Crowds! Crowds! Crowds!

A SURGING SEA OF PLEASED HUMANITY EVERY DAY THIS WEEK.
AND IF WE HAD MORE ROOM, THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN MORE PEOPLE.

For the last day of the week there'll be a Relentless Slaughter in every Dept. It's the Money-Savers Opportunity, the Event, Infinitely Greater and Grander than any Clearing Sale Salt Lake has ever known. Extraordinary as have been the Bargains to date, for the last day of this week they will be little Short of Marvelous. Buy for future wants, Buy Liberally. Such a chance will never occur again.

It's a Sale in Which the People Can Revel in Bargains to Their Hearts Content.

PRESIDENT HEARS OF HIS NOMINATION

He Was Sitting on the Veranda Talking With His Family When News Arrived.

HE SHOWED NO GREAT SURPRISE

Received Hundreds of Congratulatory Telegrams, Including One From Senator Smoot.

Washington, June 23.—Surrounded by members of his family, President Roosevelt received the announcement that he had been nominated unanimously by the Republicans at Chicago. The news was received by telephone at the White House by a reporter of the Associated Press in advance of its receipt over the special telegraph wire running from Chicago to the executive offices. At 2:13 p. m. the bulletin was given to Secy. Loeb. Some time before the president had left his offices in the executive building and had gone to the White House for luncheon. Secy. Loeb immediately conveyed the news to him there. Seated on the veranda of the White House chatting with Mrs. Roosevelt, his sister-in-law, Miss Carey and other members of his family, the president received Mr. Loeb's announcement.

CONGRATULATIONS. President Roosevelt rose from his chair to receive the affectionate congratulations of those about him. He was the most unconcerned, seemingly, of all. He chatted animatedly a few minutes with Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Carey and Mr. Loeb, and then accompanied his secretary to the executive offices.

Outward indications that Theodore Roosevelt was about to be chosen unanimously as the standard bearer of the party absolutely were lacking at the White House in the morning. The president appeared at his desk at the usual hour and began immediately to transact executive business with Secy. Loeb. The important subjects disposed of, he received several visitors for whom engagements had been made. No members of the cabinet called during the early hours of the business day. The president was kept in close touch with the situation at Chicago through the press bulletins and private messages from the convention hall, which were received over a special wire at the White House.

GREETING NEWSPAPER MEN. On his return to the executive offices after he had been informed of his nomination, President Roosevelt greeted cordially a number of newspaper men. He expressed his pleasure at receiving the warm congratulations of those who in the performance of their duties are kept constantly in touch with the president and his work. Sitting tilted back in a big arm chair at his desk, the president chatted freely and frankly with those about him. All were his personal friends, and the president realized perfectly that the little confidences of the "executive session," as he himself termed it, would be held as inviolable. He talked and acted, not as the standard bearer of a great political party, but as Theodore Roosevelt, the man and friend. With genial gallantry he chatted with one, exchanged comments on men and things with another, laughed heartily at the cartoon of himself to which attention was drawn; sketched in a free hand way incidents of the convention; recalled some interesting situations, personal and political, and, in conclusion, again thanked his friends for expressions of their congratulations.

A FLOOD OF TELEGRAMS. Aside from Secy. Loeb, Asst. Secy. of State Francis B. Loomis was the first to congratulate the president to extend his congratulations. Later in the day, White House to felicitate him upon his nomination. During the late afternoon and the early evening telegrams from all parts of the country poured into the White House offices by the score, each bearing its words of cheer and good wishes.

As soon as the president received news of the nomination of Senator Fairbanks as the candidate for vice-president, he sent to him a telegram of congratulation, and shortly afterward received an answer expressing appreciation of the distinction conferred by the nomination. Among the telegrams received was one from a few of his Long Island neighbors, as follows:

FROM OLD NEIGHBORS.
"Garden City, N. Y., June 23.—The President, White House, Washington:—Your Nassau neighbors send greetings and congratulations, wishing you all prosperity and a continued career of usefulness to the nation. A triumphant election will be but your well merited reward."

"LEWIS, CHESHIRE, JOHNSON, YOUNGS."

ROUGH RIDERS' MESSAGE.
A party of the famous Rough Riders sent this message:
"Convention Hall, Chicago, June 23.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Washington:—Your comrades of '98, delegates to this great convention, congratulate you on this, one of the greatest events in American history. Every soldier of your regiment will be on duty from now until you are elected president. May God bless you."

"ALEX. O. BRODIE, W. H. R. LLEWELLYN, T. J. LEBLEY, E. DAME, W. S. SIMPSON."

A telegram received yesterday from Gov. Carter of Hawaii and others equally well known follows: "President Roosevelt, White House.—Several Yale men awaiting with joyful anticipation tomorrow just recognition of your services to country and party.—Carter, Heffelfinger, Sheffield, Williams."

Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the United States were received by the president tonight. They included telegrams from White-law Reid, Senator Aldrich, the Union League club of Philadelphia, the Marquette club of Chicago, Congressman Foss of Illinois and Senator Alger.

SENATOR SMOOT'S CONGRATULATIONS.
"Chicago, June 23.—President Theodore Roosevelt: Congratulations. My heart is with you. May success ever be yours."
REED SMOOT.

ETZEL'S SISTER. She and Her Mother Will Ask Heavy Damages.

Denver, June 23.—Miss Anna B. Etzel, sister of Lewis Etzel, the war correspondent killed by Chinese soldiers off Newchwang, has been officially notified that an investigation made by United States Minister Conner brought out the fact that the killing was entirely unprovoked and without provocation, and she and her mother will make a claim for $20,000 indemnity on the Chinese government. The state department will bring the matter before the Chinese government.

LIFE IN COLORADO.

Must Wear a Federation Button In Cripple Creek.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 23.—The Citizens' Alliance has ordered 3,000 buttons for coat lapels bearing this inscription: "They can't come back." Every man in the district who is opposed to the Western Federation of Miners is expected to wear the motto.

Coal Strike Will Go On.

Pueblo, Colo., June 23.—The delegate convention of district No. 15, United Mine Workers of America, decided by a unanimous vote today that the strike in the southern Colorado coal fields shall be prosecuted vigorously and that they will carry on the strike without national support if necessary. No further efforts will be made to secure a conference with the operators.

KILLED THE FUGITIVE.

Marshal McCann Stopped Wm. Sherar With a Bullet.

Helena, Mont., June 23.—Marshal William McCann this afternoon shot and fatally wounded William Sherar, a typical example of the "yegg" criminal class, while the latter was attempting to escape from the officer, who had twice summoned the fleeing man to halt. Sherar refused and was shot from the county jail upon his promise to leave the city, but instead of doing so he proceeded to the southern portion of the city, where he began to abuse and frighten women. The bullet from McCann's revolver went clear through the man's body, piercing the heart, but, despite this fact, he ran a block and lived for about seven hours.

Comment on Ticket.

London, June 24.—Few of the morning papers comment on the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Fairbanks at Chicago, although all of them print long accounts of the proceedings. The editorials treat of the result as a foregone conclusion.

The Morning Post says that if Senator Fairbanks adds little to the strength of the party ticket, he cannot be said to detract from it. The nomination of Mr. Fairbanks, the paper says, as a running mate of Mr. Roosevelt, who preferred another, may be regarded not as a revolt against Roosevelt, but as a hint that the state of New York that the president is not all powerful. Other newspapers, if they comment at all upon the result of the convention, make only the most casual mention of it.

Peace Pro Tem in San Domingo.

Washington, June 23.—Semi-official advices received at the state department give in detail the negotiations by which peace was accomplished in San Domingo. Much credit is given Capt. Cullingham of the Detroit for the services he rendered while there.

The writer says that he feels sure "we can now expect peace for a long time, and that the Morales government will consolidate the country. The people who could now start a revolution have entered into the above agreement and are disgusted with Jimenes. The man has entirely lost his prestige, and I hardly think we shall hear of him again as the chief of a revolution."

Fruit of Deportation.

Denver, June 23.—Emil L. Johnson, a miner, who was deported from Cripple Creek by the military, committed suicide here today. He was despondent because his wife and two small children were left destitute in Cripple Creek.

Will Re-establish Oriental Lines.

Portland Or., June 24.—It is stated that the China Commercial steamship company will re-establish its line of steamships between here and the Orient. Last fall the China Commercial established a line in conjunction with the Portland & Asiatic company's line when the latter company was unable to accept all the freight offered. When the Russo-Japanese war broke out the oriental trade became demoralized, and the China Commercial temporarily withdrew. A reaction has set in and the Portland & Asiatic company is again finding trouble in handling its business.

Lectureship in Russian History.

New York, June 24.—In following a policy adopted during the Boxer troubles in China, when a department of Chinese was established, Columbia university has announced that next fall a lectureship in Russian history will be started under the auspices of the faculty of political science. The first incumbent of the new chair will be Dr. Vladimir Simkovitch, who has been the supervisor of the department of serials in the university library.

Slungshots for Jefferson Guards.

St. Louis, June 24.—The Jefferson guards at the world's fair grounds have been notified that they will be equipped with a new defensive weapon. In a circular letter signed by Lieut. Charles Brooks Clark, the quartermaster, the guards were informed that they are authorized to carry slungshots in the future, and also to use them whenever necessary. The slungshots are heavily loaded with lead, and are securely attached to the wrist. They are being issued by the quartermaster's office.

A Very Strange Suicide.

New York, June 24.—Overcome by the news that his wife, who is an invalid, must undergo a dangerous operation to save her life, Carl Schmidt, a wealthy mining promoter and vice president of the Gold Ore Mining company of Ontario, Canada, killed himself in his home here.

Indian Fishermen on Strike.

Vancouver, B. C., June 23.—The striking Indian salmon fishermen remain firm in their refusal to fish in the Skeena this season unless the cannery grants them 10 cents per fish on lays instead of 7 cents, as offered. Sockeyes are commencing to run on the river in small numbers. A larger run is expected daily, and out of a possible 800 boats but 300 are fishing, and they are nearly all manned by Japanese.

THIRTY PERSONS KILLED IN WRECK.

Madrid, June 23.—Thirty persons were killed last night in a train wreck in the province of Ternes (one of the most mountainous in Spain, abounding in torrents). The train was derailed on a bridge over the Jiloca river and the coaches were burned.

The bridge took fire and the engine fell into the river, dragging a number of coaches behind it. A terrific storm was raging at the time, and the wind fanned the flames.

Some of the coaches were caught on the projecting parts of the bridge and hung in mid-air, and by the light of the burning bridge passengers could be seen jumping into the river.

Relief trains have been sent from Teruel, capital of the province, and 72 miles northwest of Valencia.

The victims were mostly gendarmes. In addition to the large death list it is feared many were injured.

MARTIAL LAW.

Gen. Bell Says it is in Cripple Creek to Stay Indefinitely.

Denver, June 24.—The News today says: After a lengthy conference, between Actg.-Gov. Haggett and Adit.-Gen. Bell a reduction of the military force in the Cripple Creek district and a change in the disposition of the remaining forces has been determined upon.

"There is no prospect of martial law being declared off or that the military will be wholly withdrawn in the immediate future," said the general. "The step we are taking must not be construed to mean such withdrawal. Martial law and the soldiers are there to stay indefinitely. We simply have the situation so in hand as to be able to rearrange the forces to advantage."
