You get an entire meal, as good as is served in any first-class hotel, for seventy-five cents.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes (and the immense passenger business of this line warranting it), we are pleased to announce that this Company runs Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars for sleeping purposes, and Palace Dining Cars for eating purposes only. One other great feature of our Palace Cars is a SMOKING SALOON where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Leavenworth, and Atchison, connections being made in Union Depots.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also excellent for human flesh. Read proof below.

FROM

COL. L. T. FOSTER,

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 10th, 1880.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt that I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I saw one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express. I determined at once to try it and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure

Is sure in its effects, mild in its actions as it does not blister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other enlargements, such as spavins, splints, curbs, ringbone, callous, sweeny, thrush, founder, and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or for rheumatism in man or for any purpose for which a liniment is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mildly and yet certainly in its effects.

Send address for illustrated circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever been introduced which stood second to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.

Price $1, per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.

A Good Deed.

The Crown Prince and Crown Princess have declined to receive any presents on the occasion of their silver wedding, and request the donors to expend the money they proposed thus using in alleviating the distress caused by the inundations.

A Crisis Imminent.

Constantinople, 16.—The dispute between Aleko Pasha, Governor-General of Eastern Roumelia and Krebel, acting Russian Consul General at Philippopolis, continues. Aleko Pasha states he cannot be responsible for the Government as long as Krebel remains, and asks the Porte either to have Krebel recalled or accept his (Aleko's) resignation. Krebel reports to Nelidoff, Russian Ambassador at Constantinople, that Aleko Pasha daily violates the constitution. It is rumored that the Porte has ordered Aleko Pasha to offer an apology to Krebel, and that Aleko refuses. A crisis is imminent.

French Furore

Prince Napoleon was arrested at his residence by four officers. In the Chamber of Deputies, Jolibois, Bonapartist, interpellated the government on the subject of the arrest of Prince Napoleon. He said the issue of the manifesto was simply a press offense. The Prince, he declared, only exercised his right, and Deves, minister of justice, exceeded his authority in causing the Prince's arrest.

Deves replied that the manifesto had not only been published but placarded; this fact had been brought to the attention of the judicial authorities, who in the exercise of the complete freedom of action they possessed, issued a warrant for the arrest of the Prince. Deves added that the matter would in due course come before the tribunals. The government is firmly resolved to see the law strictly observed by all citizens of the Republic, not excepting Prince Jerome.

Floquet, republican, vice-president of the Chamber, brought forward a motion prohibiting the presence in France or Algeria of any member of former French dynasties. Martin Feuillie, republican, moved the order of the day, approving the action of the government in regard to Prince Napoleon. The motion was adopted, 417 to 89.

Bisacca said he was anxious to separate the personality of kings and princes from the present incident. Loud protests followed this remark, and the president of the Chamber ruled the words "kings and princes" unconstitutional.

Urgency was then voted for Floquet's motion; 328 ayes to 112 noes.

A member of the staff of the Temps interviewed Prince Napoleon to-day on the subject of his manifesto. The Prince said he had issued the manifesto because everything was going wrong in France. The republic had proved its incapacity for governing. It had not received the sanction of the popular vote. The republicans were wrong in not having resorted to the plebiscite a few years ago, when they would have secured 5,000,000 suffrages.

Prince Napoleon denied that he had any personal interest in the matter. He said that he was a supporter of the scrutin de liste, because he believed that under the present system the executive was governed chiefly by local interests. He would like to see at the head of the republic a man elected by the nation, as in America. "Let the people," said the Prince, "appoint Grevy if they pleased, but at any rate free the Executive from the influence of the Deputies elected by mere arrondissements. With the present chamber of deputies it is impossible to hope for anything. Gambetta failed to imbue it with the principles of government, and where he failed none could hope to succeed. Prince Napoleon denied he aimed at personal power. Co-existent with the liberty of the press, liberty of association and parliamentary control, were, he said, impossible. If the Count de Chambord were to attempt to second the throne, he (Prince Napoleon) would be the first to seize a musket and mount the barricades. The Prince said he believed a parliamentary regime only practicable under a constitutional monarch. He was convinced of the effect of the legality of his manifesto. Competent persons, he said, approved its terms and affirmed the placarding of it was legal.

The Russian Horror.

St. Petersburg, 16.—According to official reports 268 persons, including many foreign travelers, lost their lives by the burning of the circus in Berediteschieff. The circus had inner and outer walls and the spaces between were filled with straw.

The Governor of Kief has arrived at Berdeteschieff. The managers of the circus are arrested for having had two side doors nailed up. There being no rooms large enough to hold the bodies of the dead, they have been placed in a field. When the nailed up doors were opened, fifty corpses fell to the ground in a mass.

Earthquakes in Spain.

Madrid, 16.—Eleven shocks of earthquake to-day in the town of Archera, causing the greatest consternation. Mass was said in the fields, it being considered dangerous to occupy the church.
