

JIMMIE BRITT DEFEATS SEIGER.

California Was Awarded the Decision After 20 Rounds
Hard Fighting.

IT WAS A GAME CONTEST.

But the New Yorker Was Out-Pointed And Out-Fought Throughout The Bout.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Jimmie Britt, the California lightweight, easily secured the decision tonight over Charlie Seiger of New York. There was no stage of the contest in which the issue was in doubt. In all but the fourteenth round, Britt had a clear lead. He out-pointed, out-boxed and out-generalized Seiger at every stage of the game. Britt created havoc with Seiger's stomach with left hooks, which he landed time and again. He varied this during the latter stages of the contest by working his left to the face, and soon had Seiger bleeding copiously from nose and mouth.

Britt timed his blows to a nicety and seldom failed to reach some portion of Seiger's anatomy. The fourteenth round was the only one in which Seiger had a chance. Toward the close of this round he succeeded in landing two wild swings on the California jaw, one partially flooring him and the other sending him to his knees. The bell rang at this stage, but Britt went to his corner without showing signs of distress. He came up fresh in the fifteenth round and once more began his plan of out-pointing the outsider.

From this on, Britt seemed to grow fresher, and as the fight advanced there was a noticeable increase in the power behind his blows. Britt employed his left almost continuously throughout the fight, but when the opening presented he used his right to great advantage. Seiger put up a game fight and his ability to take punishment was marvelous. Time and again he seemed on the verge of going out for good, but always came back and forced the fight. Britt left the ring without a mark, while Seiger presented a pitiable appearance as he staggered from the ring. His mouth, nose and eyes were badly cut and his body and arms showed the effects of Britt's left hooks.

FITZ MAKES WEIGHT.

From Nearly 200 Pounds He Has Reduced to the Required Notch.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 10.—Bob Fitzsimmons is as much a wonder now as he was in the days when he fought Jack Dempsey at New Orleans. He now weighs 140 pounds, and is in the best of health. When he started training a few days ago at Alameda he weighed nearly 200 pounds. Now he has been down to the neighborhood of 160 pounds, and in short, he will hit the middleweight limit with no let-up in his reducing work. No body doubts now but that Bob can make 150 pounds and be strong. He now shows as a legitimate middleweight, who has been giving away class and fighting heavy fellows for the championship of the world.

MAY NOT FIGHT.

"Young Corbett" Wants Bonus If He Fights Eddie Hanlon.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Eddie Hanlon, who is to be deprived of a return match with Young Corbett, who enjoys the proud distinction of holding the championship, will be somewhat of a surprise to the local sports, who supposed the match was clinched with the good Irishman and agreed to all of Corbett's terms in order to meet the champion, whom he feels he can beat. The next time they book up, Eddie did not care so much about the terms as he did an opportunity to fight. The weight, which is usually the hardest thing in a match to agree upon, Hanlon conceded everything. Corbett said, "I'll fight you at 120 pounds at 6 o'clock." Hanlon replied: "All right, come on." Hanlon can fight at a lighter weight, but he was afraid Corbett would balk if he proposed anything lower. Rather than have him slip away he allowed Corbett his own weight. In the matter of purse Hanlon said: "You can split the money to suit yourself. You can have it winner take all, or divide the money equally. I don't care."

While these negotiations were going on Hanlon was not aware of the fact that Corbett, whose eye for business is as sharp as his eye for a knockout, had a plan in the ring, was bickering with the heavy fighter who was supposed to be the fight to be held. What Corbett was after was a bonus. He received a bonus when he fought Hanlon before, and Morris Levy was ready to give him a second dose of the same amount, but Corbett said this was not large enough. He insisted on Levy increasing the bonus, which the club manager has refused to do. Hence there is grave danger of the match going by the boards and Corbett not returning to California next month.

Corbett is a hard chap to do business with, but he is making money as if by magic and making it easier than he would by fighting Hanlon again.

"It looks to me as if Corbett wanted to crawl out of the fight," said Hanlon yesterday, who returned from the champion's camp this week. "Here I gave in to him on everything, and then he won't come around. I don't object to the club giving him a bonus, but he should not want everything. He ought to be reasonable. I don't know how big a bonus he got the first time, but it was pretty fat. I want to fight Corbett for two reasons. In the first place, I am after the championship, and in the second place he would draw more money than any other fighter. If I don't get him I don't know whom I will fight next."

Fight at Cheyenne.

(Special to the "News.")
Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 11.—Kid Gregory, champion heavyweight of Wyoming, and Jack Sardo of Fort Russell, have been matched to fight 15 rounds to a decision Saturday night. The bout will be pulled off by the Lime Kiln Athletic club. The fighters will be for the gate receipts and a $500 side bet.

Fighters Given "Floaters."

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 10.—Police Judge Herka this morning gave "Philadelphia Tommy" Ryan and Billy Rhodes an hour to pack up and leave the city as an alternative to a sentence for vagrancy. When the fighters were brought into court to plead to the charge, Ryan called the magistrate's attention to the charge usually accorded vagrants to leave town. "You can avail yourselves of the same privilege," said the judge, "and leave town."

The arrest of the fighters was due to a "fake" in which they participated last night. The hour was called at the end of the sixth round and both men were taken to the police station. Ryan and Rhodes huddled their possessions into satchels and caught an electric car for Council Bluffs, Ia.

PRESENT TO CHURCH.

"Bitty" Muldoon Gives Old Training Quarters to Catholics.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The buildings and the place where John L. Sullivan several years ago trained for his memorable battle with Paddy Ryan for the championship of America, among the heavyweights, have been turned over to Bishop Colton of this city by William Muldoon, the famous wrestler of 10 years ago, as a present from the athlete to the Catholic diocese of Buffalo. The same buildings and grounds to be used for a convent, or some educational institution to be approved by the bishop of Buffalo.

And where the merry hum of the punching bag was heard a few years ago will in a short time be heard the gentle voice of a nun. Muldoon, who has been a devotee of his faith since he was a boy, has been a devotee of his faith since he was a boy. The buildings are located in the town of Buffalo, this state. Mr. Muldoon was always noted for his generosity. He never turned down an applicant for aid of charity in his life. He has given many thousands of dollars to the needy and his latest act of charity will bring him many friends. If he needed any more than the thousands and thousands who are his admirers today for his many fine qualities.

Muldoon was probably the best liked man in this country ever known. He possessed a head full of good sense and much money. With theatrical companions. For the past 10 years he has been the proprietor of a hotel and has made thousands of dollars. He has made thousands of dollars. May his good luck always follow him in the wish of every man who ever personally knew Billy Muldoon.

ONE MORE RECORD.

That for Half-Mile Track Lowered by Dan Patch.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 10.—Dan Patch paced a mile on a half-mile track here this afternoon in 2:30.4, lowering the only world record for pace on this track. The record previous to this was 2:30.8, held by Prince Albert, Cobweb, the runner that once Dan Patch raced on the turn just before entering the stretch, and but for this Dan Patch would probably have made the mile in less than 2:30. The time by quarters: 39.5, 1:19.4, 2:00.4, 2:30.4. With the exception of a slight breeze blowing down the stretch, the weather was ideal. The track was hard and fast.

TEAM DISBANDED.

All Hallows Eleven Will Play No More Games This Season.

The long looked for game between the All Hallows college football team and the "Aggies" eleven, which was billed for Thanksgiving day here, will not take place. Word was received that the players of the game had been called off the track, and that the college team had disbanded for the season. It appears that some of the players' parents objected to the game, and it was impossible to retain the organization. The team with some of their best men out of the game. The disbanding of the team will prove a disappointment to students and football fans alike.

CRESCUS FAILED.

Could Not Lower Record on Half-Mile Track Yesterday.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 10.—In what was hailed as his last public appearance on the turf, Crescus, the king of trotters, today failed in his effort to break the world's trotting record of 2:13 for a mile on a half-mile track, held by himself, going the distance in 2:13.4 on the Kansas City Driving club's track. The conditions were unfavorable for record time and at the request of George H. Ketcham, owner and driver of Crescus, the judges announced before the trial was begun that the crowd should not expect to see the record broken.

The track was not to Mr. Ketcham's liking, being a little cuppy, and the wind was blowing a gale from the west, but the most discouraging condition for fast time was the fact that Crescus was suffering from slight lameness, due, it is said, to a recent experience in a wreck. The time by quarters was 33.1, 1:03.4, 1:33.4, 2:13.4.

SPORTING NOTES.

In Wall street Yale is a favorite in the betting on the game with Princeton on Nov. 14. Plenty of Yale money was offered to go to 30, while Princeton wanted 50 and 20 to 100. Several bets were made at 10 to 30. In the Pennsylvania game with Harvard even money is offered and plentifully taken.

The Indian trick of concealing the ball underneath a jersey, as worn against Harvard, may be permissible under the rules, but it hardly seems in keeping with the spirit of the game. There is nothing in the rules to prevent tunicis being dug from the inside of the jersey, with trap doors back of the goal line—New York Sun.

The various basketball teams will soon get together and arrange for dates. The Cheyenne business college team was matched with the L. D. S. university aggregation, and the manager of that team has written to Captain Stanton of the local team asking for a game here this winter. The Cheyenne team also wants games with Provo and Logan as well as Salt Lake, and games will very likely be arranged in the near future.

Milwaukee, Nov. 10.—Buddy Ryan of Chicago got the decision over Gus Gardner of Springfield, Mass., at the end of a six-round bout before the Budge Athletic club tonight. Battling Nelson won from George Stelmie in six rounds.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 10.—Orrip Hickok, formerly one of the best known drivers and trainers of fast horses in the country, is dead at the state hospital here of softening of the brain.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—Jimmy Handler of Newark, N. J., and Cyclone Kelly of San Francisco met tonight at the Southern Athletic club in what was to have been a six-round go, but Handler quit in the third round. Up to that time his opponent had much the better of the bout.

Boston, Nov. 10.—Sandy Ferguson got the decision over Joe Walcott tonight after 15 rounds of fast, clean fighting, before the Criterion Athletic club. Ferguson showed superior form, and the decision met with general approval.

"If Tommy Ryan thinks I can't make the 150-pound limit, let him post $5,000 a weight forfeit and I'll be there the next day on the hour. I'm in the game now and I'm not going to back out. I'll prove my right to the middleweight title or some other fellow gets it," said Jack O'Brien, Ryan and all those alleged 150-pounders will come through in the event of my winning this contest.

"Yes, I'll train hard for Gardner and do all that is possible to help me win out. I have wired Jack Root in Chicago asking him to come to the ring and help me. Jack is a nice fellow and knows Gardner's fighting style well."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The First Presbyterian church was well filled last night, on the occasion of the concert given by Miss Agatha Perkel, the contralto. The fair singer made an excellent appearance and impression, and performed her part admirably. The evening was also made enjoyable by the appearance of Prof. McClellan as accompanist, showing that sympathy between the piano and voice that is so desirable, and also by the appearance of Prof. Skelton with his violin. A specially pleasing feature of the program was Miss Berkhoe's singing with Prof. Skelton's violin obligato. She was given an impromptu reception at the close of the evening.

Judge and Mrs. W. C. Hall have returned from California.

Mrs. P. S. Keogh will entertain at tea tomorrow afternoon from 4 till 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Miller entertained at a delightful dinner last night in honor of Rev. Elmer Stoen.

Miss June McIntyre will entertain at a dancing party next Wednesday in honor of Miss Fern.

Mrs. Sam Porter was hostess at a card party yesterday in honor of Mrs. Bersbach of Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. P. S. Bascom will entertain at dinner today.

The young ladies who are to act as bridesmaids at the Donnellan-Falls wedding left today for California. They will spend a few days in San Francisco before going to join Miss Donnellan in Sacramento.

A DENVER CHILD.

"Button, button, who's got the button?" This question nearly drove the house detectives of the Auditorium hotel and Ancker crazy yesterday. Before they discovered who did have it they were led a memorable chase. And it was a little child that led them.

The "button" was a 2-carat diamond shirt stud. It belonged to Col. Martin Proctor of Butte, Mont., and was his proudest possession. This, in spite of the fact that he is the owner of several gold mines out in the Montana country.

Yesterday afternoon, while sitting in the corridor of the Annex, he scaped up an acquaintance with the little four-year-old daughter of Mrs. P. O. Nichols of Denver. He bought the child some candy, which she ate as she sat in his lap. Two hours later Col. Proctor missed his diamond stud.

He reported his loss to the hotel authorities, who turned loose the score or more of private detectives employed in the two hotels. They were unable to find any trace of the jewel. In their search they turned the place upside down, and all to no effect.

Upstairs on the third floor in the meantime little Miss Nichols was having a splendid time. Her nurse noticed that she was rolling something around on the floor that sparkled, and tossing it in the air. She asked her what she was doing. "Playing marbles," said the little girl. "Playing marbles with a present that old gentleman gave me."

The nurse took the "marble," and the secret was out. It was returned to its owner—Denver Post.

SWIMMING ANIMALS.

Almost all animals know how to swim without having to learn it. As soon as they fall into the water or are driven into it they instinctively make the proper motions, and not only manage to keep afloat, but swim with ease and grace. Exceptions are the monkey, the camel, giraffe and llama, which cannot swim without assistance. Camels and llamas have to be helped across water, and giraffes and monkeys drown if they are driven to swim. The squirrel swims with its hind legs, and the rabbit swims with its hind legs. The water mallow gets away. But with all his awkwardness he is a swift swimmer. He is only beaten by the squirrel and the land animals. The squirrel swims with his heavy tail sunk away down in the water and his head held high. He cleaves the waves like a duck, and a man in a rowboat has all he can do to keep abreast of the swimming squirrel. One thing that none of the land living animals does is to dive. No matter how hard pressed a swimming deer, rabbit, squirrel or other purely terrestrial animal may be, it will remain above water. But the muskrat, however, the bear, and others, dive immediately.—Public Ledger.

CURED BY SWAMP-ROOT

Suffered With Inflammation—Catarrh of the Bladder and Weak Kidneys.

Hon. D. A. Montgomery's Interview with the Editor of the Nashville American.

HON. D. A. MONTGOMERY.

Mr. Montgomery, Ex-Member of State Legislature, was recently interviewed by the Nashville, Tenn., American, regarding his cure by Swamp-Root and made the following signed statement:

"My indorsement of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root cannot be written strong enough. I had been greatly troubled with my kidneys and with what the doctors termed inflammation at the neck of the bladder. Was obliged to pass water very frequently day and night, often with smarting and burning. Sometimes my back would get so lame and sore that I was almost helpless. I tried several doctors and medicines to no good effect, when finally I heard that Dr. Kilmer would send a sample bottle of his kidney medicine, Swamp-Root, free by mail. I sent at once and received a sample bottle without delay. After trying the sample I concluded it was just the medicine I needed, and I purchased a liberal supply from my merchant and friend, Mr. E. J. Edizer. Today I am a well man, and can ride horse-back and drive with any of my friends. I cannot recommend Swamp-Root too highly for what it has done for me. You are at liberty to use this letter or refer anyone to me, and I will gladly tell them about my past troubles and what a wonderful remedy this Swamp-Root is. I am very glad to recommend it to others at every opportunity. Mr. James Ivens, of Saundersville, Tenn., and many others are taking it with good results.

Yours very truly,
D. A. Montgomery

Worham, Sumner Co., Tenn., Nov. 11th.

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince anyone—and you may have a sample bottle sent free, by mail.

Sample Bottle of Swamp-Root Free by Mail.

SPECIAL NOTE—If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a book telling all about Swamp-Root and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in the Salt Lake City Daily Deseret News.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
