A FIXED FACT.

THE Utah Eastern movement, particularly of which weeks ago, has become quite popular and now forms a common topic of conversation. It is no paper scheme or wild-cat speculation. It is a reality. It is a solid basis and the superstructure is being reared steadily and securely. The men who are at the bottom of the movement are responsible, energetic and able, and the plan devised to secure the control of the concern to the people, as against any corporation or monopoly, is efficient and simple.

We have already shown how the majority of the stock is to be held in trust for shareholders by a committee, so that it cannot be controlled by other parties. The shares are placed at $100 each, but are at present on sale at $50, and can be paid for in ten dollar monthly installments. Out of the total capital stock of $700,000, shares to the amount of $100,000 will be sold, subject to the control of the trustees according to the conditions of their office for fifteen years. Those who purchase such stock can sell it again, but it will continue subject to the trustees' control. The remaining $600,000 will be at the disposal of the U. E. Company. The trustees are Bishop L. W. Hardy, Col. J. B. Winder and Fred H. Auerbach, Esq., gentlemen well known and respected and trusted in the community.

Work has commenced. Contracts are being let, much of the grading and right of way having been secured for stock in the road. Sixty thousand feet have been excavated and general interest has been excited in the enterprise, all the way from Salt Lake City to Conville. There is no longer any doubt about the project as a fixed fact. It will go on. The road will be built, the rolling stock will be obtained and coal will come down from Summit, to Salt Lake by narrow gauge and be sold at living rates.

The great question, will it pay? is answered in the certain reduction of the price of fuel in this city. If the people build and own the road, no matter whether a ton of coal is freighted upon it or not, so long as coal is sold in Salt Lake City for $1 or less per ton, the people will gain largely by the investment. If the Utah Eastern is patronized it will pay fair dividends, and if the Union Pacific tries to kill it by putting down coal at a lower price than that at which the new gauge can be afforded to deliver it, the people will be largely the gainers and will thus gain a good return on the amount invested in the new road. The people want cheap coal and they can get it if they build and own the Utah Eastern. And it certainly looks now as though they had made up their minds to do it. Go on and prosper.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

AMERICAN.

Illinois Grant Men.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., 19.—A caucus was held last night of the Grant delegates and 55 counties responded to the call. A dispatch from E. B. Washburne requesting his friends to support Grant was read.

Illinois Republican Convention.

The Republican State convention was called to order at noon by A. M. Jones, and Greene B. Raum was unanimously chosen chairman. Thousands of people are in the city unable to gain admission to the hall, only 600 tickets being issued. Jones made a speech alluding to the glorious record of the republican party in Illinois.

The Congressional districts, except the first three, hold conventions during the forenoon to select members of the committee on credentials. In several districts delegates were also selected.

Bismarck Bought as a Correspondent.

NEW YORK, 19.—A cable dispatch received this morning announced that an American newspaper recently offered Prince Bismarck $100,000 yearly to write weekly articles for the journal in question. Bismarck was greatly amused at the offer but wrote a serious letter respectfully declining.

A Scheme for British Government.

The World's Washington correspondent telegraphs the amusing circumstance that a memorial is floating about the capital, signed by one Frances Vinton, which contemplates the annexation of Great Britain to the United States. The memorialist's theory is that all English speaking nations should be gathered under one government and he proposes to make England one state, its executive being hereditary, and its legislature consisting of one hereditary chamber and the other elected by the people. Ireland and Scotland are to be separate States, choosing their own executive and legislative states are to send representatives to the American congress.

Illinois' Alleged Irregularities.

The Times, which continues as hostile to Blaine as it possibly could be to Tilden has Washington correspondent telegraphs the fact that Blaine is implicated in the Texas Pacific land grant business, as told in the famous Georgia letter.

Gotham Weather.

The weather yesterday and last night was warm and cloudy. Several attempts at rain failed after a minute or two of trial. The country is fast drying up and the air is filled with the smoke of adjacent forest fires, as for two weeks past. Frequent rain continues in the churches. It is estimated that a copious rain would be worth a million dollars to farmers and market gardeners hereabout. The prospect for showmen seem good.

Several journals direct attention that this is the hundredth anniversary of the celebrated "Dark Day" of history.

Affairs with the Utes.

The Tribune's Washington says: General Adams, Indian Inspector, has arrived in Washington from the Ute reservation. The condition of affairs there as he reports, is peaceful, but so critical as to make it necessary for Congress to act promptly on the Ute bill. There are Adams says, a thousand wagons upon the borders of the Ute reservation, containing the household goods and effects of the Ute Indians, and the agricultural portions of the Indian lands, and the owners of them are awaiting the action of Congress.

The Past, Present and Future of Nevada.

At the meeting of the Bullion Club last evening C. L. Canfield, of Eureka, Nevada, read a paper on "The Past and Present of Eastern Nevada." Canfield first gave a sketch of the country as it was more than twenty years ago, before the touch of the magic railrover wand touched the arid, barren region into a scene of activity and excitement. He told how the town of Austin flourished until it had a population of 40,000, and subsequently it fell away to a few hundred—the impression having gone abroad that the soil was worked out, while in fact the agricultural portions of the Indian lands, and the owners of them are awaiting the action of Congress.

These orders which were used by its own workpeople in exchange for its own goods, and were vastly easier to handle than the goods themselves. Thus, a man working in the cloth department could much better get a pair of boots from the shoe department with an order for $10 than by carrying several yards of cloth in exchange, and so with all the different departments of the institution. Orders in various amounts from five cents up to ten dollars were issued, of which the annexed is a sample:

No. 1298. $5.00.
BRIGHAM CITY.
Mercantile and Manufacturing Association.

GOOD FOR FIVE DOLLARS.
Payable at our Retail Trade Price, in an assortment of House Manufactures.

N. B.—Good only to Stockholders and employees of Brigham City.
W. L. ALEXANDER, Secy.

The intent of the law was surely not to impose a tax on such due bills as these, issued simply for the convenience, among themselves, of a company of workpeople laboring to produce and manufacture what they need for home consumption. Its object, as may be clearly seen from the context, was to prevent the circulation of paper having the functions of money as a circulating medium, in place of notes issued under the authority of the Government.

These orders are not notes for circulation, and indeed are not commercial notes at all, because they are not redeemable in money, and therefore it appears to us that they are not false money. And it is not reasonable to think that Congress intended on the passage of this law for the protection of United States notes for circulation, to hamper and hinder and tax to death, institutions established for the promotion of co-operative industry. We consider that only by a strained and unnatural interpretation of the law can such a tax be imposed on the non-circulating, non-cashable due bills of our mercantile and manufacturing associations.

But this is a point of law which can only be determined in the courts of law. And as the Brigham City association is resolved to "test it to the utmost extent, we may expect the cause to go up until it reaches the Supreme Court of the United States, where we trust justice will be obtained at last.

which was almost a solid mass of silver. After the first rush a rapid decline set in and the property fell into the hands of English capitalists, and at present through their enterprise the probability is that good results will be immediately achieved. The Eureka District, the lecturer claimed, contains the biggest ore bodies in the world. It had come into existence without a "boom," and it had been worked by conservative progress. There was the Richmond Consolidated Mines ore, which at a moderate calculation would yield twenty-four millions of dollars, there had been taken from the Eureka mine, ore which if placed on a three acre lot would make a pile a hundred feet high, yet at the same time the mine had been offered for sale for $5,500 without finding a purchaser. Since then the district has yielded over $60,000,000 and no estimate could be formed of what it would yet return.

The Race Postponed.

Courtesy is indisposed and there is considerable anxiety. His friends and attendants, however, declare he will positively start. Referee May postponed the race till 6 p.m. at the request of Courtney's friends, some of whom contend it might sacrifice his life to start him in the race during the hottest part of the day. Hanlon is all right.

EXCITING INDIAN NEWS.

Settlers Fleeing for Their Lives.

SAN FRANCISCO, 19.—Dispatches from Tucson, A. T., says: A courier has arrived from old Camp Grant, 60 miles north of Tucson, who states that Eskerimela, who has been on San Carlos Indian, now at peace, has warned the whites on the San Pedro to leave for safety. A large band of Indians is in the neighborhood who have left the San Carlos on the war path. Nine prospectors are known to have been killed and a few more are reported killed. Settlers and prospectors have left the district and are coming to Tucson. George Stone, one who this morning left for the American Flag mine, located near San Pedro, returned. He reports that he met 17 wagons of settlers fleeing from San Pedro to Tucson, who confirmed the report of Indians being in this vicinity and of prospectors being killed. There are about 1,000 available troops in the territory, and most of them are near the line of New Mexico, fighting the hostiles there.
