

Edwin Scott, son of Joseph U. and Mary Berry Scott; born at Stockport, Cheshire, England, August 13, 1826; baptized in the Church in the same place March 5th, 1840. He afterwards removed to the city of Manchester, becoming an active worker in the Church there and in the surrounding towns, utilizing his spare time from his work as a weaver in the cotton mills visiting the Saints and spreading the Gospel on every opportunity. He was ordained a Priest in 1851, and an Elder in 1853. In the year 1854 he was called from the factory to labor in the ministry in opening up new fields in the Manchester conference, in which labor he was very successful, being greatly blessed with power to preach the words of life to the understanding of all. He was subsequently called to travel in the Preston and Liverpool conferences, including the Isle of Man, from which place he was sent to preside over the Norwich Conference, where he worked faithfully until released to emigrate to Utah in 1862.

He married Ann Reid, Oct. 16, 1847, by whom he was ably sustained and encouraged in all of his labors in the cause of truth, she sharing with him the joys and sorrows of life and the struggles of the early settlers of Utah, Juab and Sanpete counties. She went to the other shore about twenty months before him, since which he has, at times, been despondent in his loneliness, often talking with the writer of his approaching end and giving directions for the disposition of his effects and the arrangements for his funeral and of his and his wife's graves. Before starting on that fatal ride he told the writer and others that before the trees and bushes by which he was then surrounded bore their fruit he would be on the other side. How soon his words proved true!

He bore his sufferings with much patience, expressing his readiness to die in the Lord so willed, repeatedly testifying to the truth of the latter-day Gospel, and exhorting those around him to lives of faithfulness in the same. He had been an active member of the High Priests' quorum for many years, by the members of which he was honored and respected, as well as by the entire community, which turned out in large numbers at the funeral. In his death another good man is gathered to the fathers, by whom his unflinching integrity will doubtless be appreciated. Blessings on his memory.

ROBERT WM. BURTON.

PARK VALLEY, May 7, 1894.—On April 30 Park Valley was called to mourn the loss of one of her worthy young men, Robert Wm. Burton, the beloved son of Joseph H. and Martha Burton. Deceased was born at North Ogden, June 1, 1879. His early life was spent at Park Valley, where he passed through a great deal of suffering. When about five years of age he was taken with malignant diphtheria, which made a total wreck of his health. Soon after this he was taken with St. Vitus' dance, and when seven years old he was kicked in the face by a horse. This chain of diseases kept him in a sickly condition, until he was taken with the dropsy, which was the cause of his death.

The deceased was faithful, studious, and loving to his parents, and his kindness to dumb animals far excelled that of the average boy. He was very prompt in performing any part assigned him in the Sabbath school, or the Y. M. M. I. A. and was over ready to perform any duty required of him by the ward authorities. Just previous to his death it was thought advisable to ordain him to the office of a Deacon but before the ordinance was performed his spirit was called back to the spirit world, to await that period when he shall be called forth from his grave to join again with his parents and friends in a state of immortality.

CHARLOTTE LOUISA BURROWS.

BRIGHAM CITY, May 18, 1894.

The angel of death has visited the home of our worthy brother and sister John and Mary Burrows, taking their daughter Charlotte Louisa. She died Tuesday, the 15th, at half-past 9 a.m., of inflammation of the lungs and bowels.

The funeral services were held in the First ward meeting house. They were very impressive and words of comfort were offered by the brethren who were in attendance, President Clawson and Counselor Kelly and others. What makes it more distressing to the family is that her father is now on a mission in England and Sister Burrows feels the loss severely, as she was their oldest daughter and a great help to the family. She was 18 years of age on the 21st of January last, was a constant attendant at the Sabbath school and Y. L. M. I. A., and the association members showed their love for her by turning out en masse and marching ahead of the hearse. Six members of the Young Men's association acted as pall bearers. A long train of carriages followed the body to its last resting place. The deceased was a lovely young lady and had the confidence of all who knew her. The dedicatory prayer at the grave was offered by Elder Peter A. Fosgreen. The family have the sympathy of the community.

JOHN JENKINS.

SAMARIA, Idaho, May 15, 1894.—John Jenkins died at his home in Samaria May 2, 1894, after an illness of about three weeks. He had been ailing off and on all winter. His death was caused by a complication of diseases. He was the son of David Ann Jenkins and was born June 19, 1851, in Cwmback, near Aberdare, Glamorganshire, South Wales; received the Gospel when a boy and emigrated to Salt Lake in 1868. He came to Samaria in 1869, where he married Mary Williams and lived with his family to the day of his death.

Brother Jenkins had taken an active part in the latter-day work in this ward and Stake for several years, being a counselor to the Bishop for a few years and afterwards an assistant to the Stake superintendency of the Sunday schools.

The funeral services were held at the family residence, the Stake presidency presiding. Elders O. C. Haskins, McCrary and W. H. Gibbs, Elder David Morgan and Bishops Harrison and Evans participated in the services. Brother Jenkins left a sorrowful wife and seven grief-stricken children to mourn his untimely death.

About sixty vehicles accompanied the remains to their resting place.

THOMAS WEEKS.

EMMA OVERY.

[Rock Springs, Wyo., Miner, May 17.]

On Friday morning last little Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Overy, slept peacefully away. She had been ailing for thirteen weeks and was thought to be on a fair way to recovery, when her soul took its flight to the One who gave it.

Emma was 11 years of age, one of twins, and was a great favorite in the family, being a child of a very kind, gentle and loving disposition. Her twin brother survives her.

The funeral took place from the Mormon church at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. So great was the attendance that many were unable to gain admittance. Nearly the entire population of Hopkins was present. Appropriate hymns were sung by the choir and solemn services held, then the little casket, covered with floral offerings, was borne to the grave and quietly laid away amid sorrow and tears. The mother, father, sisters, and brothers feel most keenly the loss of their little Emma, who had endeared herself to their hearts.

Mr. and Mrs. Overy are exemplary parents and to lose one of their brightest gems is like crushing their hope in life. The sympathy of this entire community goes out to them in their sad affliction.
