MANY WATCH T. BURNS WORK OUT

Australians Take Great Interest In the Chubby Fighter.

TEN THOUSAND TICKETS.

Big Advance Sale and 20,000 More Seats Will Go Before Two Heavyweights Step Into Ring.

A dispatch from Sidney, N. S. W., says:

When Tommy Burns, world's champion and the Rockefeller of the ring, saw the last of the 3,000 persons who paid for the privilege of seeing him train leave his quarters yesterday he crumpled a fac simile of the $30,000 check he is to receive—win, lose or draw—for fighting Jack Johnson here Saturday and ecstatically cried, "Easy!"

Burns feels that he can afford to be defeated, but he evidently doesn't intend to. After whirling through six rounds with Pat O'Keefe and O'Donnell, the Australian middleweight champion, he left the gaping thousands eyeing and tinkering gymnasium apparatus while he trotted five miles over the roads to Daring Point.

The squatty champion insists that he is in better condition for the most remunerative fight in his career than he ever was. His appearance indicates confidence and strength. The glow of health extends from head to toe and he is so intensely active that his trainers are continually calling, "Slow up, Tommy; save your speed for the big smoke."

Wily Sam Fitzpatrick's eyes twinkled when a huge crowd visited him at Manley. Here's on the rolling sands of a beautiful beach, Johnson reels off miles as though they were mere skips, to a well stocked training table. "Do you like him?" asked the old maker of champions. And there was much in that grinning giant to admire as he tripped lightly along the beach, with hundreds plodding in the rear.

SAYS FIGHT ISN'T FIXED.

"It's a simple problem, if you can tell it by as hard a name," said Fitzpatrick. "Jack is 20 pounds heavier, four inches taller, has had more experience and is so much cleverer that there's no comparison. Can he hit? Well, I never saw any of the big fellows who hankered after a chance to meet him unless they logged all the profits. That's what Burns has done, but as champion Johnson can make enough to get even if's the chance we have traveled 12,000 miles for, and Jack isn't going to let anything stop him now that he has the world's title dangling within easy reach. I hope my American friends will not be misled by statements to the effect that this fight is fixed. Johnson has too much at stake for that."

Training camp declrations, Johnson's splendid physical condition and massive frame, cannot turn the odds in favor of the negro. Burns is a 7 to 5 favorite, and thousands have been wagered at 4 to 5 that Burns will win by a knockout inside of 20 rounds.

There's something in Johnson's record that is dark-rued as his skin. Sporting men cannot understand why a championship-seeker should not have a stack of knockout records behind his name. Burns has 'em, and he has shown the sporting men here some of his power against the best fighters in this part of the world.

SAID HE HAD TO "PULL."

Englishmen who have recently been in London bring the report that Johnson had to "pull" in his battles in order to get the champion to meet him.

Bill Lang, whom Burns quickly put down for the count, is in Johnson's training camp. On Johnson's last Australian tour Lang stood up before the negro for nine rounds. Lang inslats that the negro will peck his shorter opponent to pieces.

"I've mixed with 'em both and I can't see where Burns has a chance to win," Lang declares. "Why, Johnson is so awfully clever that he can wory a fellow weak and then toss over the settler. Johnson is a bit faster than when I fought him, and Fitzpatrick has made a great fighter out of a wonderful boxer."

The fight will be a record-breaker. Ten thousand tickets have been sold and 20,000 more persons are expected in the open air arena. In addition to the $35,000 offered by Hugh D. McIntosh, the promoter, the men will receive $3,000 each for training expenses and valuable moving picture privileges.

FIRST ALCOHOL MOTOR MAKES ITS APPEARANCE

The first alcohol motor cab has made its appearance in New York. It is the product of the factory of the H. H. Franklin Manufacturing company in Syracuse, N. Y., where the engineers have long been experimenting to provide an alcohol motor that would give results equal to those of the gasoline motor.

The result sought has been attained, for the engine has been tested over hundreds of miles of road before being sent out from the factory and has demonstrated a capability of covering as great a distance for each gallon of alcohol as other motors of like size do for each gallon of gasoline. It is predicted that time will show it as the forerunner of a type and that eventually it will have many duplicates in the busy streets of the greater cities.

The new vehicle is of 18-horsepower, and is identical with the gasoline motor cabs of the 1909 Franklin model except for the provision made for the use of alcohol in place of the gasoline. At first experiments were made with a regular gasoline engine, but after a study of its action an engine was made specially designed for alcohol, and it is this with which the new cab is propelled. Alteration is made as to compression and carburetion. The alcohol is found to produce no bad effect upon the motor.

The problem of making a workable alcohol motor has been the subject of attention on the part of the governments of France, Germany and the United States. The Franklin cab has been turned over to a Franklin customer in New York, and in service it is now to demonstrate its every-day practicability. There are already, it is estimated, over 60 gasoline motor cabs of the landaulet type in New York city, and the number is expected to double by spring.

NO INTERNATIONAL CUP RACE NEXT YEAR

New York, Dec. 23.—It seems practically certain that there will be no international cup race next year inasmuch as the time limit surrounding the deed of the gift has practically expired. It is stipulated in the deed that at least 10 months' notice of a challenge be given while no race shall be held between Nov. 1 and May 1. This would make it necessary for the New York Yacht club to receive a challenge before the end of this month, which is considered so improbable in yachting circles that the belief of no race in 1909 has become an accepted fact.

The reason that there will be no international race during the coming year is attributable principally to the failure of the New York Yacht club to agree to certain changes in the rules governing the construction of boats which have been suggested from time to time by Sir Thomas Lipton, who stood ready to challenge if such changes were agreed upon.

NEW ASSOCIATION.

Charles F. Thompson to Be Next Western Golf President.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—That Charles F. Thompson of the Home Wood Country club will be the next president of the Western Golf association is said to be assured. The annual meeting of the association will be held here Jan. 16.

Interviews with Mr. Thompson and Albert R. Gates, present president of the organization, today left no doubt that the forthcoming meeting would develop a movement to secede from the National Golf association and form a new organization to be called the Golf Association of America.

Mr. Thompson admitted that he favored this plan and expressed a belief that a majority of the delegates to the annual meeting were of the same mind. The new association, if launched, will probably take in Canada and Mexico.

FRANK CHANCE GOES BACK TO CHICAGO

Gives Out Interview Anent Report That He Will Not Manage Cubs Next Season.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 23.—Frank Chance, captain of the Chicago "Cubs" ball team, gave out an interview here last night regarding the report that he will not manage the Chicago team the coming season. According to Chance's statement, this difficulty is not due to money matters or to any interference with Chance's authority in the past. He said:

"I have signed a contract to play with Chicago for three or four years, and if I don't go there I cannot play any place. There is a little difference between President Murphy and myself on the money question, but that is not serious and I suppose we can fix that all right. I never said I would not go back to Chicago to play ball, but that I would prefer not to go if the present conditions existed next year.

"I have not seen President Pulliam and do not know whether or not he is in town. He has hinted that he might butt into the management of the team next year."

ENTRIES ARE SCRATCHED.

Three of Those Belonging to R. F. Carman Ruled Off.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 22.—The three entries of R. F. Carman at Santa Anita track were scratched today and his horses will be refused entry until an investigation has been made by the officials of the racing association into an affair which took place last night in which Mat Dooley, former trainer for Carman, was beaten so badly that he is now in a hospital.

Dooley claims that Carman and a number of his employes are responsible for his condition and that the trouble between him and his former employers dates back to the time of the Hamilton, Ontario, meeting, nearly four months ago. There was four months' salary due him, he says, and he had made a complaint to Stewards Hamilton and Cole. Carman had a horse named Fleming entered in the last event on last Monday's card and he was returned a winner. Dooley, who had left Carman's employ, ran the price of the horse up to $706, at which figure he was recained. Dooley says he was met at the door of the stable by Carman, who attacked him.

ON THE RACE TRACK.

Oakland, Dec. 22.—Hanbridge, the heavily-played favorite, got up in time to beat Bon Homme cleverly in the Lorillard handicap at Emeryville today. The event was the feature of a good card that was run over a muddy track due to the rain of the early morning hours. Bon Homme was strongly supported and led until the final sixteenth. Clamor was third. Sir Lynnewood was the medium of a plunge in the third, but was practically left at the post. Booger Red won from Fireball and Tony Faust. JOCKEY CLUB TO ABOLISH FIELD STANDS

New York, Dec. 23.—The World says today:

"Everybody who wishes to see racing next season will have to buy a grandstand badge or remain outside of the local race tracks. There will be no field stand for the next two years. This has been decided upon by the jockey club stewards.

"The jockey club stewards, realizing that they will enter a new era of the turf next season, have determined to build from the foundation up to establish the sport. In order to build correctly and to keep away from the danger shoals of reform they have made the move.

"It was the men who frequented the one dollar inclosure that caused the anti-betting crusade to develop. These racegoers with small salaries and limited financial accounts were badly crippled when they went to the race tracks and lost their money. As a result many families suffered. Consequently, there was an attack on race track gambling which brought about the repeal of the Percy-Gray betting law.

"Another feature agreed upon by the magnates is the abolishment of complimentary tickets. Next year everybody who attends the races will have to pay. The only exceptions to this rule will be the reporters who chronicle the daily racing events. In former years all the politicians, great and small of this city and state were provided with badges."

MOWATT AND DONAHUE.

Chicago, Dec. 22.—Tommy Mowatt has agreed to fight Young Donahue at New Orleans Christmas afternoon at catch weights. Mowatt will have only a few days in which to prepare. He is in pretty fair shape, but will insist upon a return match.

CRAZE CONTINUES FOR MARATHON RACES

New York, Dec. 23.—As the craze for Marathon racing continues unabated in Greater New York and vicinity, and as the professional contest between Tom Longboat, the Canadian Indian, and Alfred Shrubb, the Englishman, has been postponed from Jan. 9 to Jan. 26, a great amateur Marathon is being arranged for Madison Square Garden to be held on the date previously set for the professional struggle. If plans do not miscarry more than 20 of America's fleetest distance men will participate in the race. Among those who have been asked to run in addition to eastern cracks, are Corn. Hunt and Hatch of Chicago; Joe Forshaw of the Missouri A. C., winner of the St. Louis Marathon, and other western athletes of note.

RACQUET MATCHES.

New York, Dec. 22.—The first of two matches which Peter Latham, racquet champion of England, will play in this country will be held at the New York Racquet and Tennis club on Saturday next, when he will meet George Standing, the former English champion. The best three sets out or five are to be played. Latham will play a second match with Jay Gould, who is the American amateur champion, on Jan. 9, on the courts of Harvard university.

THOMPSON-CORBETT.

New Orleans, Dec. 23.—"Cyclone" Johnny Thompson will be matched to box Young Corbett here on the evening of Jan. 14. The event is set for 25 rounds.

J. CAL EWING CHOSEN.

San Francisco, Dec. 22.—J. Cal Ewing was re-elected president of the Pacific Coast Baseball league at the annual meeting of the league today. Thirty-one consecutive weeks of baseball will constitute the season for 1909, which will open on March 1 and close Oct. 31.
