

BY HIS WELCOME

It Was a Neighborly Affair in Which Politics Did Not Play Any Part.

GREAT SCOTT! WHAT A CROWD

That Was His Comment—Lincoln Never Saw So Many People Gathered Together Before.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 5.—William J. Bryan returned this evening to his Lincoln home, and the "home folks" welcomed him with every evidence of affection and approval. It was a neighborly welcome, planned as such, and carried out in its entirety with that understanding. Lincoln has more Republicans than Democrats, and Mr. Bryan has been the past good humored presence in the city politics, but to-night there was no line of partisan division, and the welcome extended to both Mr. and Mrs. Bryan was sincere and unqualified. Everybody showed up, and everybody showed up to see Mr. Bryan, and everybody showed up to see Mr. Bryan.

It is a fact that Lincoln never held a larger crowd than this which came to see Mr. Bryan. The weather, barring a few clouds, was as nearly perfect as it could be. It was a half holiday in the city, and every train from over the state arrived loaded down, bringing not only Nebraska people, but many from other states. The city was handsomely decorated for the home-coming, and the streets were lined with people. The Bryan train arrived at the Burlington station shortly after 5 o'clock, two hours before that the crowd began to assemble, and was packed around the platform, on the sidewalks and in the street for nearly a half mile away. There was a roar of welcome, and the train rolled in. In the party, beside Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and their daughter, Grace, was the Lincoln delegation which left here 10 days ago to meet him at New York, together with a few of the Nebraska Democratic leaders who also went to New York. Mr. Bryan's only anxiety as he neared the station on the multitude of faces was "Great Scott, what a crowd!"

It was impossible to thin out the crowd which massed itself on the station platform, but it gave way good-naturedly for the police force to form an alley from the train to the carriage in waiting. Showing no sign of fatigue, but bowing right and left, and smiling happily, with an occasional word to an old acquaintance, Mr. Bryan made his way to the carriage. Seated with him on the trip up town were Gov. Mickey, Mayor Brown and John E. Miller, president of the Lincoln Commercial club. A second carriage and Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. M. D. Welch, Mrs. J. E. Miller and Mayor Dahlgren of Omaha. Then in turn followed carriages containing members of the reception committee and newspaper men who accompanied Mr. Bryan from the east.

No attempt was made at a parade, although there was a pretentious mounted escort, policemen on horseback, fraternal organizations, and individual marches, the whole proceeding by six bands comprising 132 musicians. Along the route Mr. Bryan was greeted with every evidence of cordiality and enthusiasm. Among those present were a number of officers and men who were members of the 10th regiment in the Spanish-American war, and they cheered their colonel heartily. The party traversed three of the principal business streets lined with cheering crowds and then proceeded to the home of Charles W. Bryan, where Mr. Bryan and his family were to dine before going to the state capitol grounds for the speaking exercises and reception proper.

Two hours before the time for the terrible eczema on little boy.

TERRIBLE ECZEMA ON LITTLE BOY

Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts—Face Itched Most Fearfully—Hands Pinned Down to Prevent Scratching

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over his whole body that I was almost driven to despair."

"We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened his mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did his eyes, ears, nose, hands, arms, chest, and back, in short the whole body was covered over and over. We had no sleep by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face, and have most fearful sores."

"I finally thought nothing could help, and I made up my mind to send my wife to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be buried under some mountain. But, as he was so miserable, I decided to try Cuticura. A friend of mine had used Cuticura, and he said it was a miracle. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a marked improvement. It was as quick as a flash, and within ten weeks the child was as healthy as before." F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Cuticura, 20 Park Alley, New York, N. Y.

A CRITICAL PERIOD

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chester, town, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

"I had been suffering with a displacement for years and was passing through the change of life. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful to ailing women.

exercises at the capitol grounds a crowd estimated at all the way from 30,000 to 60,000 struggled for points of vantage around the speaker's stand. Mr. Bryan was escorted to the stand by Gov. Mickey from his private office in the state house. A prayer by Rev. George W. Martin, pastor of the Methodist church at Normal, Mr. Bryan's suburban home, was followed by a brief speech of welcome by Mayor Brown, who concluded by introducing Gov. Mickey.

The crowd showed some impatience as the governor proceeded with his speech, but he asked it to bear with him for a few moments. The cries for Bryan increased as when the governor in one passage referred to "bogus reformers," the crowd, seemingly misinterpreting his thought, indulged in some hissing.

As Gov. Mickey concluded and Mr. Bryan arose, there was renewed cheering and handclapping. Mr. Bryan began by saying that in his travels he had learned the Arabic language contained 600 words meaning camel, and that since returning to the United States he had wished that the American language contained as many words meaning "I thank you." He declared the happiest part of the long journey was the home-coming, and then went into a general description of his travels.

Mr. Bryan said in part:

"To come home to those among whom we live and find this kindly feeling touches our hearts; to find those who differ from us in political opinion vying with those who agree with us to make our reception so beautiful, more than pays for anything that we have been able to do."

Mr. Bryan then turned thanked Rev. Mr. Martin, Mayor Brown and Gov. Mickey for their kindly expressions, concluding:

"I am glad to be here with you, and I speak for my wife and children as well as for myself, when I thank you a thousand times. I don't know how I can repay you for the joy you have given us, unless you will permit me, as occasion offers, to bring such persons as I am able to bring from what I have observed in other lands. When we conceived this trip around the earth it was with the belief that there would be education in it. We thought so highly of it that we were willing to take the children out of school for a year, and I believe that it was worth more than a year's education. I have for years appreciated the honor and the responsibility of American citizenship. Twenty-two years ago when I returned to my college to receive the master's degree, I took as the subject of my address 'American Citizenship' and as I recall the language that I then used I am sure that even then I understood somewhat of the importance of our nation among the nations of the earth. During the nearly a quarter of a century that has elapsed my appreciation of my nation's greatness has increased, but never so much as in the last 12 months have I grown in the pride that I have in any nation."

Mr. Bryan then described his journey in some detail, closing with his glowing tribute to his home and his country.

Following Mr. Bryan's speech the formal reception took place in the corridors of the capitol, where Mr. Bryan shook hands with the thousands who passed before him.

There was a brilliant display of fireworks for an hour on the state house grounds.

ANGLO-SPANISH ALLIANCE.

No Steps Toward Negotiation of a Formal One Have Been Taken.

London, Sept. 6.—Despite various reports to the contrary it may be accepted as certain that no steps have been taken toward the negotiation of a formal alliance between Great Britain and Spain, and it is very doubtful that anything of the kind is in contemplation.

The relations between the two countries are very cordial, and the newly created kinship between their royal houses adds another close and intimate bond to their cordiality. It is very probable that King Alfonso will now look to London with greater frequency for his higher political aspirations, and that under his leadership the Spanish government will be brought into closer working relations with the British government, but nothing in the nature of a written alliance is looked for with Europe at peace. Spain co-operated with France and Great Britain at Algiers and under most circumstances probably will be found similarly aligned in future.

There is no reason to believe that France would view the close approach of Spain and Great Britain other than with approval or that France would object to making the partnership a triangular one. There exist certain differences between France and Spain, but well informed circles here regard them as susceptible to adjustment.

FILIBUSTERING AGAINST MEXICO

Twelve Persons Arrested at Douglas, N. M., on Charge of Planning Military Expedition.

WILL BE GIVEN A HEARING.

Thousands of Copies of Printed Programs of So-Called Liberal Party Uncarried.

Douglas, N. M., Sept. 5.—Among the Mexican and American officials who have come to this city to attend the hearing before the United States commissioner in the cases of the 12 persons arrested on the charge of planning a military expedition against a friendly power are Gen. Torres of Sonora, G. W. Webb, U. S. Immigration Inspector for Arizona and New Mexico, Arturo Rias, Mexican consul at Tucson, and U. S. Atty.-Alexander of Phoenix, who will prosecute the cases.

Gen. Torres said today that with the breaking up of the junta here he felt confident the trouble along the border would be ended.

Several thousand copies of the printed program of the so-called Liberal party were uncarried by officers here today. These were intended to be scattered broadcast along the border. It is believed at the outbreak of the proposed revolution. Two more Mexicans said to be members of the local junta, were arrested tonight.

READY FOR REVOLUTION.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 5.—A letter found on the person of one of the men arrested as Mexican revolutionists on the Arizona border, dated Toronto, Ont., and signed R. Flores Magdon, head of the Mexican revolutionary junta, instructs Trevino, when he has 100 men willing to fight, to attack the Nogales custom house, take arms and then proceed to interior towns, and gather recruits. The letter says:

"Let Cananea alone for the present. Take Nogales first."

The writer cautions Trevino against acting too soon, and says: "We cannot yet fix the day on which the uprising takes place, because we must arm ourselves. There are 40 revolutionary centers throughout the country resolved to rise up in arms, but not all possess sufficient arms."

"The junta is working to secure funds for the revolution. There are persons who could loan money with which to buy arms. If they do it the junta will issue the necessary receipts, which will be recognized on the triumph of the revolution to be repaid. In this manner it will be easier to secure money. We have to be careful to make the least noise possible, so as not to have the government constantly forewarned. There are some who would at once throw themselves on the despots. This would occasion nothing but demoralization and panic. We must act when we have the probability of success. Above all the movement does not lag, but it will not be on the 15th of Sept. as certain papers have gossipedly made it appear. The day on which the rising will take place cannot be named. It depends on the various groups, or the majority of them, being ready."

AGITATORS UNDER ARREST.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 5.—A special from Tucson to the Republican tonight says that Carlos Humbert, Bruno Trevino and Guadalupe, the three foreigners arrested in Nogales and Mowry camp under the immigration laws on a charge of inciting a rebellion in Mexico, were brought to Tucson today by rangers. It was rumored that their friends in Nogales, Sonora, would cross the line at night and attempt their rescue, but Sheriff Fowler threw a strong guard around the jail and there was no disturbance. The prisoners refuse to talk.

Seventy-five Mexican cavalrymen by a forced march from Cananea reached Nogales, Sonora, today. One cavalryman died of hardships on the way. United States Dist. Atty. Alexander left Phoenix for Tucson and the border tonight.

A TENNESSEE SHOOTING.

One Man Killed, One Fatally Wounded, Two Seriously Injured.

Albany, Ky., Sept. 5.—One dead, another fatally wounded and two others seriously injured, is the result of a shooting affray in Pickett county, Tenn., three miles from Birdsville.

THE DEAD.

George Morris.

THE INJURED.

John Buck, fatal. Orville Huddleston, wounded in face and shoulder. Virgil Beatty, injured in the neck and face.

Luther Clark, Roscoe Roan and J. M. Gillentine are said to have done the shooting. They have not been arrested. The shooting, it is said, was the result of a mistake, the men attacked being mistaken for other parties.

EX-CASHIER ADAMS ARRESTED.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 5.—A special from Vicksburg, Miss., says: B. S. Adams, now manager for the Quinn Sharpe Drug company, but formerly assistant cashier of the Citizens' National bank, was today arrested by U. S. Marshal Wilson and taken to Jackson on the charge of being short in his cash to the amount of $48,000, while employed by the Citizens' National bank.

Adams left the employ of the bank in August last, when he confessed to Cashier George B. Hackett he was short, stating the amount. Mr. Hackett immediately notified a surety company who had bonded Adams, and it is supposed the surety company and Adams arrested. Adams was unable to make a $5,000 bond.

TAFT SPEAKS IN MAINE.

Bath, Me., Sept. 5.—William H. Taft, secretary of war, addressed a large audience at Almada hall here tonight, and was given an enthusiastic greeting. He was Secy. Taft's only appearance in the Maine campaign. He was introduced by Harold F. Sewall, formerly United States consul at Hawaii, whose guest he is while here. Mr. Sewall spoke of President Roosevelt. Tomorrow Secy. Taft will return to Murr Bay, Canada.

KNOX SCORES BRYAN.

New York, Sept. 5.—United States Senator Knox of Pennsylvania arrived today from Europe on the steamer Oceanic. Senator Knox said he had seen the reports of William J. Bryan's speech at Madison Square Garden. When asked for his opinion on Mr. Bryan's advocacy of government ownership of railroads, the senator said: "Mr. Bryan appears to have opened his mouth and put his foot in it. I have a great desire to see the full effect of Mr. Bryan's speech on the American people."
