BISHOP WHITNEY'S POEM.

The poem by Bishop Whitney, which was especially fitting and much appreciated by all present, was as follows:

There's a name writ oft—a name writ large
In the book of human life,
What name, than this, more in glory's charge,
Or more with merit rife?

John the Beloved—'twas the name he bore
Who wrote as the Spirit spoke;
And John, that other, who went before
And bled for the Master's sake.

The name of Wycliffe, "the morning star,"
Of Calvin and Knox and Huss;
Of Milton divine, whose fame from far
Has descended unto us.

The name of many a sapient sage,
In science, letters and art;
Warriors and statesmen in every age—
Giants in mind and in heart.

Till chosen of God and honored of man,
That radiant name appears,
Now shining down from the snowy van
Of two and eighty years.

Silencing the brow of a son of God—
A man of war and of peace,
Who fought for the right; then plowed
And sowed.

And hath reaped the rich increase,
A pillar he in God's Temple now,
No more to go out for aye;
And to him the gathered hundreds bow
On this glad natal day.

Next to the Prophet, our chief in charge
Victor in peace as in strife;

Don't like Schilling's Best?
Your grocer returns your money.

John Rex Winder—a name writ large
In the Lamb's great Book of Life.
The committee having the affair in charge and under whose auspices it was given, consisted of William W. Ritter, chairman; John Nicholson, Bathsheba W. B. Smith, Emma S. Woodruff and Edna L. Smith.

AUTOBILIST ARRESTED.

Officer Brown Gathers in Le Roi C. Snow This Morning.

To Officer J. D. Brown belongs credit for making the first arrest for the infraction of the ordinance relative to fast driving over crossings. The arrest was made today just before noon, the victim being Le Roi C. Snow. Mr. Snow was not driving a fractious horse, but an automobile, and Officer Brown declares that he was going down East Temple street at the rate of fifteen miles an hour. The officer placed Mr. Snow under arrest and informed him of the charge to be booked against him. The latter asked the officer if he realized who he was arresting.

"It don't cut no ice with me who you are," said the minion of the law. Mr. Snow explained that he was a teacher of French and German at the Latter-day Saints' university.

"Well that don't win you nothin', if you are a professor, you should know better than to break the ordinance. Now don't put up no holier or I'll call the wagon."

Mr. Snow said that that was wholly unnecessary as long as the automobile was doing business.

"This looks good to me," said Brown as he climbed in beside his prisoner. There Mr. Snow was booked for fast driving, but was released upon his own recognizance with instructions to appear before Judge Diehl this afternoon.

GORDON GUILTY.

Jury Convicts the Man of Robbery—Burns Case Dec. 21.

The jury in the case of the State vs. James Gordon, which was tried before Judge Morse yesterday, has returned a verdict of guilty of robbery as charged in the indictment. Judge Morse will sentence defendant on next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The case against John C. Burns, who was arrested with Gordon for the same crime, will be tried on Monday, Dec. 21.

VAN METER ESTATE.

Judge Hall Appoints Administrator—Other Probate Matters.

Judge Hall this morning appointed Joseph Van Meter administrator of the estate of Arthur Van Meter, deceased, and fixed his bond at $18,000. The deceased came into prominence here in the early spring by establishing a record for fencing. His estate is valued at about $2,000.

In the matter of the estate of Charles G. Van Alstine, deceased, Judge Hall today approved the guardian's first account; ordered an allowance of $20 per month for the support of the minors; and fixed the fees of the attorneys for the estate at $600.

Foreclosure Suit.

Annie Govelet this afternoon filed suit in the district court against George H. Thomas and wife to foreclose a mortgage on part of lot 1, block 51, plat C, given to secure the payment of a promissory note on which there is now due $208, and for which amount plaintiff asks judgment.

Nibley Title Quiet.

Judge Hall this morning rendered a decree in favor of plaintiff in the case of Rebecca N. Nibley against George A. Smith, executor of the estate of Matilda M. Barratt, deceased, and Annie D. Watson, quieting plaintiff's title to 7 rods by 96 feet of lot 8, block 85, plat A, Salt Lake City survey.

Deserted His Wife.

Suit for divorce was filed in the district court today by Leroy Kennedy against Lester Kennedy on the ground of desertion. The parties were married at Kansas City, Kansas, on Sept. 12, 1899, and it is alleged that defendant deserted his wife in August, 1902. Plaintiff also asks that her maiden name, Leroy Dougherty, be restored to her.

New Mining Company.

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Leo Vernon Mining company, of Marysville, Platte county, was filed in the secretary of state's office today. Its capital stock is $25,000, divided into shares of the par value of 5 cents each. J. E. Gibbs is president; J. E. Peterson, vice president; S. L.

Page, treasurer; J. Dana Gibbs, secretary. The company owns the Leo Vernon group of claims in the Ohio district, Platte county.

COURT NOTES.

C. W. L. Stevens today filed suit in the district court against C. E. Wantland and T. J. Mackintosh to recover $346.65 alleged to be due on a judgment obtained by plaintiff against defendant in the third district court on Dec. 11, 1895. In addition to the above amount plaintiff asks judgment for interest on the same from the above date.

An attachment suit has been filed in the district court by A. Booth & Co., against G. M. Wiegand, to recover $305.19 alleged to be due for merchandise sold to defendant and for several accounts against defendant assigned to plaintiff by other firms.

R. A. Ure has filed suit in the district court against Henry Giles to recover $739.34 alleged to be due on a judgment rendered against defendant on Nov. 20, 1902. The amount of the judgment rendered was $293.40, which, with interest from the date of the same amounts to the first named sum.

This afternoon, after hearing the argument of Attorney S. A. King for the defense, Judge Morse denied the motion to quash, whereupon Mr. Brown asked for time in which to file a bill of exceptions, which was granted. It will likely be taken to the supreme court.

REFORM SCHOOL MERIT SYSTEM.

J. E. Thompson of Ogden Recommends a New Plan. Which Is Adopted.

THREE CLASSES OF INMATES.

Graded According to the Offenses Charged Against Them—Rules of The School.

The trustees of the state industrial school at Ogden have adopted a new merit system for that institution upon the recommendation of J. E. Thompson of the Ogden High school, who was employed by the trustees to formulate a system. The inmates are divided into three classes. The first class consists of persons accused of such serious crimes as manslaughter, arson and train wrecking; the second class are those accused of grand larceny, robbery and forgery; the third class are those guilty of petty larceny, incontinency, assault and drunkenness. Under the new merit system a person, in the first class can secure his release under parole by securing 100 merits for good conduct. He is given 15 to start with, one for each week of good conduct and 5 for continuing a week longer by adding to the institution, providing his conduct is good for that time. The second class must secure 90 merits and may secure a parole in 70 weeks. The third class must secure 65 merits and may secure a parole in 45 weeks. The inmates are divided into four grades, "white," "pink," "yellow" and "blue." The "blue" offenses are the most serious ones and are punishable by the officers stay in the institution. The other offenses are punishable in proportion.

RULES OF SCHOOL.

Following is the introduction to the book of rules:

"Under the crime or offense for which you were committed to this institution you will be held here until you arrive at the age of 21 years, and you will be held for that length of time should you not comply with the rules hereinafter stated. You can, by good behavior, proper advancement in school and diligence in labor, secure your release on parole in a much shorter time. You should therefore avail yourself of this opportunity and obtain your release in as short a time as possible, make a new start in life and become a respected citizen in the community in which you may reside."

"Discipline in the institution is maintained by a system of merits for good conduct, which you will learn from reading the rules contained in this book. You will receive 15 merits upon original commitment to the institution, and at the end of each week thereafter you will be given one additional merit, which will be added to those received on commitment. You will learn from reading the following rules that under the crime or offense for which you were committed you will be eligible to parole upon receiving 100 merits, and not sooner."

"Petitions and letters from relatives, friends, judges and prosecuting officers will be of any assistance to you in securing a parole. If you should be returned for violating your parole you will not receive any merits at all, as you would be again entering the school. If, while under confinement you should attempt to escape, you will thereby forfeit all merits then to your credit."

"There are four grades of standing for inmates, first, second, third and fourth. Promotion from one grade to another is regulated by a system of merits for good conduct. When you have accumulated 35 merits you will be a member of the first grade; when you have accumulated 25 merits, you will be a member of the second grade, and upon receiving 15 merits you will be advanced to the third grade. When you fall below 15 merits you will be classed in the fourth, or lowest grade."

CHRISTMAS VACATION.

County Superintendent of School Ashton announces that the schools of the county will close for the Christmas holidays on Thursday, Dec. 24, and re-open on Monday, Jan. 4, 1904.

WHICH SHALL IT BE?

The contest for queen of the Seventh ward fair and carnival closes tonight and as it has narrowed down to three candidates, considerable interest has been aroused and it is highly probable that there will be a good deal of lively voting before the polls close. The successful party will preside over the queen's ball to be given on Saturday night, a distinction that the friends of the young ladies are quite anxious to secure for their respective candidates. Late this afternoon the vote for each was as follows: Eva Richardson, 2,155; Edna Carter, 1,745; Mamie Callister, 1,010.

DEPOT BURGLARIZED.

Rio Grande Station at Murray Broken Into Last Night.

The Rio Grande depot at Murray was broken into, presumably by tramps, last night and 15 pairs of shoes stolen. The burglary was discovered this morning, and the sheriff and police of this city were notified and officers were detailed on the case. The men probably broke into the place about midnight and helped themselves to whatever struck their fancy.

POLICE WERE VIOLENT.

Latest News of Alexandretta Affair Confirms This.

Constantinople, Dec. 11.—The United States legation's latest advice regarding the Alexandretta affair confirm the reports of the violence of the police in the attack on Consul Davis, who had only used his cane in self-defense. It appears that Attarian, the naturalized American who had asked for the assistance of the consul to enable him to embark for Egypt, was arrested by a subterfuge. After he had embarked on the consular boat with Mr. Davis, Attarian was invited to land, to undergo fumigation, whereupon the man was suddenly seized by three policemen and promptly locked up. Mr. Davis, in attempting to interpose, was assaulted by the police and was obliged to defend himself with his cane. Attarian is still a prisoner.

The report that the United States cruiser San Francisco had left for Alexandretta was premature.
