

IN SOCIAL REALMS

SOCIAL CHAT

The event of the week was the old fashioned ball given by the Daughters of Utah Pioneers at Ogden hall on Wednesday night, when over 500 people gathered and enjoyed a delightful time with the dancing and refreshments. The pictures of long ago, the old and the new, were there with their ladies, the former in full uniform and the latter in evening dress, and with the many and varied pictures of the old time helped to make up a brilliant scene. Refreshments of the old fashioned order were served and the affair was altogether characteristic and enjoyable.

On Monday night the American Music society was entertained by Miss Minnie Bae and a delightful program given by Mrs. Charles Reed and Mrs. A. S. Peters. The society is planning a public entertainment.

A delightful affair to the week was the reception given last night by the senator and Mrs. W. N. Williams in honor of Gov. and Mrs. Spry, and members of the legislature.

Mrs. Arthur W. James entertained at a violet tea on Wednesday afternoon, the pretty violet flowers being used both as decorations and prizes in the bridge contest. Three tables were played.

Mrs. W. W. Clark entertained informally at bridge on Wednesday.

Mrs. Richard Shingley entertained informally on Wednesday for Mrs. Dorothy Ash.

Mrs. W. H. Hunt entertained a few friends informally at luncheon on Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Jennings entertained the members of the "Mrs. Wages" theatrical company at an informal tea on Tuesday.

Mrs. Nephil Clayton entertained a number of young people at her home on Monday night for her son Lawrence, who won the medal offered by the local society of the American Revolution. Mrs. Clayton was assisted by Miss Katherine Adams and Miss Burdette Claassen.

Mrs. H. C. Edwards entertained informally at bridge on Monday, the decorations being in carnations, and the prize won by Mrs. John Reed.

Mrs. R. A. Grant entertained at a luncheon on Thursday, followed by a box party at the Colonial, her guests being Mrs. Henry Buehler, Mrs. Archie Hise, Mrs. Hyrum Spencer and Mrs. S. W. Baker, all of Ogden.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tracy entertained at a delightful dinner in honor of their niece, Miss Louise Stubbfield of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Mervyle Winslow of California, the rooms being decorated in American Beauty roses and covers laid for 15.

Mrs. W. M. McCrea was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. M. C. McCrea, the table being decorated in white and hollyhocks, and covers laid for the following: Mrs. George A. Lavoie, Mrs. E. W. O'Connor, Mrs. C. H. Stephenson and Mrs. A. H. Howard.

On Tuesday night Miss Stella Ivey entertained a few girl friends at a stumber party, at which a delicious supper being served at midnight.

Miss Margaret Harris will entertain today at luncheon at the Commercial club, followed by a musical party at the Ogden. The affair is in compliment of Miss Ella Carey, Miss Stubbfield and Miss June Whittemers.

Mrs. W. L. Ellerbeck entertained the cup and saucer club Thursday afternoon at the Clinton home in A street. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Elbridge Thomas and Mrs. J. Rogers.

Mrs. Andrew Howat and Miss June Howat will entertain at bridge on Tuesday for their guest, Miss Merrill.

The Monday bridge tournament met with the Misses Bae and Olive Bartch in the Bradford this week. The next meeting will be on Monday, Miss Lulu Franke in the Cummings apartments.

The Utopia club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Matthew Cullen. Prizes were won by Mrs. E. M. Bell, Mrs. E. H. Pinkerton, Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson and Mrs. H. C. Hoffmann. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 11, with Mrs. Pauline Benda.

Mrs. W. J. Lynch entertained the members of the Pique club Thursday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. H. McMillan and Mrs. Emmet where Mrs. Henry Catrow and her sister, Miss Grace Bell, are spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy will leave the first of next week for California, where they will visit their son, who is a student at the Belmont military school, near San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Leonard and little daughter, who have been spending the winter at the Bradford, are now at home to their friends at Garfield.

Mrs. Lafayette Blanchett and daughter, will be home today from a month's stay in San Diego and Los Angeles.

Mrs. L. B. Cates left Tuesday evening for Chicago, accompanied by her father. They will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. Luther B. Steele of Portland, Or., is here to spend some time with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Talbot.

Mrs. David Keith and son David are enjoying the early spring in Ocean Park, Cal., where they have a cottage.

W. J. Halloran left Monday evening for Santa Barbara and Los Angeles, where he will spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Klingender have returned from a few weeks' stay in southern California.

Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay returned

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hampton will return after a month's visit in southern California.

J. H. Boifuss has returned to Salt Lake after a trip of several weeks in New York and the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Flier and son have taken a cottage at Atlantic City, where they will remain until the early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt B. Love, accompanied by Miss Lucy B. Naisbett, will leave today for San Francisco, after a short stay, will sail for Honolulu for a month's trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMurrin and their daughter, Chella, and son, Irvine, left this week for an indefinite stay in California.

Mrs. G. S. Blanchard, who has spent the past year or so here, with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Blanchard, left yesterday for the City of Mexico to visit another daughter there.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Daly are back after a month's stay in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Middleton are at home for the next few months at No. 14 Bransford.

Miss Nellie Clark and Miss De Worth have returned from a trip to New York.

Mrs. R. R. Bittinger has gone to Fort Collins, Colo., for a visit with friends. Later she will join her daughter in California.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Taylor and daughter have returned from a month's stay in southern California.

Bishop Spalding has returned from a month's stay in Colorado and will remain during Lent in Salt Lake.

Mrs. F. J. Dunn and Miss Edna Dunn, who have spent some time at Hot Springs, Ark., will enjoy the scenes of Mexico and later go to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Albritton of Kadiapell Mont., who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Bonemont, will spend the next two weeks with her sisters in Provo and Mammoth.

Mrs. Lucia Therman has returned from an extended trip including San Francisco and Honolulu, and is at home with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Whitney on east South Temple street.

Mrs. W. W. Cluff has returned to

MRS. WILLIAM H. TAFT.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash, and by Mrs. Fred Hornung, Mrs. Sam S. Porter, Mrs. S. C. Snyder and Mrs. John Reed. The decorations were in jonquils.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jeff entertained at a 500 party on Monday night in honor of Mrs. Wickes of Chicago, the prizes going to Mrs. Robert Boyles and T. Merrill.

Mrs. H. G. Williams will entertain at a luncheon at her apartments in the Bradford, to meet Mrs. Dorsey Ash.

Invitations have been issued for a Mendocino evening, to be given by Miss Esther Allen and Miss Mattie Hall and their pupils, assisted by Miss Edna Cobb, on Tuesday, Tuesday evening, March 9, at 8:15 at Gordon academy.

Invitations have been issued by the Utah Women's Press and Reporter club for an afternoon party to be given in honor of the birthday of the founder of both clubs, Mrs. E. B. Wells, the event to take place on the 12th of March, having been necessarily postponed all that date. It will be given at the home of Mrs. Florence Critchlow, the Press club president, and an appropriate program has been planned for the afternoon.

Mrs. C. O. Whittemore and her daughter, Miss Lulu Whittemore, left this week for their home in Los Angeles, where Mrs. Lulu will continue her studies. Miss Lulu Whittemore will be the guest of Miss Elsie Yates during the remainder of her visit.

Miss Elizabeth McCracken has returned after a stay of some two months with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Terhune, at Long Beach. She is with Mrs. L. L. Parks, but will be the guest of Mrs. E. H. Office.

Mrs. C. I. Douglas is back after a stay of several months in the east, where she visited her son, Gordon.

Rev. Edward Nickerson, left Tuesday evening for Sacramento, Cal., where he will join his wife and children, who have spent some time there. Later they will go to southern California to make their home.

Miss Elsie McMillan will spend the month of March with her aunt at the Hollywood hotel, Hollywood, Cal.

Monday from a short visit in New York and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lynch returned Monday from a visit in southern California.

Miss Mervyle Winslow left this week for her home in Los Angeles, after a visit of several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy.

Mrs. Hooper Dubois, who has been a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Geddes, for a month, will leave next Thursday for her home in Los Angeles.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Ward of Fort Douglas are entertaining Mrs. Ward's brother, Mr. Jamison, from Mexico.

Lieut. Kneeland S. Snow will leave today on a two months' leave, when he will join Mrs. Snow, who is visiting with her parents in Buffalo.

Mrs. J. F. Bauscher, after a pleasant stay of two weeks in Salt Lake, left Thursday for her home in Ogden.

Dorsey Ash will leave today for her home in Berkeley.

Mr. P. Coleman left last week for South America for a two months' trip. During his absence, Mrs. Coleman will remain here. Her mother, Mrs. Cleveland of Denver, will join her here early in April.

Mrs. W. W. Ritter is expected home from a month's visit in Los Angeles and at the Pacific coast beaches.

Mrs. Ellerbeck and her daughter, Miss Ada Ellerbeck, who are visiting in Seattle, Wash., will return home early in April.

John Wells, Jr., has returned from California. Mrs. Wells remained in Santa Barbara, where she will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Kimball and family are now at home to their friends at Thirtieth East and Fourth South.

Mrs. Jones left Wednesday evening for her home in Cincinnati, after spending some time here with her son.

Miss Minnie Fugate has returned from an extended visit in California, where she was with Mrs. L. L. Parks.

Trig Cannon will leave soon on a business trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Baumgardner is at Long Beach spending some time with Mrs. W. E. Terhune.

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert S. Kerr will be here shortly from their trip to a conference with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerr. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr have made their home for the past three years in South America.

Mrs. Jackson Hodge and daughter, Miss Louie, have returned from Alameda, Cal., where they passed the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hampton are home from a month's stay in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry returned Tuesday evening from a few weeks' stay in New York.

Victor DeCamp of St. Paul, Minn., is the guest of Colonel and Mrs. Walter S. Scott at the post.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Shingley are now at home to their friends at No. 18 Antea apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones are at home to their friends at No. 3, Swallow apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anne of Great Salt Lake, who have been visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. John Hines, left Monday to spend a few days with relatives in Nephi before returning to their home.

Mrs. Emily Bailey and daughter, Miss Edna Bailey, are now in Santa Barbara, Cal., where they will remain for some time.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Taylor and daughter have returned from a month's stay in southern California.

Bishop Spalding has returned from a month's stay in Colorado and will remain during Lent in Salt Lake.

Mrs. F. J. Dunn and Miss Edna Dunn, who have spent some time at Hot Springs, Ark., will enjoy the scenes of Mexico and later go to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Albritton of Kadiapell Mont., who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Bonemont, will spend the next two weeks with her sisters in Provo and Mammoth.

Mrs. Lucia Therman has returned from an extended trip including San Francisco and Honolulu, and is at home with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Whitney on east South Temple street.

Mrs. W. W. Cluff has returned to

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Taylor and daughter have returned from a month's stay in southern California.

Bishop Spalding has returned from a month's stay in Colorado and will remain during Lent in Salt Lake.

Mrs. F. J. Dunn and Miss Edna Dunn, who have spent some time at Hot Springs, Ark., will enjoy the scenes of Mexico and later go to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Albritton of Kadiapell Mont., who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Bonemont, will spend the next two weeks with her sisters in Provo and Mammoth.

Mrs. Lucia Therman has returned from an extended trip including San Francisco and Honolulu, and is at home with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Whitney on east South Temple street.

Mrs. W. W. Cluff has returned to

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Taylor and daughter have returned from a month's stay in southern California.

Bishop Spalding has returned from a month's stay in Colorado and will remain during Lent in Salt Lake.

Mrs. F. J. Dunn and Miss Edna Dunn, who have spent some time at Hot Springs, Ark., will enjoy the scenes of Mexico and later go to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Albritton of Kadiapell Mont., who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Bonemont, will spend the next two weeks with her sisters in Provo and Mammoth.

Mrs. Lucia Therman has returned from an extended trip including San Francisco and Honolulu, and is at home with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Whitney on east South Temple street.

Mrs. W. W. Cluff has returned to

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the engagement of their daughter Fern to Le Grand Young, Jr., the wedding to take place early in June.

On Monday, March 1, Miss Elizabeth Glendinning and Marion R. Cunningham were married.

The engagement of Miss Genevieve Clark and Andrew Morton Howat is announced, the wedding to take place on Monday, March 15, at Oakland, Cal., and the young couple afterward to make their home at Mammoth, Cal. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of the late John Clark, and the groom a son of Judge Howat and both were formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott of Armidale, Mont., announce the