The Utah state kindergarten chose these officers last evening, at the an-nual election: Mrs. Donetti Smith Kes-ler, president; Mrs. H. S. Young and Mrs. G. W. Morse, vice presidents; Miss Scholes, secretary, and Mrs. W. A. Ben-son, treasurer, Beside, these an even on, treasurer. Besides these an execson, treasurer. Besides these an exec-utive board was elected, as follows: Mrs. Ida Dusenberry, Prof. Stewart, Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. J. Fred Kiesel of Ogden, Miss Mary C. May, Mrs. Lucy Clark of Farmington, Mrs. R. K. Thomas and Mrs. Emeline Wells.

The sixth shipment of Webster Dictionaries, amounting to 500 copies, is now in at the "News" office and the ush on them continues at such a rate that it is altogether likely that a seventh consignment will have to be or-dered. Parents who have long wanted a big Webster for their school children, but who have not been able to pay the $8 or $10 asked for it, are seizing with avidity this chance to get the work for one dollar or one dollar and a half as the case may be.

William Sutton, proprietor of the Utah house, will not have to answer in the district court on the charge of at-tempting to murder George Hancock. This morning Judge Diehi rendered his decision in the case and held that Hancock was the aggressor in the row that occurred in the rooming house on the occasion of the trouble, and that Sutton acted in self defense when he fired the two shots. The court ordered Sutton discharged, much to the joy of Mrs. Sutton who greeted her husband most affectionately. Senator Kearns and other residents of east South Temple street are advo-cating the turning of that thoroughfare into a boulevard, as for instance, like Fifty-fifth street in Chicago, by the removal of the streetcar tracks, and all poles, and the parking of the center of the street. It is argued that the First street and First South street service could be increased without diffi-culty, and there would be no complaint THE DESERET NEWS WILL SELL A limited number of the latest edition of the Standard Dictionary for Tithing or store pay.
