

One of the most delightful affairs given in honor of Mrs. J. C. E. King this week was the breakfast at the Alta club on Thursday of which Mrs. A. J. Hooper was hostess. The table was laid in the gold room and had for a centerpiece a cut glass filled with pink chrysanthemums and white roses. The place cards were at each place. The place cards bore the monogram of the guest of honor and covers were laid for Mrs. King, Mrs. Morris L. Ritchie, Mrs. Charles L. Hood, Mrs. O. H. Kister, Mrs. W. R. Wightman, Mrs. C. E. Richards, Mrs. Adolph T. Vollmer and Mrs. John Cain.

Mrs. Lillian M. Bailey will give a luncheon Wednesday, Nov. 6, for Mrs. Karl A. Scheid.

Mrs. Orson Howard was hostess at a pleasant afternoon affair yesterday and a similar one today.

One of the delightful events of yesterday was the banquet given for Karl Scheid by St. Mark's club at the guild rooms.

Miss Lena Hagre entertained members of the college club at her home on Thursday night in honor of Mrs. J. C. E. King, the room being decorated in pink and white carnations and a delightful evening spent.

Miss Gladys McCannish and a number of her girl friends will give a Halloween dancing party at the McCannish home on East Second South street.

About 60 guests were entertained by Mrs. Morris Ritchie on Tuesday in honor of her guest, Mrs. King, the room being beautifully decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and nasturtiums, and lighted with yellow shaded candles. Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. Russell Lord Tracy, Mrs. Lillian M. Bailey, Miss Lillian Ritchie, Miss Emma Zehn and Mrs. Francis Ferguson. Little Isabelle Bacon received the guests at the door.

Another pretty affair of Tuesday was the luncheon given by the Misses Amy and Isabel Osburn in honor of Miss Le Compt and Miss Colburn, who were former classmates at Rowland hall, the decorations being in the school colors, crimson and white. A bowl of red roses formed the centerpiece and from the streamers of red and white ribbons were drawn to each place, while streamers of the ribbons were also used on the chandeliers, extending to the four corners. About a dozen were present.

Mrs. John A. Earls has issued invitations for a bridge affair on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 29, at her home on Fourth East street.

One of the largest card parties of the week was that given by Mrs. F. J. McGurney on Wednesday, about 100 being entertained. The room was decorated with a profusion of fall flowers, asters, chrysanthemums and ferns, and the tables were hand painted in violets. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. J. Cook, Miss Irma Rivers and Miss Margaret Mulver.

Mrs. J. B. Brique entertained at cards on Thursday.

Mrs. A. J. Davis entertained the Century Club on Thursday, the prize for the afternoon going to Mrs. M. Allison, Jr.

Mrs. Levin Evans entertained the Bridge club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Knox has issued invitations for a bridge party, to be given next Thursday afternoon at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McLeod and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peck have issued unique invitations for a Halloween party, to be given in their apartments at the Miller flats Thursday evening, Oct. 31.

Mrs. Karl Scheid was guest of honor at a bridge party on Tuesday given by Misses Adeline and J. E. Stearns, about five tables being played. Prizes were awarded the winners at each table and the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. J. H. Walker and Mrs. D. M. Lindsay.

Invitations have been issued for a Halloween party to be given by the G. T. H. girls.

Among the many pleasant affairs given for Mrs. J. C. E. King this week was the dinner at Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings, who entertained about a half dozen guests at dinner on Monday night. The table was decorated in yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. M. T. Bailey gave an informal card party on Monday afternoon, the room being decorated with autumn flowers, and four tables being played.

Miss Vera Cutler has issued invitations for a Halloween party, to be given at her home.

Mrs. C. D. Rookledge entertained the Monday Afternoon Card club.

Mr. O. S. Martin was host at a theater party on Thursday night, his guests including Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson and Miss Mina Houston.

Mrs. J. C. King was guest of honor at Mrs. Charles Reed's house on Thursday.

A Skin of Beauty Is a Joy Forever

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S Oriental Cream OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

GIVES A FASCINATING AND REFINED COMPLEXION. It is the duty of every woman to preserve her beauty, and even the most beautiful must protect their complexion. A flawless complexion, sweet, pure, and wholesome is something every woman desires and which can be readily obtained by using GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM. This well known preparation has been highly recommended by physicians, actresses, singers, and women of fashion for over half a century. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet, leaving it clear, glowing, and free from all blemishes. GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM cures skin diseases, relieves irritation, soothes and invigorates the skin, beautifies and improves the complexion and cannot be surpassed when preparing for evening attire.

FOR SALE BY DRUGGISTS AND FANCY GOODS DEALERS. FERD. T. HOPKINS, Proprietor, 37 Great Jones Street, New York

Woodard left later for their future home in St. Anthony, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Maynes announce the engagement of their daughter, Edythe L., to M. Y. Wilson of Chicago, the marriage to take place Nov. 27.

Mrs. E. M. Buckingham and daughter, Mrs. Wayne G. Hemphill, are visiting in Omaha with Mrs. Lynn Kemper.

Mrs. O. S. Gaylor left Monday for Sierra Madre to visit her niece, Mrs. C. H. Bohre.

Mrs. Purviance has returned after a stay of some time in the east, and is again at home at Fort Douglas.

Mrs. O. W. Powers will go east with Judge Powers for a stay of some weeks.

Mrs. Benney K. Smith and her mother, Mrs. James A. Minor, will shortly be home from an eastern visit of some weeks.

Mrs. W. A. Rhodes has gone on a visit to her home at Crawford county, Ill.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Ewing are now settled in their new home at 244 east Brigham.

Mrs. Alex Colbath will leave shortly for a visit in California.

MIXED IN POLITICS; MATRIMONY TO FOLLOW.

The forthcoming marriage of John S. Whalen, secretary of state of New York, and Miss Grace E. Stachan, of Brooklyn, president of the Interborough School Teachers' association, is a romance of the lobby at Albany.

Miss Stachan went to the capital to lobby for the equal pay bill for men and women teachers. There she came into frequent contact with Percy Whalen and asked him to throw the weight of his influence for the bill. He took the stand that equal pay for both sexes doing similar work was a fair proposition and did his best to put through the bill.

It is understood that the cards for the marriage are to be sent out at an early date.

Miss Lillian Hanning, has returned after a pleasant visit to the large cities in Europe.

Mrs. Thomas Carter will be here from Long Beach shortly to visit Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Grafflin.

Mrs. L. L. Downing has gone to Waterloo, Ia., to spend some time with friends.

Mrs. Will Rositter and her son, Mr. Russell Rositter, left on Wednesday for Long Beach, Cal., for a two weeks' stay.

The Undine club girls met with Misses Beth and Lisle Bradford Thursday evening. General topics were discussed, after which light refreshments were served. The club will meet next week with Miss Laura Parry.

Next Saturday the annual Wells family reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rulon S. Wells and a novel program will be among the features, including tableaux, drills, music and recitations to be given by the members of the family.

Mrs. Stanley H. Clawson entertained the "Secret Police" club at luncheon yesterday.

An interesting event of the week was the marriage of Miss Claire Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Young and Joseph Howell, son of Congressman Howell, which took place on Wednesday. The ceremony being performed by Pres. Joseph F. Smith and an informal reception following during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Young left in the evening for Washington, where they will spend the winter.

A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Marion Wingate and Thomas H. Woodard, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. J. Goshen. Miss Ada Kinney acting as bridesmaid, and Mr. De Pass as best man. The room was bright with fall flowers and a large number were present. Mr. and Mrs. Woodard left later for their future home in St. Anthony, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Maynes announce the engagement of their daughter, Edythe L., to M. Y. Wilson of Chicago, the marriage to take place Nov. 27.

Mrs. E. M. Buckingham and daughter, Mrs. Wayne G. Hemphill, are visiting in Omaha with Mrs. Lynn Kemper.

Mrs. O. S. Gaylor left Monday for Sierra Madre to visit her niece, Mrs. C. H. Bohre.

Mrs. Purviance has returned after a stay of some time in the east, and is again at home at Fort Douglas.

Mrs. O. W. Powers will go east with Judge Powers for a stay of some weeks.

Mrs. Benney K. Smith and her mother, Mrs. James A. Minor, will shortly be home from an eastern visit of some weeks.

Mrs. W. A. Rhodes has gone on a visit to her home at Crawford county, Ill.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Ewing are now settled in their new home at 244 east Brigham.

Mrs. Alex Colbath will leave shortly for a visit in California.

Mrs. Lillian Hanning, has returned after a pleasant visit to the large cities in Europe.

Mrs. Thomas Carter will be here from Long Beach shortly to visit Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Grafflin.

Mrs. L. L. Downing has gone to Waterloo, Ia., to spend some time with friends.

Mrs. Will Rositter and her son, Mr. Russell Rositter, left on Wednesday for Long Beach, Cal., for a two weeks' stay.

home in Naphi, after a visit with Mrs. Whitbeck in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Bonhold returned from Los Angeles, where they have been spending some time with Mrs. Bonhold's parents.

Miss Florence Huhn of Des Moines, Ia., is the guest for a few days of Miss Mabel Corbin at Rowland Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Porter, who have spent the summer in the city, leave Sunday for Denver, and later will go farther east.

Mrs. Ella McDowell Leonard of Denver is spending a few days at the Colton and visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Mrs. N. M. Hamilton has gone to New York to be absent several weeks.

Mrs. Benney K. Smith and mother, Mrs. J. A. Minor, will arrive in Salt Lake during the week, after an extended visit in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sands are now at home, No. 6, the Bradfords.

Mrs. Edwin McArthur is entertaining Mrs. Trumbo from San Francisco.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns and children are expected home Sunday from California. They will be at home here for the winter.

Mrs. Porter Sinclair is here, after spending some time at St. Anthony, Ida., with her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Levitt left this week for the east, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Emanuel Kahn and sister, Miss Cohen, have gone to New York for a brief visit.

Mrs. Mary A. Cope and Miss Beatrice Cope, who have been visiting with the former's daughter, Mrs. A. N. McKay and family, returned several months ago, this week for their home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. B. Skelton has returned to her home in Red Wing, Minn., after a pleasant visit with Salt Lake relatives.

Rabbi and Mrs. C. J. Freund are at home at 324 east Second South street.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Weil.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe M. Breeden are back after an eastern trip lasting some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mine of Union. Covers were laid for 15. A sumptuous dinner and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jacob Evans was hostess at a Kensington at her home Thursday afternoon, the room being prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Cards, music and a social time in general was enjoyed by all.

The Social Sixty gave their opening ball Wednesday evening and marked one of the social events of the season. About 50 couples passed a delightful evening in dancing and social chat. Punch was served, the hall was most attractively decorated with crepe paper, pink and white being the colors used.

Mrs. W. E. Rydahl is spending a few days with friends in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roylance delightfully entertained the members of the Kia Ora club at their home Friday evening. The evening passed merrily in games, music and refreshment. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mine of Union. Covers were laid for 15. A sumptuous dinner and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jacob Evans was hostess at a Kensington at her home Thursday afternoon, the room being prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Cards, music and a social time in general was enjoyed by all.

The senior class of the Ogden high school gave a delightful dancing party last evening at the Congress dancing academy, which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of young people. The hall was lastingly decorated with the school colors.

The management of the Auditorium skating rink has arranged for a racing carnival during next week, which promises to furnish much pleasure and arouse interest.

At the last meeting of the Men's league, Judge Howell delivered a lecture on the present jury system.

Miss O. A. Bullough and Stanford Niles, two of Ogden's popular young people, were wedded this week.

J. B. Terms of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week in Ogden visiting with his brother Ben Terms, whom he had not seen for 25 years.

Miss Almada Carter of Marysville, Ida., was married this week to Joseph Jones of Hooper, Weber county.

Chief Clerk H. P. Cryst, to the superintendent of the Nevada Northern spent week in Ogden visiting with his family.

W. E. Moore, wife and daughter have returned home from an extended trip to Vermont and other eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Davidson and children have gone to California to spend a month's vacation.

The engagement of Miss Juanita Wright to Mr. Gus Thorne, the marriage to take place in the near future, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dright.

The Child Culture club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Stanley Dee. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Lillian Holmes has returned home from a pleasant visit with friends at Sacramento.

OUR PRE-EMINENCE. Is no accident. For many years the name "Mehsey" has stood at the top among fur manufacturers, each year making our position more secure. We stand for integrity in furs. Mehsey the Furrier, Knutsford hotel.

PROVO. One of the very pleasing events of the week was the social given in the Fifth ward by the stake officers of the Relief society. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and sweet music, games, and a neat little feast were enjoyed by a large number of ladies. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Nineteenth Century club were entertained at Nunn in Provo canyon Friday afternoon. About 100 guests enjoyed a day of feasting and pleasure. The train was on the Heber train in the morning, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. Anderson of Denver is visiting in this city as the guest of Mrs. D. H. Plasted at the Hotel Roberts.

Mr. Sam Schwab has returned after a couple of months' visit in the east. He was accompanied by Mr. Nelson who is very much pleased with the west and is looking around with a view of locating in Utah.

A very enjoyable party was given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Ashworth in honor of Mr. Frank Bennett, who is about to leave for Europe. About 20 young people made the hour pleasant in games and music. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dugdale celebrated their forty-fourth wedding anniversary at their home Sunday afternoon, and a large number of relatives and friends participated in a very pleasant social afternoon. A sumptuous dinner was served.

Postmaster Ross of Lehi was the guest of Postmaster and Mrs. Clave Monday.

Miss Sadie Graham, formerly president of the Sixth ward Y. L. M. J. A., entertained her co-workers of both the young men's and young ladies' associations at her home Monday evening. A pleasant social evening was passed.

Mrs. O. W. Bailey entertained at her home Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Mine of Union. An elaborate dinner was served and a delightful social time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. W. E. Stoker accompanied her mother Mrs. Rowe, to her home in Spanish Fork Monday and will spend the week with relatives and friends there.

Mrs. E. E. Corfman was the delightful hostess at a children's party at her home Monday afternoon in honor of her little daughter's birthday anniversary. A merry time was enjoyed and an elaborate lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving M. Warren announce the engagement of their daughter, Helena, to Mr. Henry Geuse. The marriage to take place in December.

Mrs. H. S. Pyne was the hostess at a delightful Kensington at her home Thursday afternoon, the guest of honor being Mrs. Hannah Arrow-smith, mother of the hostess. About 30 lady friends enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon. Sweet singing and a dainty lunch also tended to the enjoyment of the party.

Gov. Cutler, Postmaster Clave and Brigham Madison were the guests of Sheriff Jessie M. Harmon on a deer hunt. The party left Thursday for the mountains and expect to be away about a week.

Mrs. Lydia Holdaway was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party given in her honor at her home Saturday evening, the event being the day's birth anniversary. Games, cards and a social time in general was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mine of Union. Covers were laid for 15. A sumptuous dinner and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jacob Evans was hostess at a Kensington at her home Thursday afternoon, the room being prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Cards, music and a social time in general was enjoyed by all.

The Social Sixty gave their opening ball Wednesday evening and marked one of the social events of the season. About 50 couples passed a delightful evening in dancing and social chat. Punch was served, the hall was most attractively decorated with crepe paper, pink and white being the colors used.

Mrs. W. E. Rydahl is spending a few days with friends in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roylance delightfully entertained the members of the Kia Ora club at their home Friday evening. The evening passed merrily in games, music and refreshment. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mine of Union. Covers were laid for 15. A sumptuous dinner and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jacob Evans was hostess at a Kensington at her home Thursday afternoon, the room being prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Cards, music and a social time in general was enjoyed by all.

The senior class of the Ogden high school gave a delightful dancing party last evening at the Congress dancing academy, which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of young people. The hall was lastingly decorated with the school colors.

The management of the Auditorium skating rink has arranged for a racing carnival during next week, which promises to furnish much pleasure and arouse interest.

At the last meeting of the Men's league, Judge Howell delivered a lecture on the present jury system.

Miss O. A. Bullough and Stanford Niles, two of Ogden's popular young people, were wedded this week.

J. B. Terms of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week in Ogden visiting with his brother Ben Terms, whom he had not seen for 25 years.

Miss Almada Carter of Marysville, Ida., was married this week to Joseph Jones of Hooper, Weber county.

Chief Clerk H. P. Cryst, to the superintendent of the Nevada Northern spent week in Ogden visiting with his family.

W. E. Moore, wife and daughter have returned home from an extended trip to Vermont and other eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Davidson and children have gone to California to spend a month's vacation.

The engagement of Miss Juanita Wright to Mr. Gus Thorne, the marriage to take place in the near future, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dright.

The Child Culture club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Stanley Dee. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Lillian Holmes has returned home from a pleasant visit with friends at Sacramento.

OUR PRE-EMINENCE. Is no accident. For many years the name "Mehsey" has stood at the top among fur manufacturers, each year making our position more secure. We stand for integrity in furs. Mehsey the Furrier, Knutsford hotel.

PROVO. One of the very pleasing events of the week was the social given in the Fifth ward by the stake officers of the Relief society. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and sweet music, games, and a neat little feast were enjoyed by a large number of ladies. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Nineteenth Century club were entertained at Nunn in Provo canyon Friday afternoon. About 100 guests enjoyed a day of feasting and pleasure. The train was on the Heber train in the morning, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. Anderson of Denver is visiting in this city as the guest of Mrs. D. H. Plasted at the Hotel Roberts.

Mr. Sam Schwab has returned after a couple of months' visit in the east. He was accompanied by Mr. Nelson who is very much pleased with the west and is looking around with a view of locating in Utah.

A very enjoyable party was given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Ashworth in honor of Mr. Frank Bennett, who is about to leave for Europe. About 20 young people made the hour pleasant in games and music. A dainty lunch was served.

THAT FASHIONABLE MARABOUT SCARE.

home of Mrs. Rexell on Monday afternoon, a splendid paper on Scotch was read by Miss Huntsman, and Miss Jacobson sang several Scotch ballads which were greatly enjoyed.

The Daughters of the Pioneer held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joseph E. Cardon. After a most interesting paper on the life of Mrs. Zina D. H. Young by Mrs. Ray West, luncheon was served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. E. W. Robinson.

The Beona society of the B. Y. C. met on Wednesday afternoon and listened to the following interesting program: Talk, Miss Laura Nebeker; reading from Whitcomb Riley, Miss Hill; song, Miss Lydia Fommesbeck; humorous paper, Miss McCarty.

Mr. Orson Smith has gone to Nevada. On Tuesday a farewell party was held in the sixth ward for Elders Schandy and Sorenson, who leave shortly for a foreign mission.

Congressman and Mrs. Howell are spending several days in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roylance delightfully entertained the members of the Kia Ora club at their home Friday evening. The evening passed merrily in games, music and refreshment. A dainty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Mine of Union. Covers were laid for 15. A sumptuous dinner and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jacob Evans was hostess at a Kensington at her home Thursday afternoon, the room being prettily decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Cards, music and a social time in general was enjoyed by all.

The senior class of the Ogden high school gave a delightful dancing party last evening at the Congress dancing academy, which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of young people. The hall was lastingly decorated with the school colors.

The management of the Auditorium skating rink has arranged for a racing carnival during next week, which promises to furnish much pleasure and arouse interest.

At the last meeting of the Men's league, Judge Howell delivered a lecture on the present jury system.

Miss O. A. Bullough and Stanford Niles, two of Ogden's popular young people, were wedded this week.

J. B. Terms of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week in Ogden visiting with his brother Ben Terms, whom he had not seen for 25 years.

Miss Almada Carter of Marysville, Ida., was married this week to Joseph Jones of Hooper, Weber county.

Chief Clerk H. P. Cryst, to the superintendent of the Nevada Northern spent week in Ogden visiting with his family.

W. E. Moore, wife and daughter have returned home from an extended trip to Vermont and other eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Davidson and children have gone to California to spend a month's vacation.

The engagement of Miss Juanita Wright to Mr. Gus Thorne, the marriage to take place in the near future, has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dright.

The Child Culture club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Stanley Dee. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Lillian Holmes has returned home from a pleasant visit with friends at Sacramento.

OUR PRE-EMINENCE. Is no accident. For many years the name "Mehsey" has stood at the top among fur manufacturers, each year making our position more secure. We stand for integrity in furs. Mehsey the Furrier, Knutsford hotel.

PROVO. One of the very pleasing events of the week was the social given in the Fifth ward by the stake officers of the Relief society. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion, and sweet music, games, and a neat little feast were enjoyed by a large number of ladies. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Nineteenth Century club were entertained at Nunn in Provo canyon Friday afternoon. About 100 guests enjoyed a day of feasting and pleasure. The train was on the Heber train in the morning, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. Anderson of Denver is visiting in this city as the guest of Mrs. D. H. Plasted at the Hotel Roberts.