badgered by our housekeepers, neglected by our landladies and cheated by both. We are living in chambers, worse in lodging, and our living is not economical. The dingy room unwept and ill-garnished is but a miserable kind of home, as we sorrowfully confess to our own souls, if we are afraid to carry the secret further. So we live on in growing discontent, hating much what we have, but dreading more what we have not. Meanwhile the country swarms with unmarried women, and sociologists shake their heads at the phenomena, and account for it on every plea but the true one. Of course we do not deny the actual redundancy of women in England. But we do say positively that more girls are unmarried there than in this country, and that men are vowed to celibacy and but less discomfort because women have lost the trick of loving as they used to love; because they have abjured the old virtues of patience, modesty, tenderness, self-sacrifice, home-making, home blessing, old characteristics of them, and have become cold and hard and worldly and self-assertive. Instead, because they have ceased to be women, and are now only human beings, consequently have ceased to charm men; before time.—E.E.

SPECIAL TO THE DESERET NEWS.

By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

CHICAGO, 17.—The Tribune's New York special says Berlin advises representative that city to be in a deplorable condition, owing to the lack of dwellings in the city for the increased number of inhabitants. While whole districts in Germany are nearly being depopulated by emigration to the United States, an exodus far surpassing anything heretofore known in Ireland, in the city of Berlin the reverse is the case. The large, open space known as "Butcher's Meadow," is said to present an extraordinary spectacle. Hundreds of homeless families have betaken themselves to this spot, where under cover of improvised houses, made of planks rudely put together, sheets of drawn canvas and other articles of furniture, temporarily fastened together, they managed to eke out an existence during the hot weather.

NEW YORK, 17.—General Rochoa telegraphs from Monterey that Cabello has marched to the City of Mexico. Rochoa goes to receive the surrender of Treviño's forces. Pedro Martinez and his troops have been subdued. Garcia de la Cadena, who was killed during the fight, is reported to have been killed during the fight. In an editorial article upon the situation, the Diario says: "We are now in the middle of August and the indications are that a winter campaign against the insurgents will be necessary."

NEW YORK, 17.—The backers of Mace and O'Brien will meet on Monday to settle the place of fighting. Only a few will be allowed to witness the fight.

BOSTON, 17.—It is stated that at a meeting of Liberal Republicans and Democrats here to-day, it was resolved to ask Charles Francis Adams to become the candidate for Governor of Massachusetts. A telegram on the subject is said to have been dispatched to Geneva.

NASHVILLE, 17.—Andrew Johnson spoke here to-day, to about three thousand persons. His speech was mainly against the policy of placing military men in civil offices, and in favor of amnesty. Speaking of amnesty, he asks amnesty for himself. It is reported that he desires the nomination for Congressman for the State-at-large.

LOUISVILLE, 17.—Rev. Gilbert Robertson publishes a card in the "Courier-Journal," relative to his recent escape. It is rather incoherent, and says the lady in the case always occupied the very highest social position. He sent to meet her at her recent request, and from motives of pure kindness. He was drugged and did not know what he did afterwards. It seemed a frightful dream, and he had suffered terribly. When the Presbyterian meets on Tuesday next he will make a full confession and submit to its judgment.

MEMPHIS, 17.—Early this morning a fisherman discovered the steamer "Helen Brooks," floating down near the city. The steamer was about here, apparently abandoned. Rowing out to her, he made a lunge fast to his skiff, and started her to land. Before landing, however, he discovered a negro sitting asleep on the lower deck. With a shot gun in his lap. When the boat struck the bank, the negro started up, jumped ashore and ran into the woods. The fisherman on boarding the boat found traces of severe illness. He came to this city and reported what he had done and seen. Subsequently the Grand Tower, from St. Louis, arrived, and officers brought the boat and the man to this city. The boat had been abandoned at the place where it was discovered. The report is that Captain Wm. Pratt and his brother, two of the proprietors of the trading boat, and their lives and property were lost. They were murdered and thrown into the river.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 17.—The Catlin diamond and mineral exploring company, capital $1,000,000, to operate in Arizona and New Mexico, was incorporated to-day and several similar companies are forming, to be incorporated.

The consolidated Antrim mining company has levied an assessment of five dollars.

The servant girl, Catharine McDonald, who stabbed Geo. Hall in the neck and face, and cut and bit his sister in the jaw, last night, is supposed to be insane. Hall is reported out of danger.

ORFANA, Nev., 17.—This p.m. Mr. J. S. Kohn brought in some fine black and white sulphurets, taken from the Blomack mine, 17 miles southeast. The rock assays three hundred dollars to the ton, in silver, and about sixty per cent lead. The character of the ore is the same as the celebrated ore of Unionville.

ORFANA, Nev., 17.—Jack Morrison and Jas. Clem, two men supposed to be connected with the Sanville stage robbery, near Reno, yesterday, were arrested in this city to-day.

A Greeley and Brown ratification meeting is being held in front of the International Hotel this eve. Hon. H. M. Pixley is addressing the audience.

SAN FRANCISCO, 18.—The same month list of San Francisco, as it now stands, after reductions made by the Board of Equalization, including savings banks deposits, foots up two hundred and ten millions, against which there will be several millions on which the tax can be collected for various causes, which being deducted leaves an amount upon which the city will lay taxes of about 200 millions.

There is considerable excitement in stock circles concerning Eastern Nevada stock. It is reported that the development of a new body of rich ore in Meadow Valley sent that stock to 250 on the street last evening, and increased the production of Ely, sending that stock steadily upward. It is expected to touch 300 within a week.

The stock of the Mountain View Mining Co., Eureka district, which covers several well developed mines, is being subscribed for, and quite a feeling exists that it will be issued to-morrow on the market quite freely.

A Swede, second cook to the steamer Adamas, who has been here only a few days, dropped dead to-day.

Henry Shear has been arrested for passing counterfeit coin. There is a man representing San Francisco on the street, and four others waiting trial for the trick, but they continue coming.

Most vessels which have gone to sea within this month have been short handed.

The Chinese are having a general festival to-day to close up the annual feast of the dead, which has been going on the past week. The temple erected by Li Po Tai on Dupont Street is gorgeously decorated and filled with grotesque statues, some of which are eighteen feet in height. It is thronged with visitors, while as well as mongolian.

VISALIA, 18.—About 5 o'clock this morning, John Miller, a sheep-herder, aged 40, a native of Roseland, was found on the sidewalk of Main street in a dying condition. He was picked up and cared for, but died in a few minutes after being found, without revealing any consciousness. The post mortem examination revealed two ribs broken, a severe contusion on the head, a broken hand and several bruises on other parts of the body, besides internal injuries, which were necessarily fatal. He appears to have been beaten to death with clubs. When found he had been robbed of watch and money, and almost stripped of his clothing, even his shirt having been taken off. No definite clue has been found to the murderers. The coroner's jury adjourned till Monday to examine a witness. At daylight, this morning, an officer, in coming into town, found about four miles from here, a horse saddled, lying dead, with a pistol shot through its head. No solution is given of the mystery.

WEST INDIES.

HAVANA, 17.—The Spanish resume operations in the departments for the past two weeks states that 114 men and 500 Spaniards have been killed during that time. In an editorial article upon the situation, the Diario says: "We are now in the middle of August and the indications are that a winter campaign against the insurgents will be necessary."
