Mrs. Tupman, a prominent lady of Richmond, Va., a great sufferer with woman's troubles, tells how she was cured.

"For some years I suffered with backache, severe bearing-down pains, leucorrhea, and falling of the womb. I tried many remedies, but nothing gave any positive relief. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in June, 1931. When I had taken the first half bottle, I felt a vast improvement, and have now taken ten bottles with the result that I feel like a new woman. When I commenced taking the Vegetable Compound I felt all the worst of the woman who is now changed with the murder of William K. Ryan.

Hodge was interviewed by an Enterprise reporter last night at the home of his employer, George Oberhardt. He is a quiet fellow who does not seem to look upon his marriage to a millionaire as a matter of more than commonplace importance. Indeed, his marriage seems to have been merely a casual affair, and no wounds have been left upon his heart by the tragic end of his love story. Hodge talks freely of his relations with the woman under indictment at Salt Lake City.

He went to the Relief Hotel Springs at San Jacinto last November to work as a hotel and stage driver, the place having been secured for him through the employment agency of Higgins Bros. & Co. of Los Angeles. There he met and married a blonde-haired girl who was in the employ of the hotel as a waitress. So far as any admissions can be obtained from Hodge, he has no recollection of the affair, which he says he has never heard of since he left the hotel.

Along the first part of January of this year Miss Shumeter made up her mind that she would be able to get married and confided to Hodge her views on this subject. The matter did not interest Hodge particularly, still, he was willing to accommodate the lady, and if she really wanted to marry him he intended that he would stand for it. It is not generally known that Hodge is a very capable man, and so one morning Miss Shumeter informed Manager Scott of the Relief Springs hotel that she was "through."

She left on the train for Riverside and returned to Hodge that he was to come down the next day and they would be married. "I did not expect to find her," said Hodge. "I thought I would not be a quitter, and so went to Riverside according to agreement. She met me at the train and we went at once to the county clerk's office and got the license."

LEFT HIM FOR OTHERS.

The couple were married by Rev. Edward F. Goff. After the ceremony Hodge had intended the groom that she must be going. She could use some money, she said, and if he would accompany her with what he had about him, she would go to Los Angeles and he could go back to San Jacinto. Hodge went back to the Relief Springs and his wife went to Los Angeles, accompanied, as he avows and Hodge declares that he never saw her again.

SHE NEEDED MONEY.

Hodge heard no more from his blushing bride until he received a letter from her at Clifton, Ariz. She had been sent out to the "Happy Valley" employment agency of Los Angeles. It was then that she bethought herself of her husband and wrote him affectionately to please come to Clifton and pay up so that she could get out of the place. Still unwilling to disappoint the lady, Hodge went to Clifton and settled.

WORKED HIM AGAIN.

Mrs. Hodge then manifested a keen desire to go to El Paso and "see the place." Hodge procured transportation and they went. After a few days in El Paso, Hodge learned that his wife had been seen at a party in El Paso. He was so sure that she was his wife that he went to El Paso and found her. He was so sure that she was his wife that he went to El Paso and found her.

HAD A GOOD WORKER.

He went to work for Charles Kidd a teamster and worked there until the first of May, at which time he has been in the employ of George Oberhardt at the Relief Hotel Springs. Hodge declares that he never saw her again.
