LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

OBITUARY.—We have to-day to record the demise of Bro. Wm. I. Appleby, long and favorably known to many of our readers. He died on Friday, at 3 o'clock p.m., after an illness of three weeks. He suffered from a combination of diseases and had been in bed for several days.

Wm. I. Appleby was the son of Jacob and Mary Appleby, and was born August 18th, 1811, near the village of New Egypt, Monmouth Co., New Jersey. He was a self-taught man, never having attended school after he was nine years of age; but by energy and perseverance he acquired a sound English education. He learned the carpenter and mill-wright business when a young man, and continued to work in that line until 1838, when he was appointed justice of the peace and associate judge for the county of Burlington, N. J. He also kept a sawmill, and taught school for some years. He held the office of clerk for the township of Chesterfield, N. J., six or seven years, when he voluntarily resigned it. In 1840 he first heard the gospel preached, and was baptized by Elder Erasmus Snow, in September of the same year. Immediately afterwards, he commenced preaching in the evening, in the house in which he taught his day school, and with such success, that in a few weeks, as the result of his labors, he baptized twenty-six persons. In April, 1841, he visited New York for the first time to see the Prophet; and from that time until he came to this territory, he traveled and preached in different parts of the Union with great success. He reached this valley in October, 1849, and was soon afterwards elected a member of the First Legislative Assembly of the State of Deseret, as also one of the Regents of the Deseret University. In the spring of 1855 he started on a mission to the Eastern States and labored there upwards of two years, part of the time assisting Elder John Taylor in editing the Mormon. He held the office of Clerk of the United States Supreme Court in this Territory, ever since its first session until Clerk of the District Court. His death, though not entirely unexpected, is a sad blow to his family, with whom we deeply sympathize. His funeral took place yesterday, at eleven o'clock a. m., from the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, and was largely attended, many of our most prominent citizens being present. The assembly was addressed by Elder Orson Pratt, who delivered a very excellent discourse upon the merit and resurrection.

PARTICULARS OF THE RECENT MURDER AT FAIRVIEW.—We are under obligation to H. W. Sanderson, Esq., Coroner of Fairview, for the following particulars of the murder at that place on Friday evening last. The report was received by Deseret Telegraph Line:

FAIRVIEW, May 23.
Editor Evening News.—The particulars of the recent murder of the Indian girl, as developed by the inquiry and the diligent search of the best detectives, are as follows: An Indian girl, about 17 years old, who has been living in the family of Woodard of this place, the last five or six years, did her milking, and having brought in the milk just about dark, she went out into the corral, and it is supposed to have met some person there who murdered her, as she was found in the corral with her throat cut apparently with a small pocket knife, done at two slashes, going to the bone each time. Every exertion, up to the present, has failed in discovering anything that would be sufficient evidence to lead to the discovery of the perpetrator of the deed, or the cause for committing the same. An Indian had been seen in the vicinity that day, but he went away towards Thistle Valley about 3 p. m., but as the Indians have been known to threaten her benefactor, because she would not go with them, it is supposed they have committed the deed. Her person had not been violated. This report is as ascertained and developed at the inquest.

H. W. SANDERSON, Coroner.
A dispatch from President O. Hyde, dated Spring City, 23d, in addition to the above particulars, says, the murdered girl was sister to Indian "Joe's" first wife. "Joe" will be at Fairview in four or five days. I know of no white desperado in Fairview who would be at all likely to commit such an act, though they arrested one white man, but had to let him go for want of evidence. It done by Indians, of which I entertain no doubts, jealousy might have been the cause, or they may wish to have a pretext for war. The Indians who came in from the reservation to Gunnison and Twelve Mile Creek, appear to be very friendly. I met them in Mantle. How far their friendship may be relied upon, time will tell.

EARLY PRICES.—We were shown this morning by Bro. Mark Lindsay, a sample of early peas, raised by him in the 20th Ward, which rather surpasses any we have yet seen. They are of the "Early Caracacus" variety, were planted just seven weeks ago, are well filled and of a fine flavor.

EXCURSION PARTY.—The 14th Ward Sunday School took the train for Ogden this morning on a pleasure excursion. The faces of the children looked bright and happy in anticipation of the pleasure they were going to enjoy. We are in need of some place near by where such a party can go for a day's enjoyment without being exposed all day to the searching rays of the sun.

RETURNED.—We were pleased to see Elder Albert Merrill, sen., who, accompanied by his son, Albert, Jr., arrived last week from his mission to the east. Bro. Merrill, sen., has suffered from an old affection of the lungs during his absence. Elder J. H. Barlow has also returned, looking well. These Elders express their joy at reaching home, there's no place like it.

SHOULD BE REMOVED.—An accumulation of dead grasshoppers is strewn along the sidewalk, by the wall which runs eastward from the Eagle Gate on South Temple street. The stench which arises from the carcasses of the defunct insects is becoming very powerful, and persons passing sensitive olfactory nerves find it necessary to cross to the other side of the street in order to escape the noxious effluvia. A quantity of straw strewn along the sidewalk and set fire to would probably remove the nuisance. This is a matter worthy the attention of the sanitary officers.

DISTRICT COURT—THOMAS KNAPP CONDEMNED TO DEATH.—Last Friday and Saturday the Court was wholly occupied with the trial of Thomas Knapp and Morgan Day, indicted by the Grand Jury for the murder of Susan Jones, a colored woman living at Ogden, on the 29th of April last, of the particulars of which our readers have been already informed. At the request of counsel the prisoners received a special trial. Knapp, the younger, being tried first. He made a partial confession of the deed.

As the prisoner had no friends nor means to procure counsel, His Honor Judge Wilson appointed Messrs. Robertson and Maxwell to conduct their defense, and the jury, after an impartial trial, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.

On Saturday Morgan Day, who, by the confession of Knapp, made at Ogden, was the one who actually did the deed, was tried, but the evidence given was not strong enough to satisfy the jury that he was guilty, and after retiring to deliberate they returned a verdict of "Not Guilty," and the prisoner was released.

This morning the prisoner Knapp was arraigned before the Court, and after a few well-timed remarks by His Honor, he was granted his choice of one of three deaths, which the statute provides for condemned criminals. After choosing to be shot, the Court pronounced the following verdict:

"It is ordered and adjudged by the Court that you, Thomas Knapp, having been convicted by a jury of the crime of murder, be taken hence by the Marshal of the Territory to some safe and secure place, and there kept in solitary confinement until Friday, the 17th day of June next; and on that day, between the hours of nine a. m. and four p. m., you be taken by the Marshal to some suitable place, and there executed by being shot until you are dead; and may God have mercy on your soul."

More than ordinary interest was manifested during the trials from the fact that nearly all the evidence was circumstantial.

SUBJECT.—Miss Betsy Hancock, daughter of Bro. G. W. Hancock, of Payson, aged nineteen years, took a violent cold two years ago from attending a party, and was given such medicine as to drive the cold from her body into her foot, from pain in which she has suffered severely ever since. From ignorance of the nature of her disease she has doctored for erysipelas and various other complaints. Last week she was brought to this city, when it was found necessary to have the limb amputated above the ankle joint. The operation was performed on Friday by Dr. Anderson, assisted by Drs. Richards and Bernhisel. She is at present doing well.

NOT DEAD.—It has been reported in this city that the gentleman from Montana, who was wounded in the capture of the desperado, at Grantsville, had died from the effects of his wounds. We are informed by a person just in from Tooele, that instead of being dead, he is so far recovered as to be able to get around and attend to his business.
