

IN WEST VIRGINIA.
Death of a Good Friend—Report of the Elders' Labors.

Arcia Taylor, County W. Va., May 21, 1894.—George McNease died in the home of his son, Lige Nease, at Arcia, Tucker County, W. Va., May 21, after an illness of about eight weeks. His name was coined by Indians. He was born in Putnam County, West Virginia, on the 1st of September, 1818. He became a member of the Church of Christ October 1, 1842, and remained a member until his death in November of 1893. He was very kind to his Master, and believed in the truth of his gospel. His character was highly regarded by all. His friends are few, but they are very good and true. They are very fond of the Master and try to live worthy of the mission of their Saviour. His work is progressing slowly and occasionally there is some who would condemn him. The Church of God has lost a good man.

We had the pleasure of five days of helping Mr. William H. Stevens of Marion County, of this state, who thus we are told, is investigating the principles that were taught by the Elders. —R. D. R.

Wayne Stake Conference.

Minutes of the fourth quarterly conference of the Wayne Stake of Zion, held at Thunier, Wayne county, Utah, May 20th and 21st.

Saturday, 20th, President E. M. Hansen called the congregation to order at 10 o'clock a.m., and after singing and prayer, reported that the Stake presidency had visited every ward in the Stake, and had won endorsement during the past three months. The Stake generalities are feeling well and a good spirit prevails throughout the Stake. There is a promising prospect for a good harvest, and the hands here cause no anxiety.

President Edna H. Blackmar was pleased to be able to meet in conference, referred to a motto that hung on the wall, "Gather Labor is learning to live," and taking this for a text spoke for some time upon the blessings that crown the labor of a faithful hand. The speaker also called for a vote upon spiritual, temporal, literary and the science of the human heart.

Hilpin Holt, G. Macmillan reported the Fremont Ward in good condition, he read a revelation given through the Prophet Joseph Smith relative to the power of God to heal, and spoke briefly upon the power of God.

At the afternoon meeting the following wards were reported in good condition: Lehi Ward, by Bishop Benjamin Brewster, East Loc., Bishop Peter J. Christensen, Tharter, Bishop Wm. Steele.

President Garrison H. Rustan believed the Wayne Stake to be in as good condition as his sister stakes; he referred to some revelations given at the last general conference as follows:

The speaker, addressing himself to the youth, advised them to take advantage of the opportunities afforded them to improve their minds, seek out the best classes of moral teachers, and form habits that the Stake presidency are anxious.

Elder John F. Lazear referred to the early settlement of Rabbit Valley; he commented on the day when the settlers were at Green River, when it took a week to get there. The inhabitants of Rabbit Valley were then very few. Today we have stores, flour mills and other improvements in our midst and the hands we met in Stake conference.

Elder Joe J. Anderson addressed the stake on the office work of the Holy Spirit, showing that it is his mission to reveal the will of the Father. He is a wise servant, that applies the truths already given instead of waiting for another to do so. He referred to the stake school work, and encouraged parents to interest themselves in this great labor. Showed the will results of oral playing and horse racing, and advised the youth to abstain from these evils, as we know knowledge that they may obtain power.

A priesthood meeting was held at the close of the afternoon meeting, at which several things were discussed, and it was voted that the stake organization be put in the hands of the brethren present.

Sunday, May 27, 1894, 10 o'clock A.M.—After the usual opening exercises the Toccol, Blue Valley and Carbon wards were represented in a session of the Stake Presidency, Preside, Bishop George Cullom, Unionville, Elder George F. Bush, Blue Valley, Jonathan Hunt.

Elder Joseph Lazear, then addressed the Stake on the necessity of conserving health and keeping the principles of the gospel at home. He said the influence of home in worthies, grandmothers in the world have been productive of more than the influence or power of any other factor excepting man. It is the duty of the Stake Presidency to keep the Sabbath in Israel between the principles of the gospel at home by precept and example. Every Elder should read with gladness the statement of the prophet concerning the importance of the Sabbath, as it is for the Elders who are sent to the welfare of the saints.

President E. M. Hansen read from the Doctrine and Covenants regarding the duty of parents to train children and the consequences resulting upon them if they teach the principles of the gospel to them. He again urged the parents of both and especially the saints to be diligent in this work.

Dr. Charles F. McNease.—After the usual opening exercises each stake president addressed his people. While the movement was not yet advanced, Dr. Thomas A. Austin addressed the saints. Every Master should strive to be worthy to receive the Master's blessing. In this Master's eyes there is no greater honor than that of being a good man. He was sick, there would be many others worthy of consideration. The brethren are to be good men and to be good fathers and husbands. We have to live according with our convictions. We have to live according with our convictions.
