

SOCIETY

The shade of the shamrock has pervaded the social realm this week and green has held royal sway in nearly every function. Not only on the hearths where patriotic impulse inclined to use of the emblems of Erin but also with others St. Patrick has been honored in the wearing of the green, and the effects have been throughout as effective and artistic as could have been desired.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hirth entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Hirth of Chicago, their guests numbering ten. The table was decorated in white and green, the centerpiece being a silver candelabra with green candles and shades, while sprays of plumosa entwined the chandelier and were strewn over the board. At each end were stacked bunches of green candles, and the place cards were painted in shamrock design. The table was spread with white lace over green satin. The guests besides Miss Hirth were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greenwood and Mrs. David Evans.

Another delightful dinner of Thursday was that given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones. The entire dining room was in green, ferns and smilax being used with artistic effect. The centerpiece on the table was a mound of green with smilax scrolled in the shape of a shamrock at either end. Inside these stood candelabra with green candles and shades, while the place cards had shamrock designs. The guests of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Plummer, Dr. and Mrs. Vincent, Dr. and Mrs. Loomis, Rev. and Mrs. Talbot, Miss Talbot, Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Young, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lincoln Boggs, Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown, Judge and Mrs. George F. Goodwin, Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McClain, Dr. Faxon, Mrs. D. E. Moore and Miss Drew.

The largest affair of the week was the banquet given by the seniors of the High school on Thursday, the function taking place in the private room at the Commercial club. The red and black prevailed in the decorations, with orange and white, which are the distinctive colors of the senior class. The place cards were also done in the same colors, the name of each guest being artistically inscribed on the card. There were toasts with Corydon Higgins acting as master, and the entire affair was delightful. Principal Beaton of the High school was the only guest present.

Miss Catherine Culmer gave an informal affair on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. George Culmer, the entertainment being euchre. The rooms were prettily decorated, and prizes were won by Miss Fannie Bird and Mrs. Lear Riter.

Mrs. Walter Pyper was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday, her guests being the members of the Navajo club. The table was done in green and white lace doilies and centerpiece being used over green satin. Sprays of shamrock were strewn over the cloth, and green was the prevailing color in the refreshments. A delightful afternoon followed, with music and sewing.

An enjoyable euchre party was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, about 24 guests being present. The rooms were effectively decorated in white and green and the scores and tallies, together with the refreshments, carried out the color idea.

Mrs. H. N. Mayo entertained the sewing club at a luncheon on Wednesday, the decorations being prettily carried out in spring flowers.

Miss Loreen Leary entertained the Ladies of the J. B. McKean corps at her home on Thursday, an enjoyable time being spent.

Mrs. W. Chatterton entertained the ladies of the J. B. McKean corps at her home on Thursday.

A large number of box parties were given at the various notable theatrical events which have taken place during the week, among the hosts being Gov. and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker, Col. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glendenning, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Perry, Mr. H. Tarbet, Mr. Critchlow and Mr. Schramm.

HAT OF THE NEW FLARE SHAPE.

The top of this modish hat, as well as the edge of the brim is made of white straw in one of the novelty weaves. The underbrim facing is of mairine, which shades from white to a deep violet. The shaded plume repeats these tones. It passes flatly over the crown and droops low over the underbrim at the side. The hat is lifted in the front by a wide bandeau.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Palmer yesterday, the P. E. O. society gave a delightful St. Patrick's party.

A St. Patrick's party was enjoyed by a number of the young bachelors staying at the Whitehall on Thursday night.

WEDDING BELLS

A pretty wedding reception of the week was that which celebrated the marriage of Miss Astrid Johannee of Idaho Falls and Mr. Joseph Morley, recently of this city, but now a resident of the former place. The ceremony was performed in the Salt Lake Temple on Wednesday, and in the evening a reception was held in their honor at the home of the groom's parents on Fourth West street, a large number of their friends being present to extend good wishes and congratulations. The rooms were tastefully decorated, and a wedding supper was served, while music and a genuine social time made a delightful evening. Mr. and Mrs. Morley will reside at Idaho Falls, where the groom is engaged in business.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Florence Mabel Pinney and William C. Bowldice, which took place also on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed at the bride's home by Bishop Barton. Red, white and pink carnations decorated the rooms, while palms and smilax made an effective compliment. There was a dinner for the immediate family, followed by a reception for the friends. The bride wore a gown of tan voile over blue taffeta, and carried carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Bowldice will be at home after April 15, at 560 North Second West street.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE LIVES

ODGEN.

Miss Emma Anderson and Irving W. Jones, two popular young people of Odgen City, were married in Salt Lake Wednesday. They returned to Odgen on the evening train and were given a reception at the house of the groom's parents, 479 Twenty-fourth street. There were present at the reception only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. The evening passed pleasantly away with music. A bounteous wedding repast was served in the dining room. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents among them being a fine cut glass water set, from the Southern Pacific engineering corps, with whom the groom is employed. The bride is an accomplished young lady and the groom is a son of Odgen's well known merchant, Thomas W. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home on Boulevard avenue.

CHAMPAGNE-COLORED TAILOR-MADE.

The double skirt or tunic effect is one of the popular features of the spring styles. This natty tailor-made of champagne-colored canvas has a skirt fitted closely at the hips by deep pleats. The blouse is pleated in similar fashion. The Eton jacket is trimmed with ornaments in the shape of lace filled buttons, outlined with chenille. Shoulder and sleeve trimmings are of cut-out work in silk. The sleeves open to show deep fingerette frills. A deep girdle defines the figure prettily at the waist and ends in sash ends.

The ward amusement hall in honor of the old folks of the ward. There was a goodly number present, and a most enjoyable evening was had. An excellent program consisting of songs, instrumental music, feasting, etc., was carried out. The hearts of the old folks over sixty years of age were made to rejoice by the young people.

A Beautiful $10 Cut Glass Bowl for $5 and 1-5 off on all other Cut Glass this week.

Any piece of cut glass looks white, brilliant and well cut when alone, and only by contrast with another piece can its superior or inferior merits be recognized by one not experienced.

It is our purpose to sell superior merchandise on the closest possible margin of profit and to stimulate trade, and interest cut glass buyers. We have had cut to our order a quantity of bowls in four different cuttings (designs), which we will offer Monday and until Saturday at $5.00 each. These bowls are of the most useful size, cut from the purest white crystal glass by the best glass cutters in America, and equal to any $10.00 bowl offered by any other house in Utah.

We do not expect anyone who is in need of coal and potatoes to buy cut glass bowls, but if anyone is in need of a cut glass bowl, buy one of these, and come early as the supply is limited.

Besides this special article, our entire stock of cut glass—and it is the largest in Utah—is offered this week at 20 per cent discount from our regular plain figure prices.

We have two large shipments of glass on the way, and propose to convert as much as we can of our present stock into cash before they arrive. Cut glass is not only for the rich, but bought at our prices is within the reach of even the poor, and will give a touch of beauty to an otherwise forlorn looking table and joy to the heart of the wife.

We will send one of these $5.00 bowls to any out of town address upon receipt of price, and refund the money if purchaser is not satisfied.
