DEBILITATED AND THIEVES GALORE.

It is hardly possible that this city is ever free from thieves of various kinds, but they seem to be more numerous at some times than at others. They are inevitably the worst enemies of a citizen, and are steady visitors while such and other attractions here that draw upon the surrounding districts for attendance more largely than usual are being held.

AGAINST CORPORATE GREED.

There have been so many instances of oppression on the part of some larger corporations, in the way of establishing injunction monopolies, that a strong antagonism has been created which, in very many cases, amounts to an unconquerable prejudice against corporate greed.

WAR ORDEAL.

The newspapers have been subject to a great deal of criticism for making pointed suggestions on the subject of war. Here is a sample from the Springfield, Mass. Republican.
