BLESSEDNESS.

A number of our friends have decided wear the matrimonial yoke. Warren, one of our district school teachers, and Miss Charlotte Evans, were made one Saturday evening, leaving for Salt Lake the next morning, where Mr. Warren attends summer school at the University. Then sweet gentle Nellie Taylor, another school teacher in the district and Sabbath schools, and secretary of the T. L. M. L. A., was married to Mr. Anderton of Richfield. We will miss Nellie very much, but our loss will be someone else's gain. Last, but not least is Uncle Nathan Benson, who has seen the snows of more than seventy winters, has just left for the Manti Temple with Sister Emeline Grimshaw, who has enjoyed the blossoms of fifty summers. Both have knelt at hymen's altar before and can testify that marriage is no failure. They are a worthy couple and have the best wishes of their many friends.
