

man, who arrived in this city several days ago from Salt Lake, has applied to the city for assistance. Nurminter says he walked most of the way from Salt Lake. His feet are badly frozen and he is almost dead from exposure. Chief Chinn has been keeping the unfortunate fellow at his own expense, but yesterday he applied to the relief society to take charge of the man. Nurminter says he is on his way to Oregon, where he has a daughter.

Mt. Pleasant Pyramid: Sophus E. Jensen came in from the sheep camps for the holidays, and brought the most encouraging word yet received. He says there is plenty of water now, and the herds are scattering out in the ranges on good feed. Considerable flesh was lost on account of the dry spell, but it is expected to soon regain this now. Mr. Jensen has set out for the desert again.

Mount Pleasant Pyramid: Sheriff Burus was considerably worried last week over the absence of one of his boys in the Henry mountains. The young man is down there with his father's sheep, and it being a new country and no word having been received from the boy since storms set in, Mr. Burus was intending to start out to inquire if all was well. Whether he has departed yet or not, we are unable to say.

The stockholders in the Brigham City Co-op held their annual meeting Monday. The business was shown to be in a prosperous condition. A dividend of three per cent was declared. Apostle Lorenzo Snow was elected president and Samuel Smith, L. Snow Jr., Adolph Madsen, Alvin Nichols, Rudger Clawson, A. E. Snow, and Carl Jensen were chosen directors. This is the first time a dividend has been declared for a number of years.

American Fork Item: Dr. Bostwick, who is at the head of a new patent medicine company, has located here, and will put up a large plant for the manufacture of the medicines, which are, one for rheumatism and malarial fever, a catarrh remedy, a liniment and a hair grower, the latter being a most wonderful discovery, producing hair on anything from an old bachelor to a hair trunk. The machinery is ordered and will arrive soon.

Eben Smith, A. F. Wuensch and Warren Hussey, of Denver, are in the city, on their return from Elko, Nevada, where they have been looking over the Jim Crow and Monitor mines, which S. T. Goble entered into an agreement to sell for $450,000, as stated in the News some time since. The three gentlemen will visit the Bingham mines, and then return to Denver.

The Mammoth mill closed down at noon yesterday, and there is no certainty as to the time when it will resume. The cause of the shut down is the obstruction of the tramway from the mine to the mill by some parties who claim that the track passes over their ground.

Another gold discovery is reported from Ophir, Tooele county. It is at Larkin's ranch, three miles west of the town. The scene of the new discovery is probably on the same belt as the mines at Mercur, Juab county. A large number of locations has been made.

Adjutant General Case, of the Idaho militia, in his official report, gives the number of Idaho militia at 24 commissioned officers and 208 enlisted men, a total of 232. The number of men in the state available for military duty is 13,932.

New Castle, Colorado, has been selected by Ohio parties as a suitable location for a stoneware manufactory. It has good clay and cheap coal. The projectors will manufacture stoneware suitable for fruit preserving for the fruit raisers of the Grand Valley and Utah.

A party of Colorado capitalists and mining men went out to the Camp Floyd and Mercur districts today. Among them was Henry Wolcott, brother of the Centennial state senator of that name. Mr. Wolcott is already largely interested in these districts and has great hopes for the future.

A gentleman who returned to this city from the Camp Floyd district today says that a great deal of work is being done in that part of the Territory and he has strong hopes that with the coming of spring a great camp will be built up there.

An eight-foot vein of ore was uncovered on Monday in the Poorman mine at Cripple Creek, Colorado. It assayed $65.50 per ton. In the Free Coinage mine a body of gold ore was met with which showed nearly $5000 to the ton.

Lehi Banner: One of our mining men informs us that he has discovered a fine deposit of corundum near our city. This is a mineral of extreme hardness and is much used for making emery wheels. This deposit may prove valuable.

J. C. Leary manager of the Union Stock yards has resigned his position as such to engage in business in Kansas city. He will find a successor in the person of Edward H. Mack, recently connected with the Pueblo Stock yards.

W. L. Pickard reports that in Denver the business men are feeling encouraged over the fact that there December showed up to be the best business month of 1893.

Boise, Idaho, Statesman.—It has been definitely decided there will be no Idaho exhibit at the Midwinter fair.

The Hanner, Germania and Mingo smelters have made a reduction of 10 per cent in wages.

PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

The Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake assembled Saturday at 11 a. m., Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Stake, with his counselors, Elders Joseph E. Taylor and Charles W. Penrose, presiding.

There were present of the First Presidency, Wilford Woodruff and George Q. Cannon; of the Apostles, John Henry Smith and Heber J. Grant; Elder Seymour B. Young of the first Council of Seventies.

The roll was called and responded to by twelve presidents of Seventies and eighteen home missionaries. All the wards in the Stake were properly represented excepting the Sixteenth city ward, and Pleasant Green and North Point of the country.

The First, Fourth, Fifth, Tenth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth and Twenty-second quorums of Elders were represented by their presiding officers.

Upon the recommendation of their respective Bishops, twenty-five young men received certificates authorizing their ordination to the office of Elder, each of whom promised to honor and magnify their office and calling if ordained.

The speakers were Presidents Wilford Woodruff and George Q. Cannon, and Elders Angus M. Cannon, Charles W. Penrose and Heber J. Grant.

The subjects treated were the necessity of the Bishops returning recommends for entrance to the Temple in this city every six months; the conscientious settlement of tithing; the full preparation of young men to receive the Melchizedek Priesthood, and the proper exercise of this authority; the necessity of implicit dependence upon prayer to secure temporal and spiritual blessing; and the vast responsibility resting upon those who are called to the work of God.

Communications from President Lorenzo Snow, of the Salt Lake Temple, to the president of the Stake, were read, stating that until further notice members of this Stake will be admitted to the Temple without previous arrangement of days, also that those who are unable to make cash contributions to the Temple may present produce at the Bishop's Store House, and hand in receipt therefor as donation to the Temple. It was also stated that the poor should not hesitate to come forward and perform work in the Temple for their dead, though their means for purposes of donation may be limited.

Bleongs of wards and clerks of Elders quorums and other Stake organizations are requested to see that their reports for the six months ending January 31st 1894, are forthcoming at the February Priesthood meeting.

Adjourned until the first Saturday in February.

THE EUROPEAN MISSION.

[Millennial Star, Dec. 25.]

Arrivals.—The following missionaries arrived from Utah per Cunard Line Steamer Lucania, Friday evening, December 15, 1893: Albert Edward Jarman, of Salt Lake City, Utah, Jose Hill, of Clarkston, Utah, and Thorgrim Bjarnason, of Spanish Fork, Utah, all for the British mission. The last named Elder will take up his labors in Iceland. The Elders experienced quite a rough voyage. Considerable sickness prevailed among the passengers and three deaths occurred.

Appointments.—Elder Albert E. Jarman has been appointed to labor as travelling elder in the London conference.

Elder Jose Hill has been appointed to labor as travelling elder in the Irish conference.

Elder Thorgrim Bjarnason has been appointed to labor in Iceland, which island has been detached from the Scandinavian mission and added to the British mission.