on the Fourth of July for fear of their being shot at by the "as yet unwhipped mob." The whole affair created scarcely a ripple and would have been entirely unnoticed had the soldier's letter been properly interpreted. The daily newspaper, which started the rumormongers, made a deadly thrust when it publicly doubted that Funston ever saw the Red-Flag river and the general in reply termed his opponent "a sweet scented organ of anarchy and disorder."

UNDERWRITERS UNEASY.

With the summer trade winds set in with a vengeance and the highly inflammable character of many of the buildings of this city the problem of fires and insurance is a very grave one, and daily becoming more and more so. Several recent disastrous fires have set the citizens thinking how to prevent future conflagrations. Every body has been busy rebuilding and trying to avoid strikes that nobody has thought very much about fire protection. Insurance has gone skyward and on the front door of one prominent company is this significant notice: "No city business written. Please do not ask us."

CRUEL HOAX.

The supervisors are looking for the man who started the story that they would have to disgorge the money made since the fire through the courtesy of several corporations and liberal citizens who were willing to pay for special privileges. The graft prosecutors have as yet taken no steps in that direction and it was a cruel hoax to frighten the docile officials into putting their easy money under cover. One supervisor who sells good, hard and indifferent cigars to his colleagues came near filing a petition in involuntary insolvency and another in whose saloon a man alleged he was robbed almost had a fit of nervous prostration.

SCHOOL TEACHERS' PAY.

The school teachers are making a gallant fight to keep the politicians and the merchants from getting any of the money which rightfully belongs to them as salaries. In view of the prevalent high prices for everything the teachers find their pay barely enough to live on decently and they do not propose to allow ward strikers to exhaust the funds specifically designated to the educators. An appeal has been made to the courts and it looks very much as though the active political workers were to suffer the hitherto novel experience of a defeat at the hands of an underpaid literati.

JAP INCIDENT CLOSED.

It is with a feeling of great relief that we will not have to fight Japan because hoodlums wrecked a Japanese restaurant to punish a cook who rushed at them with a carving knife. The Horse Shoe restaurant will sue the city for damages and with a liberal award of damages assured we can turn our warlike faces from the orient to the civil war in the nature of a street car strike.

PLUTO.

On Saturday Apostle O. F. Whitney performed the ceremony uniting Miss Ruth E. Mouch and George A. Bell of Logan, the event taking place in the parlors of the Kenyon and a luncheon following at which about a dozen friends were present. Later Mr. and Mrs. Bell left for a trip to the coast.

A pretty wedding reception of last week was that of Miss Lyle James and John H. Glenn, following the ceremony performed in the temple. The rooms were bright with flowers and a large number of relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn will be at home after Aug. 15 at 1927 Emerson avenue.

"THE FIFTH WHEEL."

Religion Class Workers of Granite Stake Hold Reunion.

On Wednesday there occurred a unique gathering of Religion class workers at the Granite stake tabernacle. It was a reunion with an elaborate banquet. There were more than 150 persons present, including the stake and ward workers, the presidency of the stake, and some members of the general board of Religion classes.

The tables were in the form of a square, suggestive of "the square deal" with the people facing inward. In the center was a huge wheel 18 feet in diameter. A great streamer extended across the front above the stage, on which were inscribed in large letters the words "Welcome, Blessed and Favored of the Lord, the Religion Class or the Fifth Wheel." But instead of the word "wheel" there was a picture of one. The tables and stage were decorated tastefully, with cut flowers, peonies, carnations, etc.

One of the features of the afternoon was the singing of a song composed especially for the occasion, by five children, standing in the large wheel already mentioned. Following is the song written by the Granite Stake youth, Miss Maud Baggerly of Waterloo ward:

THE FIFTH WHEEL.

Composed by Maud Ellen Baggerly, for the occasion of the Granite stake Religion class social, and sung by May Mortensen, Alice Sanders, Mildred Burnham, Earl Evans and Vernon Graham:

Religion class is often called
The "Fifth Wheel" you all know
By those who think it has no use
But is for idle show;

But to us who love this glorious work,
The name gives naught but joy.
For the "Fifth Wheel" is the guiding wheel,
And not an idle toy.

CHORUS.

The guiding wheel that God has given,
In prayers lift up your voice,
And ever praise this glorious work,
Rejoice, O Saints rejoice.

It guides us in the path of truth
The Lord is with us, and we know
And every spoke is an iron rod—
Of faith, and prayer, and love.

Religion class is a daily guide,
In thought, and word, and way;
It keeps the youth of Zion,
In the straight and narrow way.

'Tis there they learn to sing and pray,
And to lead a righteous life;
To walk upright before the Lord,
Though worldly sins be rife.

This idea of a wheel-representation—for in addition to a picture of the wheel being on the streamer, the design was also on the badge worn on the occasion and also on the invitation cards—grew out of a remark made a few months before by Elder J. W. McMurry at a convention held at the Granite tabernacle, in which he compared the term "fifth wheel" as applied to Religion classes by those who thought it unnecessary, to the queue of a Chinaman, which was once a sign of dishonor, but which is now a badge of honor. Similarly, he thought that the only way by which we might turn this abuse to our advantage was by appropriating it as a sign of merit, which it really is, and thus turn it to our advantage.

Acting on this suggestion, Supt. Jones brought into prominence, whenever possible, the "fifth wheel." To appreciate this figure of speech, one might remember that this wheel is the one forming the junction of the front axle and the bottom of the wagon box, so that it forms the most important part of the vehicle, that on which everything turns.

Besides the song already referred to, there was a regular program. Supt. Jones was toastmaster, and toasts and speeches were given as follows:

"The Advanced Department," O. W. Rawlins; "The Intermediate Department," Karna Thatcher; "The Primary Department," J. V. Summerhayes; "People Have Me," L. L. Kolsh; "Religion Class Workers," Rudger Clawson; "Correct Life," R. V. Jones; "Our Young People," President F. Y. Taylor; Recitation, Miss Thatcher.

Captures Monster Bear.

George O'Neil, a rancher of Nut canyon, several miles north of Ensign peak and near Canyon Crest has captured a big male bear. The brute walked into O'Neil's trap last week and his captor expects to have the female and two cubs within a short time. The animal now caught is being held on the Stenzel ranch where he was sufficiently tamed and will be brought into Salt Lake for exhibition purposes. He is about six feet six inches tall when reared and weighs 650 pounds. This is the first bear said to have been caught in this region with no injuries to either captor or animal.

Information Wanted.

Mrs. Sutton of Dudley, Eng., desires to hear from or concerning Mr. and Miss Brounell, who left that place for Utah about 15 years ago. Mr. Brounell was an aged man and was highly informed along the lines indicated will be gratefully received by Joseph H. Butler, 25 Queen's Cross, Dudley, Eng.

Information concerning the whereabouts of Thomas Edmund and his sister, Elsie, who came from the key island in the year 1855, is desired by their sister Nancy. Address J. R. Meservy, St. Anthony, Ida., for information concerning her.

Morris Family Reunion.

At the home of Hon. George M. Cannon in Forest Dale, the Morris family held a reunion Saturday afternoon and evening. In all about 125 members of the families of Elias, Richard D., William B. Hugh and Barbara Morris were present, and many friends were also in attendance. Plans were served at 6 o'clock and later a choice program was rendered, consisting of music, recitations, readings and speeches.

The monument to the memory of Elias Morris, a picture of which appeared in the "News" Saturday evening, was unveiled at the city cemetery yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a large gathering of people.

Officers Installed.

The new local camp of Sons of Veterans of the Civil war was fully organized Saturday night last, with the installation of these officers: H. H. Klumham, captain; E. Devery, first lieutenant; Robert S. Slaughter, second lieutenant; Harry D. Chase, first sergeant of the guard; Merrill Kerrill, color sergeant; W. J. Morton, corporal of the guard; W. R. Graham, camp guard; Marion K. Howring, principal musician.

The election was followed by a social and musical program and refreshments.

Highest quality, best service and pleasant surroundings adds to the pleasure of dinner served at the Royal Grill. Open from 4 to 12 p. m. Music every evening.

"They lace in front" MODEL M

Model "M" attains the summit of corset ideality for the figures embraced by the intentions of its designer—figures of 140 pounds and upwards. It gives a willow grace, the snug hips, long waist line, and the absolutely correct front. It has a long back, and its carefully planned lines reduces the hips in appearance and cleverly draws them back thereby insuring the abdomen and holds perfectly, forming a support of inestimable value, thus performing a necessary province without the discomfort of long front steels. The multiplicity of figures make this model desirable in many instances. It sizes small 19 and always of figures with large hips.
