lates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures sourf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither of nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate agroeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O. July S. 1982 : "Last fall m. hair commenced failing out, and in a short time I became mearly baid. I used part of a bottle of Avrai's Hain Vicon, which stopped the fail-ing of the hair, and started a new growth. I flave now a full head of hair growing vigor-ously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely baid."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Dhio) Enquirer, says: "A TER's HAIE Visors is a most excellent proplication for the bair. I speak of it from my own experience. His makes it glossy and soft. The Visors is also a sure ours for dandruff. Not within my modviedge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."
