Advices from Charleston state that Major MacBeth the common council and other members of the civil government in that city have been restored to the exercise of their functions, and the principal municipal buildings have been given up to them in accordance with a military order issued by General Bennett, Commander of the sub-district of Charleston, on the 2d instant. The Mayor is to have jurisdiction of all cases between whites; the negroes are to be turned over to the Provost Marshal, but the military police will for the present be retained. The organization of the State Militia is rapidly progressing; in some sections they are to be subject to the national officers and co-operate with them in suppressing prevalent lawlessness. Gen. Bennett has issued an order directing subordinates to assist in the formation of this State force, every member of which, before joining, must take the national oath of allegiance. There is a great stir among South Carolina politicians in relation to the coming State Congressional Election; candidates are issuing addresses to the people through the newspapers. A governor and members of the legislature are to be elected on the 15th.

The Herald's Raleigh correspondence says the people of North Carolina, especially those around Raleigh, are very decided in their approval of the emphatic way in which the State Convention disposed of the secession ordinance, by declaring it not only null and void, but to have always since its passage been so; the inhabitants are also represented as being extremely hostile to those men who assisted in plunging the State into rebellion. In the Convention, on the 4th inst., resolutions were introduced, but laid over for future action, expressing the utmost confidence in Pres. Johnson, thanking him for the course he has pursued toward the erring people of the South, to the gratitude of all of whom it is believed he is entitled; the resolutions also endorse Gov. Holden, and express a belief that no State ever will again have a desire to abandon the Union.

The Washington special to the Post says the Navy Department has ordered the ex-rebel ram Stonewall, now at Havana, to be brought to one of our navy yards.

The Herald's Savannah correspondence says the election in Georgia is proceeding quietly; no military were near the polling places, everything in connection with the election being lauded by the civil officers in the majority of the counties; but one ticket was run, and it is said that a good class of men has been selected for candidates. In the interior of the State generally harmony and quiet prevail. The people accept with a fair amount of grace, the new order of things, though planters coming into Savannah from some sections make a strong complaint of the negroes neglecting to work, and say that in consequence next year's crop will be a failure.

Liverpool, 28.

Fids for Erie Railway are four times in excess of the amount required.

The Paraguayans have again been defeated by the allies.

Arrests of the Fenians continued. Fenianism is said to have been discovered among the Irish residents in London; the police are keeping strict surveillance over them.

The Rev. W. H. Channing has been lecturing in Liverpool on the freedmen of America, whose future, he contended, promised most encouraging results.

The appearance of Asiatic cholera at Southampton is disputed, but it was reported the yellow fever has appeared at Swansea; Government sent a commission there to enquire into the matter.

The Moniteur, France, alluding to the reported speedy evacuation of Rome, says that no doubt should exist relative to the intentions of the French Government; as soon as France shall consider the proper moment to have arrived she will, in concert with the Pontifical government, adopt necessary measures for the commencement of the evacuation, in order that the withdrawal of French troops may be completed within the appointed period.

New York, 9.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says there are not less than 50,000 Americans at present traveling in Europe, spending at the rate of a hundred million dollars in gold a year.

St. Louis, 9.

The drug store of Penick & Loving and the Queensware house of H. B. Ketchum, St. Joe., were burned on the 5th; loss of the former, $60,000; latter, $40,000; mostly insured.

Halifax, 9.

A number of Fenian prisoners were brought before the police magistrates in Dublin, Sep. 30. The Government counsel stated that large sums of money had been received from America by some of the prisoners, and a letter was intercepted in that day's mail, containing a large draft for one of them. Some of the correspondence seized shows that the designs of the Fenians were of the most sanguinary character, being the extermination and assassination of the nobility, on the breaking out of the rebellion.

Pit Hole, Penn., 9.

The tanks of the largest flowing well in Pit Hole, known as the Grant, containing 4,000 barrels of oil, caught fire about one this morning, spreading destruction in all directions; 13 derricks and engine houses were destroyed; total loss $150,000.

Queenstown, 1.

The Fenian prisoners were brought before the police magistrates at Dublin, Sep. 30, including the editor and proprietor of the Irish People newspaper, Mr. Barry, counsel for the Crown, made a long speech, and said that within the last fortnight £3,500 had arrived from America, to be expended in revolutionizing Ireland; and by that day's mail the Government had intercepted a letter for one of the prisoners named Lapper, containing a draft for £415, on the house of Rothschild; there were several other letters containing bills of exchange; the making of pikes has also been extensively carried on; one of the prisoners had made 2,000 of these murderous weapons; numerous revolvers and breastplates were also found in the possession of the prisoners connected with the Irish People newspaper; he quoted an incendiary paragraph, urging the employment of force, from numbers of that paper, which were about to be issued when seized. Mr. Barry concluded his speech by asserting that the Fenians were powerful, both in Ireland and America, and trusted that this affair would end forever such hopeless conspiracies. Evidence was then given against the prisoners; some of them were identified as connected with the suppressed Fenian organ.

The investigation is still pending, and will probably last several days. At the examination of 6 of the Fenians at Dublin Castle, it was put in showing that the plot of the Fenians was of the most sanguinary character; it was to put down the nobility, aristocracy and land owners, to assassinate them all on the breaking out of rebellion; the Duke of Leinster and others were named for assassination.

The linen manufacturers and others were to be called on to give materials to support the cause, under threats of extermination and the confiscation of their property, if they refused to do so. The evidence of treason against the prisoners is said to be most complete.

The Herald's Toronto correspondent notices a significant speech by the Canadian Attorney General McDonald. He said that Ottawa would ere long be the metropolis of one third of the

It is said John C. Breckenridge proposes to become a British subject, and go into the pork business.

Nova Scotia papers, Sep. 28th, announce the arrival of Gen. Sir Fenwick Williams, lately Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in Canada; Gen. Williams has been sent out to take the management of Nova Scotia, which has hitherto obstinately refused to see the desirability of confederation.

The Fenians are creating a stir in Canada; agents of the Organization recently visited Quebec and Ottawa with the view of establishing lodges. It is reported that members of the Brotherhood lately left Toronto, on a special mission to Ireland.

The Herald's Brownsville correspondent says the attack on Matamoras by the Republicans has been postponed till the return of their agent from the United States, sent to secure material and aid; it is now said he has been successful beyond anticipation, and a vigorous campaign will soon take place. The Imperialists have given up both Monterey and Matamoras.

The Official Dublin Gazette, Sep. 29th, contains a proclamation disarming several baronies in Tipperary, Limerick and Waterford counties.

The London Times suggests that the Prince of Wales should visit Ireland occasionally, and points out that the royal family have passed more time on the continent than in the sister kingdom.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—Elder Geo. Q. Cannon spoke of the late visit of Pres. B. Young and company to the settlements in the southern portion of this Territory, contrasting their present with their past condition, and dwelling upon the wonderful blessings which have been given to the Saints in settling that apparently sterile and forsaken land. He alluded to the coming of this people to Utah at first, and the difficulties with which they had to contend in settling this desert country, showing the causes that had conduced to their prosperity,—faith in God, self-government and a good organization.

Elder F. D. Richards dwelt upon the unflagging energies of the Saints in the south, and their praiseworthy efforts in contending against the almost insurmountable difficulties which presented themselves to the settling of those desolate wastes. Bore testimony to the loyalty of this people to the constitution of the United States, and their determination to maintain civil and religious liberty.

Afternoon:

Pres. B. Young arose to speak, but in consequence of the broken condition of his voice, through having taken a cold, he was unable to continue his remarks.

Elder W. Woodruff referred to the President's visit south, and to the great mercies and blessings of God bestowed upon His Saints in this land. He touched upon the first principles of the Gospel, and bore testimony of this work being the work of God.

Throughout the trial, Judge Snyder manifested that dignity and impartiality which so well become a judge.

There were some small civil cases heard, and the Court adjourned.

CITIZEN.

JOSEPH NUTT, living with William Ousey, Danbury, Connecticut, wishes to know the whereabouts of his aunt, Martha Ousey; she belonged to the Hyde Branch, near Manchester, England.

THEATRICAL.—The regular Fall Season opened on Thursday evening, 5th inst., with the fine old Comedy, The School for Scandal, Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, who has been engaged for the season, personating the character of Lady Teazle. The cast was a powerful one, embracing the principal strength of the company, with Mr. McKenzie as Sir Peter, Mr. Waldron as Charles Surface, Mr. Caine as Joseph Surface, Messrs. Dunbar, Margetts, Simmons and Bowring respectfully as Sir Oliver, Crabtree, Sir Benjamin and Rowley, the other gentlemen characters equally well cast, and Maria, Lady Sneerwell and Mrs. Candour represented by Mesdames A. Clawson, M. Bowring and M. G. Clawson. The playing was easy and spirited and the piece was well received by the audience, and afforded an evening's excellent enjoyment.

POLICE REPORT.—On the 25th ult., Joshua Taylor and Mair Rosenbaum were fined $50 each for selling fermented liquor. On the 2d inst., P. Englebreth was mulcted in $100 for the same offence. Wonder if they find it pays? On the 3d inst., two emigrants, "transients" or "pilgrims" were fined $15 each for fighting. Playful souls! this exuberance of animal spirits doesn't seem to be appreciated here. On Friday evening, Ed. Prodham who is accused of having manifested strong proclivities for trading on other people's property, helping himself freely to horses and mules as fancy dictated, regardless of ownership, and John Kremer, his aid and helper, were arrested by the police. The accidental discharge of a pistol in the arrest which hurt nobody, was the loudest report heard on the occasion.
