Works, has just completed eight of the fifty life boats ordered by the general government for use at the California life stations; they are constructed after the old Francis Motion Denied-Magnanimous. Mr. Osborre, who got the conof the Union Pacific Railroad, assigned it to Ralph M. Pomeroy, S. C. Pomeroy and others. The latter sold out his shares and S. C. Treadwell purchased one fiftieth. Treadwell brought suit for a receiver and a distribution of the profits, alleging that the original trustees were diverting the profits to the extending of the road; the motion was denied by Judge Barret, of the Su-
