Jubilee.—Louis Fisher wrote from Cedar City, under date of June 25th:

The Sunday school of this place held a jubilee on the 23d inst. The exercises consisted of reciting passages from the Bible, Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, and select poetry, interspersed with singing. Nearly the whole school participated in the exercises, which took up nearly the whole day. The pieces were all rendered in excellent style, giving satisfaction to all who witnessed them.

European Mission.—The following is an extract from a letter from Elder W. H. Branch, laboring in the Leeds Conference, published in the Millennial Star of June 10th:

The good work of the Lord is still going on over here. I baptized two last Monday and two more are waiting to be baptized next Monday. The Saints are feeling well, our meetings are generally well attended, and a good spirit prevails. Last Wednesday I solicited an interview with a reverend minister of the Wesleyan connection; it was granted me. On the following day I met him at his house, according to appointment, at 10 o'clock. Our conversation lasted until 1, and was very interesting; he acknowledges me as a true Christian; he is the minister of the Steffy Chapel, Hull. Last evening I had a short conversation with Mr. Telford, the great revivalist. As time would not permit a lengthy conversation, he gave me an invitation to come again and we would continue our conversation, which I gladly accepted. During the time of my talk with these reverends, I embraced the opportunity of bearing my humble testimony to them, which they seemed to receive with a good spirit. I am very anxious of having some more talk with Mr. Telford, and will seek for a chance. I am doing all I can to get at the minds of some of the leading men, and tell them of our principles."

Missionary Labors.—Through courtesy of Elder F. D. Richards, we have read a letter from Elder C. H. Wheelock, who is engaged at present in preaching the gospel at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. The Elder states that he left Council Bluffs just after the arrival there of Elder B. F. Cummings, senr., who succeeded him, and reports the prospects for missionary enterprise in that region as very encouraging. At a meeting held the sabbath before he left that city, there were present among his auditors four gentlemen of the medical profession, two of whom expressed themselves as very much interested in his remarks, and invited him to remain there all summer and hold meetings, the partial expense of which they offered to defray. Brother Wheelock, however, took his departure, after thanking the gentlemen for their generosity, and invited them to tender the same offer to Brother Cummings, his successor at the Bluffs.

He arrived in Fond du Lac on the 15th inst., and, so far, has been well received by the inhabitants. The Universalist Church has been offered for his use, and the mayor of the city has promised to introduce him to the public on the night of his opening service. Several of the newspapers have given favorable notice of his intentions, among which is the following from the Champion:

"Elder C. H. Wheelock, of Salt Lake City, for 35 years connected with the Mormon church, arrived in this city last Friday, and will preach on Sunday evening next, at Universalist Church, on the principles and tenets of his society. All of our citizens who wish to be enlightened on the real truth as to this society, will do well to hear him. He desigus remaining here for some time, as he is on a society mission, and will deliver some lectures on Mormonism during his stay."

Brother Wheelock feels encouraged by his success, and would like to have some good energetic Elder sent to assist him in his field of labor.

A Friendly Gathering.—A gentleman who was present on the interesting occasion, banded in the following, this morning:

Friday, June 28th, Bishop Edwin D. Woolley, of the 13th Ward, was 71 years of age, and to his astonishment, on reaching home from the field, about 2 o'clock, on a load of hay, he was introduced to an unexpected party of near relatives and friends, composed mostly of his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, numbering between 70 and 80, who had assembled with their picnic for the purpose of celebrating with him the anniversary of his 71st birthday. From 3 o'clock until 6, the table was spread with a great variety of good things, which were heartily partaken of. Cheerfulness, good humor, and happy remarks were freely indulged in. After supper, the company repaired to a large room and enjoyed a musical treat, vocal and instrumental, by members of his own family. The last song that was sung, both words and music, were composed by two of his children. It contained most touching and affectionate sentiments, and was adapted as a quartette for four voices, to greet the return of their brother and his wife, after an absence of three years on a mission to the Sandwich Islands. The singing of this song awakened deep emotions and furnished matter for agreeable reflection, and remarks, from one of the guests, after which the Bishop himself arose in the midst of his numerous and united posterity and, after expressing his gratitude to God for preserving his life so many years, through all its varied scenes, he dwelt with becoming pride on the union, obedience and affection that existed in his family. He referred to several of his sons who had been called on and performed some important missions, not one had returned with a blemished reputation. This he said was a source of joy and great satisfaction to him, and he indulged the hope, that none bearing his name would ever tarnish it by wrong-doing.

Bishop S. A. Woolley, youngest brother of Edwin D., related some pleasing reminiscences in the early experience of his brother. Their parents dying when Samuel was only 7 years old, and Edwin, being oldest of the family, seven in number, took charge of them and acted the part of a father and counselor to the young members. He enumerated some of the hardships connected with his brother's life, being one of the earliest settlers in the States of Ohio and Illinois, and arriving in Salt Lake city at an early day, had to avail himself of any kind of work to sustain his family, such as the digging of wells at $1 per day and board himself.

Bishop E. D. Woolley then expressed his gratitude to those who had so surprised and honored him with their presence, and blessed them as the patriarch of his family, and after benediction by Bishop S. A. Woolley, the company retired with many good wishes.

We join in extending our congratulations to the veteran Bishop.

"He was generous to a fault." That is just what is the matter with most of us. We treat our faults too kindly.

SAN FRANCISCO 28.

A Boise City dispatch says: Tambago, the Bannock murderer of Rhoden, was hanged in the yard of the penitentiary near this city, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. He begged for a respite for another day, saying he would willingly die if he could have one more sleep. On the scaffold he bore himself as a stoical savage, and seemed only to regret that he was compelled to go alone, and without seeing any of his people. His brother, in the penitentiary under sentence for shooting three teamsters near Fort Hall last summer, yesterday attempted to commit suicide, but was discovered in time, and the attempt frustrated. He and Tambago had asked, as a special favor, that if one must die the other be allowed to die with him. As this could not be accorded he made up his mind to suicide. Some apprehension was felt here, yesterday, that there might be an attempt made by some prowling band of Indians to rescue Tambago, but there were no evidence of the presence of Indians in the vicinity.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 28.—A Berlin dispatch says: At the sitting of the congress, Gertschakoff present, it was decided. In accordance with the proposal of the British plenipotentiaries, to entrust to Austria the task of occupying Bosnia and Herzegovina in the interest of the peace of Europe. The duration of the occupation is not fixed, and full liberty is left Austria in regard to the organization of provinces. It is believed, however, that she will follow the plans drawn up at the Constantinople conference.

The congress unanimously adopted the proposal of the French plenipotentiaries that Europe should refuse to recognize the independence of Servia unless Servian Jews were relieved from their present disabilities.

The congress decided to appoint a commission to examine into the question of the aggrandizement of Servia. The aggrandizement of Montenegro will probably be referred to the commission.

If the congress has nominated a commissioner to draw up the final report of its proceedings it has declared in favor of the independence of Servia, subject, however, to a proviso for the amelioration of the treatment of the Jews.

A dispatch from Berlin states: That at Wednesday's sitting of the congress the plenipotentiaries, at the request of Count Schouvaloff, who considered the matter touching the national honor of Russia, consented to a withdrawal of the motion on which they had agreed that Russians should evacuate their positions within six months.

A Berlin dispatch, in direct conflict with other dispatches, asserts that the Turkish protest against the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina is so forcible that the congress has left the question in abeyance.

VIENNA, 28.—An event of importance for the future of Austria is the imperial sanction given to all laws respecting the Austro-Hungarian compromise. This difficult matter, which occupied both parliaments more than two years, may be regarded as settled.

BERLIN, 29.—A portion of the tunnel near Schwelm, Germany, fell, last night, burying 27 persons. Seven bodies have been recovered. Search for the others continues.
