

DESERET EVENING NEWS.
September 13, 1888.
LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be in full, and their addresses given. Communications not necessarily for publication, but as a matter of reliability.
THEATRICAL.—This evening, Mr. Lyne receives his benefit and appears as Rolfe for the last time in this Theatre—such is the arrangement. Miss Ince will appear as Elvira, a character to which she is well able to impart a force and vividness that it does not often receive. We should have noticed that Mr. Otinger has kindly consented to play the King Attila, for this occasion, and there is a full chorus of virgins of the sun, with auxiliaries sufficient to give complete details to the details of the play.
In the farce the comic power of the company puts forth its strength. Mr. Margetta playing the redoubtable Peter White, Mrs. Jackson Mrs. Peter, Mrs. Bowring the Widow White, Mr. McKenzie Major Pepper, Mr. Graham Frank Brown and Miss Alexander Kitty Clover. With such a cast "Mr. Peter White" should make mirth of his. Miss Olive dances between.
PEGGING MACHINE.—Stepping into Mr. W. J. Hooper's place, on 2nd South St., yesterday, we were gratified at seeing a pegging machine being used, being the first that we have seen in this Territory. There is no need for a description of the machine, which acts upon simple mechanical principles, and does its work swiftly, neatly and well. From a heap of wood, coiled up like a watch spring, it cuts its own pegs, punches the hole in the sole of the shoe, and then, by means of a small cog wheel, it makes the pegs in a matter of minutes. It is worked by hand, the shoe being placed on a metal rest, and the peg being turned by the hand of the operator. The machine is a simple piece of machinery, and is being used as a means of saving labor and increasing the quantity of work done.
FROM LEHI.—Bro. G. W. Thurmond, writing from Lehi, says the Saints there seem to be in first rate spirits, and times are good. Some have failed to raise any wheat, but a good many have raised good crops of small grain. In Cedar Valley no small grain has been raised, but they have an excellent prospect for corn and potatoes. At Lehi, corn and potatoes look first-rate, but they are troubled with blackbirds, which destroy the corn. An attack was made on the birds over a week ago, by two parties, one led by George Zimmerman and the other by Isaac Allred, and about four hundred of them were killed. Good health and good spirits prevail; meetings are well attended; and the Sunday School, under the energetic superintendency of Bro. Joseph Foster, is in a flourishing condition. All of which shows that Bishop Evans' visit is a success and moving.
SMALL FOX.—We are in receipt of a pamphlet on the important subject "How to prevent small pox," from the pen of S. F. Elliot, M. D., the Health Officer of the Port of San Francisco and Member of the Board of Health of that city. It is published by H. H. Bangs & Co., San Francisco. Containing "opinions of the most eminent physicians in Europe," it really presents in a small space much important matter as the history of small pox; its ravages in various countries; the discovery of vaccination; the practice of inoculation; and the best means with which science is acquainted to prevent its fearful and fatal effects of this terrible disease. The pamphlet is worth the study of all.
MORE ABOUT THE STAGE ROBBERS NORTH.—The Boise Democrat of the 9th comes to us with the account of the escape of the stage robbers who had been captured and the re-arrest of one. They were on the stage, which was driving slowly, and were in charge of Marshal Alford and his deputies, when within a few miles of La Grande, Wheeler and Savage turned from the stage. It was dark, and before the stage could be stopped they had escaped. The Marshal went on to town, secured the prisoners with him, obtained a strong party to assist in the hunt, offered $750 for Wheeler and $500 for Savage, and started in search of them. After an exciting hunt, during which Wheeler killed his pursuers very cleverly several times, the party finally captured him, and when the work was done at latest dates, though it was believed he could not escape as the whole country was on the look out for him.
We have heard from a private source the manner in which the clue was obtained to the discovery and capture of the robbers. As they had been torn into small pieces near the place where the last robbery had been committed, and these small pieces were carefully collected and set truly put together, and when the work was done there was a revelation for the patient worker which fully rewarded him for his pains, giving a distinct clue to the persons of the thieves.
MILDEW IN GRAPES.—We find in an exchange remedy for mildew in grapes and figs, that it is to be most effectual; and it is worth remembering should a necessity ever arise for its application in this region. The remedy is very simple and easily obtained here, consisting simply of spraying the small quantity of mildew around the root of the vine or tree. Vines and figs so treated, where mildew was prevalent, produced plump and healthy fruit, while trees and vines not so treated shed a sickly growth.
MORE DISTINGUISHED TRAVELERS.—Denver is exhibiting over another influx of the great distinguished. This time law and science are represented by names familiar to the continent. Professor Louis Agassiz, of Harvard, Boston; Keene Conkling, U. S. Senator from New York; Hon. Ward Hunt, Chief Justice of the State of New York; Gen. Wm. J. Palmer, and other lesser lights. They left Denver a week ago for a ten days' trip to the South Park country, to return by way of Clear Creek, Gilpin and Jefferson Counties. As it has been expected for some time that Senator Conkling and Professor Agassiz would come to the Territory, it may be that this party will pass through Utah and give our city a call for a few days. Senator Conkling is very rapidly rising man, and Prof. Agassiz, from all we have heard of him, is an honor to science and humanity.
HEAVY CRIME.—The River Reville of the 10th says there are confined in their county jail three persons charged with murder in the first degree; and adds that there has been scarcely a term of the District Court in which some capital offense, generally murder, has not been tried. It points out the absence of the lesser crimes in the country and the number of great crimes that are committed, and gives as the reason that the petty thief and drunkard traveler are contemned, while great criminals—assassins and murderers—are invested with a sort of heroism and excite the sympathies of a considerable part of the people. Publication adds, must be corrected or the evil will grow. More crime odors, and the greater the magnitude the more odious; and teach by precept and practice the superiority of a life free from crime of every kind.
DISTRICT COURT.—The Third Judicial District Court was in session to-day. Yesterday was principally occupied in calling the calendar, and proposing rules of court. There are twenty-eight cases in the docket, of which two are criminal and are appeals from the Probate Court of Box Elder and Tooele Counties.
This morning the case of Henry Moon, Albert Harris, C. B. Horn, Samuel Brown, Wm. Campbell, A. L. Palmer, Simeon Alwood, Wm. H. Solomon, David Day, Foster Curtis. Proceedings then commenced in the case of Oliver L. Gardner vs. Wells, Fargo & Co.
DEATH.—Yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, Fanny, child of Samuel D. and Mary Ellen Strine, aged two years. The funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
ARRIVED.—We are happy to welcome to Salt Lake City, Elder John Haisall from the Preston Conference, England. Bro. Haisall was among the first ordained to the priesthood in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in that country. His presence and genial countenance recall to our memory the many pleasant moments we have enjoyed in his company. We are on a mission to that country. May God bless and prosper him, and may he live long to enjoy the blessings and the greater the magnitude the more odious; and teach by precept and practice the superiority of a life free from crime of every kind.
Bro. Haisall is in the enjoyment of robust health after his long journey.
