| EVENING NEWS. | of the miners engaged in driving away workmen from the Wanomia | GANADA. Fire and Loss of Life. | and Euphemia King; John and Mary Wotherspoon; Andrew Lea- tham; Jas. Edgar; Richard Brown; | I NIMRLE STYPENCE RE | THER THAN A NUV | V SHILLINE." |
|---|--|---|--|--|---|--|
| UBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAYS EXCEPTED AT FOUR O'CLOCK. | and Sugar Notch mines, were arrested to-day, and held in $1,000 ball each. | ing destroyed Han mond's hat store; Mr. and Mrs. Nash, living over the | John Boyd; Thomas Platte; Geo. | A MININE DIVI MAAR | | |
| AVID O. CALDER. | RALEIGH, N. C., S1The fede- ral decoration was observed to-day. | store, were burned to death. | William, Emms, Emma, Ernest, Charlie, Arthur and Hetty Brown Henry Parkes, Joseph Lymn; Jnc Simpson; Ruth Garrett; Thomas, | | | GROCE CRICKER IN THE BA |
| nesday, - June 1, 1875. | The Raleigh light infautry and ar- tillery companies accompanied, an an escort, the companies from the | MADRID, 30Admiral Polo de Barnabe, late minister to the U. S., | Elizabeth, Peter, Eliza, Wm. B. Mary, Jane, Ann and Thomas J. | | | DIE BAS |
| NEWS OF THE DAY. | participated in the ceremonies of the day; the Raleigh companies | has been appointed to command the squadron on the northern coast, vice Admiral Barcasetegin. | Bowcut; Ruchel Rosser; Susannah Holden; John, Jane, Thomas and Charles Elcock; Elizabeth Sharp; | WIN. JENNI | NES, THE SADUER | CIERIIES, INTERIES, INTERIES, BASEMENT. |
| The first company of emi ants will reach Ogden to-morrow ening about six o'cleck; their | embraced many men who fenght in the southern army. | t killed by a shot from the Carlist battery at Mount Rica. | Margaret, James, Charles, George, Thomas, Mary, Samuel, Ann and Joseph Story; Joshua, Han- | | SON'S & GAULER | |
| ening about six o'clock; then mes are in to-day's paper. —A report comes by telegraph | have been holding a council among | FOREIGN. | hah and Maria Small; Joseph, Jane and Jane Ann Dunn; John Ann, Margaret A and Sarah | VILOTINEER HATTING | ORIUM. | 1887 Jack |
| at a party of white men have | they are not finally agreed, they | CANADA. Fire and Loss of Life. | A Shipley; James, Elizabeth and Mary A Harbertson; Wm Majors | | the second s | and the second second second second |
| of the Black Hills. — President Grant has written letter giving his views on the | the Interior te-morrow, and reply to his propositions. | MAXWELL, Ont., 31.—The house of Van Meer, near here, was burned on Saturday night, and three of bla children perished in the flames. | Wm Dell; Philip, Sarah, George, William, Samuel and child Spry; | WM. JENNINGS | APPRCANCE PRET | SATTED |
| ird term, from which the reade | versetion with him on Indian | | Ann Andrews; Thomas Susrr; Wm | WM. JEANINGS | NOTE CE | NUDUCU |
| efuse it, | affairs. The Professor showed him some statements from army officers confirming the former reports of | Crossing the Channel-Invited to | A Smith; Alexander Brown; Her- bert Feveryear; John Daniels; Jesse, Jas, Mary H, John, Elizabeth, Har- | WE ARE RECEIVING DAILY FROM TH | E EAST AND WEST A COMPLETE AS | SORTMENT OF |
| ians are still determined not to go Indian Territory. | the bad character of the supplies fur- nished the Indians of the Sioux | London, 31Boynton, in cross- | ry and Gorge R Driver; William, | A set as a second provide a set of the second | | ceries |
| ailway vs. the United States, the | ed an interest in the welfare of the Indians and a firm determination | four miles. | Emily Adams. FROM HOLLAND. | 「「「」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」」 | | 19 2.10 MIZ - 38 |
| dgment in favor of the former $512.000. | management. He seemed to think | coming to a friendly agreement on | John H Bockholt. | Do not forget to call a | nd examine PRICES a | and QUALITY |
| | delivery of supplies to the Indians was to have them sent through the commissary department of the | The parliamentary whip has in- vited the supporters of the govern- | FROM DENMARK. William and Jorgen C Danlels. | GOODS before purchasing elsewh | Notice of the second | avia a la ana |
| ent. | tion to keep all intruders out of the | An unsigned letter in the Times gives a clear explanation of the re- | H & Gowans (in charge of Co.); | WE ARE SELLING GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVI | ER, WITH A DETERMINATION NO | OT TO BE UNDERSO |
| d thieves have been arrested at | was extinguished. The conversa- tion showed that the President has | says-"A few weeks ago the Ger- | Henry Hughes, L John Nuttall, Thomas F Thomas, George Ball. | (| COMPLETE IN THE FOLLOWING LINE | - '사랑 - ' 부 - ' 신망' |
| illadelphia. — Paul Boynton paddled thirty- | studied the subject with great care, and has an earnest desire to adopt such means as will best promote | European courts officially com- plained that France was arming, | The following persons were booked to New York only, but expect to | the second se | | |
| at mines in ene roughan Onannes | Buch mound as will over promote | with a view to an early resump- | | Notions Stanle and Fancy Dry Goods, Ladies' | Underwear, Mon's Furnishing | Goods, Boots and Smo |
| | the permanent interest of the In- dians. | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward | | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. | Condo Cinana |
| -The steamer State of Hartford ruck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- ny's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Car thereupon | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley: Henry McEwan; | GROCERIES in th | Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS | Condo Cinana |
| -The steamer State of Hartford ruck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Portsmouth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. Sgovernment; the | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- ny's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview. | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, | GROCERIES in th | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS |  SADLER. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span h minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command o soundron. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Pacific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Car thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone opera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomas; Adam | GROCERIES in th | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. | Condo. Cugaan |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span h minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command o soundron. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Pacific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- ny's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Caar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone opera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. | GROCERIES in the GROCERIES in the West of anti- tring NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. | Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' |  SADLER. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Fortamouth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command of squadron. -The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants Black Hills Indians to surren- nder all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Car thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone opera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Basiness in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most | GROCERIES in the second state of a second state | Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 12 ¹ / ₂ c Shawls from 150 | & SADLER. S. P. TEASDEL. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Fortamouth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span a minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command of squadron. -The aunouncement is made at the U.S. government wants Black Hills Indians to surren- nder all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor | GROCERIES in the GROCERIES in the West of anti- tring NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. | Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from - 124c Shawls from - $1 50 Ladies' Suits from - 3 50 Granadians from - 124c | & SADLER. S. P. TEASDEL. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Portamouth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span a minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command of squadron. -The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants be Black Hills Indians to surren- ader all their rights to hunt in youning and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through h lands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar therenpon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympa- | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Bcott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most | GROCERIES in the second state of a second state | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from - 12½c Shawls from - $1 50 Ladies' Suits from - $1 50 Ladies' Suits from - $1 50 Granadians from - 12½c Prints from - $1 50 Granadians from - 12½c Brown Bleached Muslin - $c | & SADLER. S. P. TEASDEL. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday tht. -The British Arctic Expedi- n left Portsmouth on Saturday ernoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command of quadron. -The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants black Hills Indians to surren- ider all their rights to hunt in roming and Nebraska, give the remment the right to open any meral land within the Sioux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through h lands, and that the area of the meral lands be left discretionary h the President. -The French minister of war the fifty-one million frances for | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In rendering the judgment the court said— | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Caar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympa- thized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of oratorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- | GROCERIES in the Contract of Anti- Series and contract of Anti- | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from - 12½c Shawls from - $1 50 Ladies' Suits from - 3 50 Granadians from - 12½c Shawls from - $1 2½c Shawls from - $1 2½c Shawls from - $1 2½c Shawls from - $1 2½c Prists from - $25c Ginghams from - 10c Brown Bleached Muslin - $c Ladies' and Children's Flan- nel from - $c Parasols from - $5c | S. P. TEASDEL |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In medering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- ny's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympa- thized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of orstorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all | GROCERIES in the Contract of Anti- Series and contract of Anti- | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 12½c Shawls from 12½c Shawls from 12½c Shawls from 12½c Granadians from 10c Brown Bleached Musiin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan- nel from 8½c Corsets from 350 Corsets from 350 And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money | S. P. TEASDEL. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Fortsmowth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, has een appointed to the command of squadron. -The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants e Black Hills Indians to surren- nder all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through the lands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary th the President. -The French minister of war nots fifty-one million francs for tifications and war material. -Further news of the earth- thes in Asia Minor says that eral villages and two thousand sons were destroved. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the gevernment is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In medering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any rea iy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar therenpon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympa- thized with the curlosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the expinence of other governments who | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G. Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Bcott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of oratorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was | | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 12½c Shawls from 12½c Cranadians from 12½c Prints from 10c Brown Bleached Musiln 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan- nel from 8c Parasols from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE, | S. P. TEASDEL. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- in left Portamouth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command of quadron. -The aunouncement is made at the U.S. government wants Black Hills Indians to surren- inder all their rights to hunt in roming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any meral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through h lands, and that the area of the reral lands be left discretionary h the President. -The French minister of war iffections and war material. -Further news of the earth- kes in Asis Minor says that eral villages and two thousand sons were destroved. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the gevernment is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In medering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any rea iy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar therenpon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone epera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympa- thized with the curlosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the expinence of other governments who | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of oratorios. It might fair- iny be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London in a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham | GROCERIES in the West of the other International Action of the International Action of the For the convenience of the | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS New ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 124c Shawls from 124c Shawls from 124c Granadians from 124c Ginghams from 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan- nel from 84c Corsets from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE, dis7 Opposite Post Office. | S. P. TEASDEL. |
| -The steamer State of Hartford ruck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Fortsmowth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, has een appointed to the command of squadron. -The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants Black Hills Indians to surren- inder all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through the lands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary th the President. -The French minister of war iffections and war material. -Further news of the earth- teral villages and two thousand sons were destroyed. -The Carlist and Alphonsist ops fought a battle on Saturday, which the former lust seventy ed and two hundred wounded. -Decoration Day has been very | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. Sgovernment; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the gevernment is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In medering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any rea iy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company employment, and it might push this advantage to an unlimited ex- tent, even to carrying the earnings of the read to the linguidation of the debt before it had matured. A sub- sequent statute, which substituted | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scwei- neg, the German minister in Vien- na, declared that owing to Germa- py's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone opera- tions until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this eve- ning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Bri- tain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympa- thized with the curlosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the opinions of other governments, who would ebject to such a disclosure. The publication of these commu- nications would prevent English diplomatists from receiving inform- tion in future, and to submit a mutilated correspondence might | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of oratorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London in a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham Festival, in 1855, the audience num- bered 2,597, and the receipts were $14,040. It is almost as highly es- | BROCERIES in the Second and the second seco | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS New ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 124c Shawls from 124c Shawls from 124c Granadians from 124c Ginghams from 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan- nel from 84c Corsets from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE, dis7 Opposite Post Office. | S. P. TEASDEL |
| -The steamer State of Hartford uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. -The British Arctic Expedi- on left Portamonth on Saturday ternoon. -Admiral Barnabe, late Span a minister at Washington, has en appointed to the command of equadron. -The aunouncement is made at the U.S. government wants Black Hills Indians to surren- der all their rights to hunt in youning and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any meral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through h lands, and that the area of the meral lands be left discretionary h the President. -The French minister of war infeations and war material. -Further news of the earth- tes in Avia Minor says that eral villages and two thousand sons were destroyed. -The Carlist and Alphonsist op fought a battle on Saturday, which the former lust seventy ed and two hundred wounded. -Decoration Day has been very eraily observed in all sections the country. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other set of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In rendering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any rea iy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company employment, and it might push this advantage to an unlimited ex- tent, even to carrying the earnings of the read to the fluid ation of the debt before it had matured. A sub- sequent statute, which substituted half for the whole of the earnings, did not affect the legal import of the powersment's reserved dis- | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scweineg, the German minister in Vienna, declared that owing to Germany's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone operations until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Basiness in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this evenning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Britain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympathized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the opinions of other governments, who would ebject to such a disclosure. The publication of these communication from receiving information in future, and to submit a mutilated correspondence might mislead the House. The causes in dispute were liable to recur, it | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of orstorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London in a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham Festival, in 1855, the audience num- bered 2,597, and the receipts were $14,040. It is almost as highly es- teemed in Germany as in England. In America and in Australia it has | GBOCEBIES in the W NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. STOTICE! For the convenience of 1 Public Z. C. M. I. have Open | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 51 50 Ladies' Ruits from 350 Granadians from 124c Prists from 84c Ginghams from 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan nel from 85c Corsets from 35c Corsets from 35c Corsets from 35c Corsets from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE. dis7 Opposite Post Office. | S. P. TEASDEL ALUOY CON OX TEASDEL For your Family Gr |
| The steamer State of Hartford ruck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. The British Arctic Expedi- on left Fortsmowth on Saturday ternoon. Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, has een appointed to the command of squadron. The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants is Black Hills Indians to surren- inder all their rights to hunt in woming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through the lands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary the President. The French minister of war nots fifty-one million frances for tifications and war material. Further news of the earth- thes in Asia Minor says that eral villages and two thousand sons were destroyed. The Carlist and Alphonsist ops fought a battle on Saturday, which the former lust seventy ed and two hundred wounded. Decoration Day has been very the country. Last Congress appropriated the army nine hundred thou- | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. Sgovernment; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In rendering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any rea iy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company employment, and it might push this advantage to an unlimited ex- tent, even to carrying the earnings, of the read to the liquidation of the debt before it had matured. A sub- sequent statute, which substituted half for the whole of the earnings, did not affect the legal import of the government's reserved dis- cretion, not change the le- | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scweineg, the German minister in Vienna, declared that owing to Germany's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar therenpon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone operations until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this evenning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Britain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympathized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the opinions of other governments, who would effect to such a disclosure. The publication of these community information in future, and to submit a mutilated correspondence might mislead the House. The causes in dispute were liable to recur, it therefore was not desirable, in the interests of peace, to give publicity | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of oratorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London in a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham Festival, in 1855, the audience num- bered 2,597, and the receipts were $14,040. It is almost as highly es- teemed in Germany as in England. In America and in Australia it has likewise a leading place at every musical entertainment. It is the | BOCERIES in the W NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MOTICE: For the convenience of 1 Public Z. C. M. I. have Open the Premises North of Seve | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 51 50 Ladies' Ruits from 350 Granadians from 124c Prists from 84c Ginghams from 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan nel from 85c Corsets from 35c Corsets from 35c Corsets from 35c Corsets from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE. dis7 Opposite Post Office. | S. P. TEASDEL S. P. TEASDEL Coll of TEASDEL Foryour Family Gr cery Supplies. Stor |
| The steamer State of Hartford ruck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. The British Arctic Expedi- on left Portamouth on Saturday ternoon. Admiral Barnabe, late Span h minister at Washington, has een appointed to the command of squadron. The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants e Black Hills Indians to surren- nder all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any ineral land within the Sloux res- ration to white settlement, and rmit the making of roads through the lands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary th the President. The French minister of war nots fifty-one million frances for tifications and war material. Further news of the earth- akes in Asis Minor says that year villages and two thousand roons were destroyed. The Carlist and Alphonsist ops fought a battle on Saturday, which the former lust seventy led and two hundred wounded. Decoration Day has been very herally observed in all sections the country. Last Congress appropriated the army nine hundred thou- nd dollars less than was estimat- and there is a probability that War Department will soon be ret of funds. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. Sgovernment; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In rendering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any realy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company employment, and it might push this advantage to an unlimited ex- tent, even to carrying the earnings, of the read to the liquidation of the debt before it had matured. A sub- sequent statute, which substituted half for the whole of the earnings, did not affect the legal import of the government's reserved dis- cretion, not change the le- gal relations of the parties, nor vary the construction applicable to the original statute. It was an alteration in degree, and not in | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scweineg, the German minister in Vienna, declared that owing to Germany's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Casr thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone operations until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Basiness in the Lords. The House of Lords, this even ing, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Britain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympathized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the epinions of other governments, who would ebject to such a disclosure. The publication of these communication for these communication for these communication for these communications would prevent English diplomatist from receiving informition in future, and to submit a mutilated correspondence might mislead the House. The causes in dispute were liable to recur, it therefore was not desirable, in the interests of peace, to give publicity to the details of the controversy. Lord Derby then proceeded to state that persons highest in authority | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of orstorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London in a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham Festival, in 1855, the audience num- bered 2,597, and the receipts were $14,040. It is almost as highly es- teemed in Germany as in England. In America and in Australia it has likewise a leading place at every musical entertainment. It is the place of all others to attract the public te a benefit of any kind. Truely does it deserve that touch- | BOCERIES in the W NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MOTICE: For the convenience of 1 Public Z. C. M. I. have Open the Premises North of Seve | e Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS New ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 150 Ladies' Ruits from 350 Granadians from 124c Prists from 124c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan- nel from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHIWARTZ' STORE, dist Opposite Post Office. | S. P. TEASDEL. |
| The steamer State of Hartford ruck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. The British Arctic Expedi- on left Portsmouth on Saturday ternoon. Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, has been appointed to the command of squadron. The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants e Black Hills Indians to surren- inder all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux res- ation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through the lands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary th the President. The French minister of war nots fifty-one million frances for tifications and war material. Further news of the earth- akes in Asia Minor says that eral villages and two thousand sons were destroyed. The Carlist and Alphonsist ops fought a battle on Saturday, which the former first seventy ed and two hundred wounded. Decoration Day has been very the country. Last Congress appropriated the army nine hundred thou- do dollars less than was estimat- and there is a probability that War Department will soon be ret of funds. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, ren- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. Sgovernment; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In rendering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any realy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company employment, and it might push this advantage to an unlimited ex- tent, even to carrying the earnings, of the read to the liquidation of the debt before it had matured. A sub- sequent statute, which substituted half for the whole of the earnings, did not affect the legal import of the government's reserved dis- cretion, not change the le- gal relations of the parties, nor vary the construction applicable to the original statute. It was an alteration in degree, and not in | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scweineg, the German minister in Vienna, declared that owing to Germany's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Casr thereupon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone operations until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Basiness in the Lords. The House of Lords, this even ing, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Britain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympathized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the epinions of other governments, who would ebject to such a disclosure. The publication of these communication for these communication for these communication for these communications would prevent English diplomatist from receiving informition in future, and to submit a mutilated correspondence might mislead the House. The causes in dispute were liable to recur, it therefore was not desirable, in the interests of peace, to give publicity to the details of the controversy. Lord Derby then proceeded to state that persons highest in authority | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G, Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thos, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomss; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of orstorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London in a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham Festival, in 1855, the audience num- bered 2,597, and the receipts were $14,040. It is almost as highly es- teemed in Germany as in England. In America and in Australia it has likewise a leading place at every musical entertainment. It is the place of all others to attract the public te a benefit of any kind. Truely does it deserve that touch- | BOCERIES in the W NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MOTICE: For the convenience of 1 Public Z. C. M. I. have Open the Premises North of Seve | the M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 124c Prists from 124c Prists from 124c Prists from 124c Prists from 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan nel from 50c And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE dist Opposite Post Office. The attention of the Public is called to the above brand of Coal, which can | S. P. TEASDEL. |
| The steamer State of Hartford, uck a rock and sank on Saturday ght. The British Arctic Expedient on Saturday ternoon. Admiral Barnabe, late Span in minister at Washington, have appointed to the command of squadron. The announcement is made at the U.S. government wants is surrender all their rights to hunt in yoming and Nebraska, give the vernment the right to open any neral land within the Sloux restation to white settlement, and mitthe making of roads through hands, and that the area of the neral lands be left discretionary that the President. The French minister of war not fifty-one million frances for tifications and war material. Further news of the earthales in Asia Minor says that eral villages and two thousand sons were destroyed. The Carlist and Alphonsist ops fought a battle on Saturday, which the former lust seventy which the former lust seventy and two hundred wounded. Decoration Day has been very perally observed in all sections the country. Last Congress appropriated the army nine hundred thousand there is a probability that War Department will soon be of of funds. | the permanent interest of the In- dians. Judgment in Faver of U. P. R. R. The Court of Claims, to-day, rem- dered an opision in the case of the Union Facific Railroad Co. against the U. S. government; the court gave judgment for the com- pany in the sum of $512,000, and ordered that the counter claim of defendants be dismissed. This counter claim of the government is that the defendants were not in- debted to the claimant under the provisions of the act of July 1862, the act of July 1861, or any other act of Congress, or otherwise, and further, that the claimant is in- debted to the defendants in the sum of twelve million dollars for the payment of interest on the bonds. In rendering the judgment the court said— "As the compact originally stood the government could keep down the interest without the expendi- ture of any rea iy money, by simp- ly furnishing to the company employment, and it might push this advantage to an unlimited ex- tent, even to carrying the samings of the road to the liquidation of the debt before it had matured. A sub- sequent statute, which substituted haif for the whole of the earnings, did not affect the legal import of the government's reserved dis- cretion, not change the le- gal relations of the parties, nor vary the construction applicable to the original statute. It was an alteration in degree, and not in kind, and still left the company, in this matter of service, entirely sub- ject to the orders of the govern- ment. In contemplation of the | tion of the war. Gen. Von Scweineg, the German minister in Vienna, declared that owing to Germany's longsuffering war had not broken out. The Czar therenpon telegraphed the Emperor William, entreating him to postpone operations until the Berlin interview, and also instructed the Russian ambassador at the court of St. James to suggest the co-operation of Great Britain in behalf of peace. Business in the Lords. In the House of Lords, this evenning, Earl Russell asked that the correspondence between Great Britain and the continental powers, arising out of the recent war alarm, be laid before the House. The Earl of Derby replied that he sympathized with the curiosity of those who had watched the course of foreign affairs the last few weeks. The government desired to conceal nothing it had done, but it would be impessible to give a full account without largely using a confidential communication relative to the opinions of other governments, who would effect to such a disclosure. The publication of these community information in future, and to submit a mutilated correspondence might mislead the House. The causes in dispute were liable to recur, it therefore was not desirable, in the interests of peace, to give publicity | receive money from Brother W. C. Staines, to take them forward to Ogden with the company: Ann Manley; Henry McEwan; Daniel, Mary, David, Sarah G. Alice, Elizabeth, Joseph and Hy- rum Lloyd; Robert L Scott; Thoe, Ann, Catherine, David, Jacob, Ed- ward and Ann Thomes; Adam Fowyer; Horsted Andrea. THE MESSIAH.—The Messiah is universally recognized as the mas- terpiece of the master. Its most distinctive character is the sublime, yet it was many times re-touched. The great man did not spare labor in perfecting his most successful works. It has remained the most popular of oratorios. It might fair- ly be called part of the religion of England. It is never announced in a fitting manner without attract- ing the public. It invariably forms part of the programme at all festivals, and the day on which it is performed is alway the most pro- ductive. In December, 1854, it was performed three times in London and a single week to overflowing audiences, and at the Birmingham Festival, in 1855, the audience num- bered 2,597, and the receipts were $14,040. It is almost as highly es- teemed in Germany as in England. In America and in Australia it has likewise a leading place at every musical entertainment. It is the public te a benefit of any kind. Truely does it deserve that touch- ing eulogy, "It has fed the hun- gry. clothed the naked, and foster- ed the orphan." | BOCERIES in the W NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MOTICE: For the convenience of 1 Public Z. C. M. I. have Open the Premises North of Seve | the Basement, Etc., Etc., Etc. M. JENNINCS, SONS NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. BARCAINS. New Goods received at Shwartz' New York store, opposite post office. Dress Goods from 124c Shawls from 124c Shawls from 124c Shawls from 124c Prists from 124c Prists from 124c Prists from 124c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' Auits from 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' and Children's Flan- 10c Brown Bleached Muslin 8c Ladies' And everything in proportion. Now's your time to save money at SHWARTZ' STORE 157 Opposite Post Office. The attention of the Public is called to the above brand | S. P. TEASDEL S. P. TEASDEL Coll of TEASDEL Foryour Family Gr cery Supplies. Stor |

The total value of imports of silk manufacture at this port in May was $1,315,039; during the same time 1,062 packages of raw silk were received, of which 856 were via Panams and 20 via the overland route, and 186 from Europe.

What Government Wants of the store burned, and a man and his wife burned to death at Toronto, Cauada; five hundred and fifty thousand dollars damage by fire, at Springfield, Mass.; sevents five thousand dollars damage at Cincin-nati, O.; two hundred houses burn-ed is a town in Spais, and im-mense damage in Sullivan and Bethel Counties, New York State; oue man was surrounded by the flames and was burned to death. ——The distillery of W. T. Mar. one man was surrounded by the flames and was burned to death. —The distillery of W. T. Mar-shall, at Cincianati, has been seized by revenue officers. —On Sunday, a resident of Cleveland, O., murdered his mother-in-law, eighty years of age. —Col. McCoy, of General Sher-man's staff, is dead of consump-tion. —Forty-eight of the victims of the Holyoke disaster were burled on Saturday. —The seat of government of West Vinginia is removed to Wheel-ing. —Decoration Day was observed in an imposing matter at Little

I HAVE in my possession: One dark bay or brown stud COLT, two rears old, star in forehead, no brands visi-ble. If not claimed and taken away before the leth day of June, will be sold at public sais at my corral, fillmore City, at 4 o'clock p.m. J. C. OWENS,

H. B. CLAWSON.

The attention of cery Supplies. Stock the Public is called Daily replenished to the above brand of Coal, which can be obtained at ment of PARASOLS. short notice, in any SUMMER PRINTS. Dress Goods, etc., redesired quantity. ceived at It recommends itself for family use as the cleanest and brightest burning coal in the market; to smelter and engine men as the best steam-producing coal in Utah. We keep it constantly on hand and deliver promptly. Leave orders at Office, Wasatch Hotel; Sales Yard,

WOOL!

100,000

for which

TEASDEL'S.

A New and Choice

Stock of Gents' CLO-

THING now opened

TEASDEL'S.

i Stadaniger, C. 20, 05-34 Er

An arrival of Children's SHOES, of the Wool!

PROVISIONS

IN THE CITY.

GALLAND GUT

Have a reputation unequalled.

Rouse in our Live, and as

In a few days we shall have a t in allow worth of the lot Ifone.

The settlement of the stock ex-change has resulted in but three failures, and they of slight import-Bond Thieves Arrested. ance.

MADRID.

May 12th, 1675,

FROM THE BEITISH ISLES.

What Government Wants of the Sieux Indians. CHICAGO, 31. — The Tribune's Washington special says that at the next council with the Indians the Secretary of the Interior will make two propositions, first, that they surrender all the rights to hunt in Wyoming and Nebraska; and, second, that they surrender to the government the right to open any mineral land within the Sioux reservation to white settlement, and permit the government to Arrested. MADRID, 31.—It is reported that Generals Socias and Patino have been arrested for complicity in a republican conspiracy. reservation to white settlement, and permit the government to make roads through such lands, and that the area of the mineral lands be left discretionary with the President. Collector of Internal Device NAMES OF PASSENGERS Booked Through to Ogden, from Liverpool per S. S. Wyoming, Collector of Internal Revenue Wadsworth, of this district, to-day received a notice from Commis-sioner Pratt, that his resignation would be accepted at once.

CINCINNATI, 31. - The revenue officers, to-day, seized the distillery of W. T. Marshall.

A Horrible Murder

CLEVELAND, 31.-John Ke aged 59, yesterday murdered b mother-in-law, Bridget Genau, ag 80, by outting of her head with adse; he then gave himself up the authorities. He frigne inse

WILKESBARBARA, 8L.

The Lasses by the Fire,

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., 31.-Total loss by yesterday's fire is $550,000; insurance $450,000. Rose Emma Balley; Rosser, lizabeth, Sarah A, Ephraim, Hy-im and Mary J Lewis; Themas id Catherine Edmunds; James id Ana Phillips; John and Ana revalow; Samuel, Sarah, Simon, atilda, Robs and Williem Wash;

TH FOREICH. GREAT BRITAIN-

the Aretic Exp

revalow; Samuel, William Webb; fatilda, Robt and William Webb; William, Phobe, Sarah and Mar-tha Barrett; Mary and Bobert Bassett; John L, Sarah, Arabelli -The ships Alert an aguanda of people w hearing, and much enthusiast hearing, and much enthusiast ran manifested. The Queen set telegraphic dispatch, wishing an cess to the expedition.

John J

MAS TATIOR

ine 13th, 1675, at 10 a.m. J. R. MILLER

d, Utab,

DEINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

SUPT.

a. 194 and 195 7BAND ST. E. Dis woodey's Furbiture Factory. Corner Jrogin) 24 Abirty 4 300 W 18 d164 tf New York.

