EVENING NEWS.

Friday, . . Nov. 19, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Jordan Frozen.—We are informed by a gentleman who lives near the Jordan River, southwest of the city, that the stream is frozen over and that cattle cross from one side to the other on the ice.

Seriously Ill.—We regret to hear of the severe sickness of our esteemed fellow-townsman, Chas. Lambert, of the 7th Ward, who is suffering from pleurisy. We hope to hear of his speedy restoration to health.

Educational.—The Educational Association will hold its regular meeting this evening at half-past 7 o'clock, in the Council House. A full attendance is desired and cordially invited.

Disinterestedness.—An exchange says, "a physician desires us to warn the public against buying second-hand books, as disease is communicated through them." That physician must have an interest in a first-class book store.

Fighters Fined.—The trial of the two young men who yesterday engaged in a fight in Hollin's saloon, resulted in one of them being fined $25 and the other $15. The brother of the latter, who endeavored to separate the combatants, was discharged, it being proved that he took no part in the affair except as a mediator, during which he received a blow from his brother's opponent.

McAllister the Wizard.—All of next week, that is six nights and a matinee, the Theatre will be occupied by McAllister the prestidigitateur, in a series of his wonderful and mysterious entertainments. His reputation as a first class performer in this line, is of long standing and too well known to require extended comment. McAllister has been here before and everybody knows what to expect from him. See his "ad" and posters.

Birthday Festival.—A pleasant birthday party was held last evening at the residence of Brother Ford, in the 20th Ward, in honor of Miss Munka Sashay, a young lady from Russia, living with Mrs. Medhurst, of the 12th Ward. A large number of her friends, young and old, of various nationalities, assembled, partook of a fine feast, and made appropriate presents to the fair recipient. The party was ably presided over by Elder William Willes, and all passed off very happily, with music, dancing and singing to enliven and intersperse the more sober and substantial features of the entertainment.

Settlers Wanted.—Brother Robert Greenwood, of Egin, Oneida County, Idaho, writes under date of the 12th inst., in regard to matters in that little settlement started about a year ago. There are about 15 persons there now, and more good families are wanted. The valley of the Snake River, (from which stream they take water) has a climate about like Ogden Valley. There is a stretch of level bench land 15 miles long by five to six miles wide, and room to settle for a thousand families. Some of the land is to be irrigated by a ditch, yet unfinished, about three miles long. There is plenty of good timber at hand and all kinds of game. Good crops of corn, wheat, barley, oats, etc., were raised this year, and when the water facilities are improved, still better results will be obtained.

Hymen's Torch.—At 8 o'clock last evening, a wedding ceremony was pronounced at the residence of Mr. H. S. and Mrs. Helen Beatie, just south of the Continental Hotel, which effected the union of hands, whose hearts had long since been united, in the bonds of affection. The happy principals in the sacred contract were Mr. James K. Gillespie and Miss Kate Beatie, both of this city and well and favorably known in the community. The ceremony was performed by Mayor F. Little. A large circle of friends and acquaintances visited the scene during the evening, and the usual wealth of good wishes, coupled with appropriate gifts of a more temporal character, were showered upon the youthful pair who had just crossed the threshold of married life. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie have our hearty congratulations and sincerest hopes for their future joy and welfare.

Carter's Dissolving Views.—A good sized audience assembled at the 12th Ward Meeting House last evening, and were well entertained for a couple of hours, in witnessing the exhibition of dissolving views, presented by Mr. C. W. Carter the able photographer and showman of this city. The apparatus consisted of a camera placed in the centre of the hall below the stage, and a canvas screen fixed in the northeast corner of the apartment. Professor Carter stood near the camera and by means of a light made from the union of different gases, projected the views, one after another, upon the face of the screen. He has about 300 views of Utah and her notable characters, of which he exhibited a large number. Some of them were very good, others were not so successfully presented. This was due to the action of the light which was somewhat defective, but with a little more experience, Mr. Carter will be able to manipulate his apparatus more perfectly. Among the audience were Presidents John Taylor and Joseph F. Smith, and all present enjoyed the entertainment very much. Mr. Carter intends going through the Territory and then through the United States and to Europe. His exhibition, perfected, would doubtless attract much attention abroad, presenting as it does so many different places of local life and scenery, and with a course of good lectures based thereon, would be an effective and valuable agent to enlighten the world concerning the subject of Utah and the "Mormons."

Look Out.—Stealing horse blankets and lap robes is the favorite amusement of the light-fingered fraternity at present. The thieves are laying in a supply of bedding for the winter. A person who makes a call with a buggy, these nights, should take his vehicle into the house with him, and watch it well while there.

More Snow Promised.—The cold weather is somewhat modified today. The sky looks snowy and the air feels blowy.

DIED.

At Riverdale, near Ogden, November 18th, 1880, EDWARD STRATTON, born at Trowbridge, near Bristol, England, March 10th, 1831.

Brother Stratton embraced the gospel when a boy, and emigrated to this country in 1851 with the company that came out with President John Taylor for the purpose of establishing a woolen factory, and he has been in Prest. Taylor's employ almost ever since. He was a faithful man, highly esteemed by a large circle of friends, by whom his loss will be keenly felt, as well as by his bereaved family. He leaves a wife and five children, the oldest of whom is 11 years of age.

The funeral will be held at his residence tomorrow, (Saturday) at 11 a.m.

Court Martial.—We herewith append a copy of the official order for the Court Martial now pending in this city:

Headquarters, Department of the Platte, Fort Omaha, Nebraska, November 4th, 1880.

SPECIAL ORDERS, } No. 104. }

A general court martial is hereby appointed to meet at Fort Douglas, U. T., on the 16th day of November, 1880, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of First Lieutenant Thomas H. Briggs, 14th Infantry.

DETAIL FOR THE COURT:

1. Colonel Albert G. Brackett, Third Cavalry.
2. Lieutenant Colonel Charles E. Compton, Fifth Cavalry.
3. Major Andrew W. Evans, Third Cavalry.
4. Major Samuel M. Horton, Medical Department, U. S. A.
5. Captain Edwin M. Coates, Fourth Infantry.
6. Captain Frederick Van Vleet, Third Cavalry.
7. Captain William H. Bisbee, Fourth Infantry.
8. Captain Thomas F. Quinn, Fourth Infantry.
9. Captain John B. Johnson, Third Cavalry.

Captain George F. Price, Fifth Cavalry, Judge Advocate.

No other officers than those named can be assembled without manifest injury to the service.

By order of
BRIGADIER-GENERAL CROOK,
Commanding the Department of the Platte.
ROBERT WILLIAMS,
Assistant Adjutant-General.
OFFICIAL.

Traveling Theatricals.—On Monday morning, Mr. Phil Margetts, the well known comedian, and a company of professional players, including Messrs. Wilton, Taylor, Olsen, Horsley and Mesdames Cogswell and Jones, will take a trip through Tooele County, with the design of presenting a series of dramatic performances in the principal settlements in that region. On Monday and Tuesday nights they appear in Tooele City, on Wednesday and Thursday in Grantsville, and on Friday and Saturday in Stockton. His plays are "A Wonderful Woman" and "Chimney Corner," in both of which Phil has specialties and a number of laughable farces, with whose main characters he is also identified. They will be gone about a week. Our friends over the mountains have a treat in store! Mr. Margetts is very popular wherever he goes, and we bespeak for him and his company a warm reception, notwithstanding the cold weather. Those who are out of fuel should go to see Phil. and laugh themselves into a vapor bath. If successful out west, the troupe will make a tour of some of the southern settlements.

"Still they Come."—The number of good-natured individuals who mistake our sanctum for the business office of this establishment, seems to be daily increasing. Whether it is because they can't read the dazzling placard "Business Office," adorning the double doors they are compelled to pass with shut eyes before reaching the non-suggestive entrance to our little arbor; whether it is because we keep a good fire always burning at this time of the year to accommodate winter poetry or whether our friends know better; than we do, the proper place to come to sell rags, buy party tickets or advertise for stray pigs, we know not. But we do know that he who overcometh these things and keepeth a smile on his face as he writeth, notwithstanding their daily increasing recurrence, hath that within him which passeth show, and will win a name that shall live and linger when Patience on a Monument hath smiled herself away.

Arrival of Missionaries.—President Taylor to-day received a letter from Elder W. Budge announcing the safe arrival on the 31st of October of the following named missionaries after a longer voyage than usual owing to stormy weather! Otherwise they had a pleasant trip to Liverpool:

George Stringfellow, Moroni F. Brown, Frank H. Snow, Isaac Duffin, David Spilsbury, Wm. Probert, Jr., W. S. Harris, W. G. Davis, Joseph L. Robinson, John R. Baxter, W. S. Brighton, David Cook, Richard Stringfellow, Lars N. Larsen, Jens Jenson, Wm. H. Butler, Joseph H. Butler, Thos. D. Reese, David West, B. M. Harman, M. J. Thomas, Morgan Brown, Joseph P. Larsen, A. Amundsen, Hans E. Nielsen, J. Hansen, Nils R. Lindahl, Jas. H. Hansen, James J. Hansen.

Another Marriage.—On Wednesday last, another happy union was brought about in the marriage of Elder Mathoni W. Pratt, a son of the late Apostle Parley P. Pratt, and Miss Libbie Sheets, daughter of Bishop E. F. Sheets, all of this city. The ceremony was performed at the Endowment House. The bridegroom is a young man of sterling worth and good promise, highly respected by a large circle of friends and well-wishers, and the bride is no less happily endowed with talents and virtues to make her in every particular a true woman and a worthy wife. We extend our best wishes and hopes for their happiness here and hereafter.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

LOST.—Yesterday afternoon, about 6 o'clock, between Godbe's corner and the 10th Ward, a package of men's clothing, consisting of two pairs of pants, one coat and one pair of shoes. The person who lost them is in need of them, and the finder will be rewarded on leaving them at the Herald office.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL
TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N.-W. Palace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois, and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. RESCUED FROM DEATH.
The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.

Nothing Short of Unmistakable Benefits conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and it is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial, or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases, and all disorders arising from impurity of the blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often Cures Liver Complaints, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal. It tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and is to-day the most available medicine for the suffering sick, anywhere. 2dsw
