DESERT IVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1905.

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

by special train over the Pennsylvania Friday just for the Capital, there. to have a final dress rehearsal before the opening night. There is a small grain of semiment with Miss Adams in ine matter of making her bow to a Washington audience nist. "The Little Munster," in which she made her first appearance as a star, several years ago, urst saw the light at the Capical; and still shother frem weighed with the ady-whohengton was the birtapate ady the of ner father, Mr. Sames and many of any lotter, Mr. James housedant and an arming, so quant ness two facts combined to give that the preference for the introduction of "Peter Fall, are, Annie Adams ac-companies her daugner south, and with companies her unughter south, and whil remain to witness what everyone ex-pets to be another triumph for the young artist. Nov, 6, at the "Empire" the pay whilstart on its New York run.

Mr. Clarence G. Dresser, of the U. of U. 1903, airived in New York two weeks ago, and whi taxe a post gradtale course in geology at Columbia, Mr. pressel, which the other sait Lake boys -Young, Howells, Accorystal and Marsh- is located at the dormitory, LUMBSIONS HIMI DERF INS COMENS.

Last Wednesday Master Victor Sears, Last Wednesday Multier Victor Sears, fon of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Sears, or Chicago, came to New York to Visit with ans uncee and adult, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sears, for a couple of weeks. Young Mr. Sears stayed over a few days in Washington, D. C., and Phila-sightm. on the way here significant telphin, on his why here signiseeing and visiting triends.

Saturday evening Miss Phobe Scholes ef salt Lake, who has been stopping with her sister, Mrs. Sears, on One Hundred and Second street, Manhattan avenue, for over a month left for Cal-age, where she will meet her sist, r age, shere together they will visit with friends for a week, and both will then and the west, Mrs. Cody, to re-urn to Sloux City, and Miss Scholes, in to block City, and Miss Scholes, is Sait Luke. The few weeks Miss scholes has been a member of the col-eny have chicated her to everyone here, and it is with regret the rood byes were said. The promise of a reputition of the visit soon will recon-cis her sister and friends to her abis her sister and friends to her ab-

"Here's to the Rose," words by F. A. Mills, set to plano accompaniment by H. Sylvester Krodse, also orcnes-trated by the same gentleman, is sell-ing like a whirlwind on Broadway; all the music dealers have it, for it is complet among the gens of song today. Prof. Krouse, whose business house is () West Twenty-eighth street, and whose sidence is 124 West One Hundred and hirty-seventh street, is to be found own town from 11 a. m. until 3 p. m., and yes with a strength a to be found down town from 11 a. ni. until 3 p. m., the hours before and after 11 and 3 be-ing taken up with teaching. His pupils number many, among them being Mrs. Graham Woodward, formerly Miss Lacy Young, daughter of B. H. Young, and Mrs. Sydenia Young, and Mrs. John Barues. Mr. Graham Woodward is with the New York Auditing Co.; their home is on Ninety-third street, between West End and Riverside. Prof. and Mrs. Krouse will move Nov. 1 to "The Ar-ads," West One Hundred and Six-tanth street, where he will welcome is sait Lake friends. No greater lover of Wab and her people can be found tha Prof. Krouse, and he is always home to renew acquaintance with old heppy to renew acquaintance with old perfection,

speech

There are better ways of showing great bargain.

been made the New London headquarters of the society.

25