The trans-cript is assigned to the First National The hearing in the case of Margaren Banford against Samuel Banford, suit bank of Denver. brought for divorce, is being heard before Judge Rolapp. The prosecution is represented by James N. Kimball and Charles Stout and the defense by County Attorney Halverson and T. D. Johnson, Mrs. Banford, the complaining witness, was the first to testify. She testified in part that from shortly after the time of her marriage to deafter the time of the time of her filing fendant up to the time of her filing the complaint in this action, they never lived happily together; that they often had guarrels, and the defendant treated her in a cruel manner; that on one occasion he knocked her down the one occasion he knocked her down the cellar breaking her collar bone, and cherwise injuring her, but that she lad told several poople that she fell down the cellar, fearing that if she were to tell the truth her brothers or were to fail the truth her brothers or con would deal severally with Mr. Ban-ford. That on another occasion the de-fendant and plnintif had a quarrel, the 25c fendant and plainting had a quarrel, the defendant struck the plaintiff with his fat and blackened her left eye. She farther testified that he had failed to povide her with the common neces series of life. Her testimony was supported by a number of other witnesses. The defendant testiffed in his own behalf and dented the allegations made or the plaintiff. He testified that the piciatiff had been very unkind to him and always quarrelsome, and had left him without provocation. The defendant's testimony had not closed when ourt adjourned. Suit was filed in the district court by John Scowcroft & Sons company against Owens & Buchanan to recover

$45.56 alleged to be due for merchandlse bought by the defendants, from the plaintiff. In the matter of the estate of R. J. Hill, deceased, the executors, W. E. Malson and F. A. Shiells have filed ther final account showing the assets to be $1.130.54 and the Habilities to be 11,575.00 including taxes, etc. The balance of the estate after paying all liabilities will be divided, two-thirds go-ing to John Melvine and one-third to the church of the Good Shepherd, MOORE-RASMUSSEN NUPTIALS.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokce, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kid-neys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electrie Bitters which effected such a won-derful change that he writes he feels like a new man.
