Word from the Philippines states that reveral members of the Twelfth infan-try stationed at Camp Jossman on Culmaras island have died of Aslatic choiera. One man was sick only 10 minutes, and the surgeons are having great trouble in preventing the spread of the disease.

Sorgeant-Major John Keith of the Second battalion, Twelfth infantry, has just reported for duty at the fort, after a trip around the world. He brought a number of general prisoners from Ma-nila to New York, and came from New York here. He will apply for retire-ment shortly under the 30 years service act.

The funeral of Mrs. Delvoir K. Car-stensen was held in the Twenty-sixth ward meetinghouse yesterday after-noon. The speakers were George A. Smith, Bishop L. G. Hoagland and El-der Frank Stanley, all of whom spake in glowing terms of the beautiful life and character of deceased.

Car 52 of the Waterloo line was disabled by the lightning yesterday after-noon, the flash burning out both front and rear switch boxes, and putting one of the motors out of commission. Mo-torman S.Winward was severely shocked, but was able to remain at his post. A Murray car was also injured by the lightning.

Yesterday forenoon a railway ticket and pocket book were lost in the city by a visitor. The ticket was from Portby a visitor. The ticket was from Port-land to Chicago and return via St. Louis, and was signed by Walter R. Miles. The finder is requested to re-turn the ticket to the Bureau of Infor-mation, Temple block.

Motorman J. W. Hooper of car 116 was badly burned last night by elec-tricity, in front of the Salt Palace. A wire connecting the lighting current with the trailers was left hanging close to the controller; and when Hooper, in jumping on the car, caught hold of the wire, he was thrown into the roadway unconscious. He presently recovered, however, though suffering from his RECEPTION TO MR. YOUNG.

One of the most enjoyable and wholesouled entertainments that ever occured in the Eighteenth ward hall, was the informal sociable in honor of Mr. B. S. Young, given there last evening, No invitations were issued, but a brief notice was inserted in the papers, asking Mr. Young's immediate friends to assemble and bid him God-speed on his journey to Canada. Something like 250 people responded to the invitation, and they represented all classes, from Mr. ng's Immediate relatives and ids to members of the Commercial Press club and board of education. Thends to members of the Commentation club, Press club and board of education. Bishop Whitney was master of cere-monies, and in calling the assemblage to order, he said he did so with pleas-ure, not as presiding officer of the ward, as this was not a ward event, but merely as one of the friends of the guest of honor. The program consisted of several songs by Mr. R. C. Easton, Mr. W. Andelin and Mrs. Louise Sav-age Riter, a plano duet by Arthur Shep-herd and Spencer Clawson, Jr., with happy speeches by Fisher Harris and Bishop Whitney, and a feeling re-sponse by Mr. Young. Refreshments were served by a com-mittee of ladies, and the proceedings lasted till a late hour. Mr. Young re-ceived the handshakes and the hearty best wishes of all who assembled. He expects to leave for Canada within the next three or four days.
