and some little girls too, were in the let nearly all forenoon, watching what was going on, but they were particular, ly interested in an elephant and a bear that were chained each to a stoke out-side the tent and not very far apart. While they stood about looking at the beast a girl 8 or 9 years of age came out of the tent and, approaching the elephant, began to play with him. She took a whisp of straw out to him, and when he thrust his trank toward it she would jerk it away and tump back out when he thrust his trunk toward it she would jerk it away and jump back out of his reach. "Then she would run all around him and he would touch her with his trunk, in a gentle way, as if he enjoyed the sport as much as she did. People ex-pected to see the little girl killed, but they found out she was the daughter of one of the managers, who allowed her to play with the clerbants wheney. her to play with the elephants wheney-er she pleased. Los Angeles Players. The match game by wire between bewing teams of Sait Lake and Los An-geles, resulted in a big victory for the by-cal players, and it indicated that the home bunch is about the best there is in the western country when it comes to knocking over the ten pins. The final score was 2,45 to 2,701 in favor of Balt Lake Capi. Smith of the local team played with Los Angeles, but des-that fact the California team could not even come close to winning. The Los Angeles bowlers are now convinced that Sait Lake has the goods in this line of sport, and they are eager for the west-tern tournament to be held here.
