DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. VI. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 29, 1873. NO. 288.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Silver Payments.

WASHINGTON, 28.—Not over one hundred dollars in silver coin was paid out by the treasury here to-day.

Coupons to be Funded.

NEW YORK, 28.—The directors of the central branch of the U. P. road have determined to ask the first mortgage bond-holders to fund the first seven coupons maturing subsequent to November 1st, and they have prepared a series of bonds for that purpose.

Fire—Killed—Found Dead.

Merrill's furniture store house was burned this evening; loss heavy, to private families mostly.

Charles Boardman, an Adams Express messenger, was killed by a collision with a street car this evening.

G. H. Harris, of Chicago, was found dead in his room at the Libby House this evening.

Munificent.

The Board of Aldermen, at a special meeting this afternoon, appropriated $50,000 for the aid of the Memphis yellow fever sufferers.

Denied—The Shanks Case—Rmuainly Outrage.

The motion, in the bond forgery cases of Gleason and Roberts, to admit them to bail to-day, was denied by recorder Hackett. Geo. Wilkes, an alleged accomplice, was discharged for want of evidence.

After a debate to-day in the Shanks contempt case, Judge Fancher adjourned the further hearing to Nov. 5.

At noon, to-day, three ruffians entered the house of Mr. Biefke, Amity street, seized Mrs. B. and poured some stupefying liquor down her throat and then ransacked the house, and were about leaving when the husband returned; the robbers fled.

Royal Letters.

The following is the full text of the letters which recently passed between the Emperor of Germany and the Pope, a brief synopsis of which was cabled a few days ago—

"Vatican, 7 Aug., 1873.

"Your Majesty—

"The measures which have been adopted by your majesty's government for some time past, all aim more and more at the destruction of Catholicism. When I seriously ponder over the causes which may have led to these very harsh measures, I confess that I am unable to discover any reasons for such a course. On the other hand I am informed that your majesty does not countenance the proceedings of your government, and does not approve of the harshness of the measures adopted against the Catholic religion. If then, it be true, that your majesty does not approve thereof, and the letters which your august majesty addressed to me formerly might sufficiently demonstrate that you cannot approve of that which is now occurring; If, I say, your majesty does not approve of your government continuing in the path it has chosen, of further extending its rigorous measures against the religion of Jesus Christ, whereby the latter is not injuriously affected, will your majesty then not become convinced that these measures have no other effect than that of undermining your majesty's own throne? I speak with frankness, for my banner is truth. I speak in order to fulfil one of my doctrines, which consists in telling the truth to all, even to those who are not Catholics, for every one who has been baptized belongs in some way or other, which to define more precisely would be here out of place, belongs, I say, to the Pope. I cherish the conviction that your majesty will receive my observations with your usual goodness, and will adopt the measures necessary in the present case. While offering to your most gracious majesty an expression of my devotion and esteem, I pray God that he may enfold your majesty and myself in one and the same bond of mercy.

(Signed) "PIUS."

The emperor replied as follows:

"BERLIN, Sept. 3rd.

"I am glad your holiness has, as in former times, done me the honor to write to me. I rejoice more at this, since an opportunity is hereby afforded me of correcting errors, which appear from the contents of the letter of your holiness, relative to German affairs. If the reports which are made to your holiness respecting German questions only stated truth, it would not be possible for your holiness to entertain the supposition that my government enters upon a path which I do not approve. According to the constitution of my States such a case cannot happen, since the laws and government measures in Prussia require my consent, and as a sovereign I can only feel deep sorrow that a portion of my Catholic subjects have organized for the past two years, a political party which endeavors to disturb, by intrigues hostile to the state, the re religious peace which has existed in Prussia for centuries. The leading Catholic priests have, unfortunately, not only approved this movement, but joined in it to the extent of open revolt against existing laws. It will not have escaped the observation of your holiness that similar indications manifest themselves at the present time in several European and in some transatlantic States. It is not my mission to investigate the causes by which the clergy and faithful of one of the Christian denominations can be induced to actively assist the enemies of all law. But it is certainly my mission to protect internal peace, and to preserve the authority of the laws in the States where the government has been intrusted to me by God. In the accomplishment of this, my kingly duty, I shall maintain order and law in my States against all attacks, as long as God gives me power. I am in duty bound to do it as a Christian monarch, even when, to my sorrow, I have to fulfil this royal duty against the servants of a church which, I suppose, acknowledges, no less than the Evangelical Church, that the command to yield obedience, to secular authority, is an emanation of the revealed will of God. Many of the priests in Prussia, subject to your holiness, disown, to my regret, Christian doctrine in this respect, and place my government under the necessity, supported by the great majority of loyal Catholic and Evangelical subjects, of extorting obedience to law by worldly means. I willingly entertain the hope that your holiness, upon being informed of the true position of affairs, will use your authority to put an end to the agitation carried on amid deplorable distortion of truth and abuse of priestly authority. The religion of Jesus Christ has, I attest to your holiness, before God, nothing to do with these intrigues, any more than has truth, to whose banner, invoked by your holiness, I unreservedly subscribe. There was one more expression in the letter of your holiness which I cannot pass over without contradiction, although it is not based on previous information, but upon the belief of your holiness, namely the expression that every one that has received baptism belongs to the Pope. The evangelical creed which, as must be known to your holiness, I, like my ancestors and the majority of my subjects, profess, does not permit us to accept in our relations to God any other mediator than our Lord Jesus Christ. Difference of belief does not prevent me from living in peace with those who do not share mine, and offering your holiness the expression of my personal devotion and esteem.

"(signed) "WILLIAM."

Aid for Orphans.

UTICA, N., 28.—Ex-Governor Seymour has received a telegram from E. P. Brodstreet, of Cincinnati, asking that he and Senator Conkling take charge of the fund for the benefit of the Memphis orphans, to be raised by placing extra ballot boxes at the polls at the coming elections, to receive donations, as was done at the recent election in Cincinnati. There is authority for saying that Seymour and Conkling will accept the charge, and that they ask for a liberal response to this call for aid to the sufferers.

The Modocs—Trains on Time.

CHEYENNE, 28.—The Modocs passed here to-day, en route to Fort McPherson, where they will be quartered instead of at Fort D. A. Russell. Hundreds of citizens were at the depot to see them.

The weather is fine. All the trains are on time. The travel on the Union Pacific is unusually large.

Destroyed by Fire.

ST. LOUIS, 28.—A fire in east St. Louis, this afternoon, destroyed the extensive sawmill of Morse, Doggett & Co., with a large amount of lumber, and several small houses adjoining. Loss from $50,000 to $75,000.

No Fight.

Allen and Hogan both returned to the city this evening. It is said that the stake holder, James Eagan, has decided that the fight shall take place two weeks from to-day.

Indians Hostile.

The Republican has a special from Dennison, Texas, which says that Lieut. Quinby, from Fort Richardson, had arrived there. He reports that the Indians in that region are very hostile, and that several murders were committed by them during the past week, and stock run off. A family living near Wichita were butchered. The settlers fled to a ranche in that vicinity, where they were beseiged by large bands of Indians. Two companies of soldiers left Fort Richardson on Monday in pursuit of the savages. There was the greatest alarm among the frontier settlers. The Indians are believed to be Comanches.

Wanted Vengeance.

PHILADELPHIA, 28.—An exciting scene occurred in the criminal court this morning during the trial of James Kingswell, for the murder of Francis Malone, the son of the deceased entering the room and making a savage attack upon the prisoner, attempting to stab him and crying for vengeance against his father's murderer.

The Fever Yielding.

MEMPHIS, 28.—The mortuary report for the past twenty-four hours to six this p. m., shows fourteen deaths from yellow fever, and from other causes nine. Of the deaths to-day nine were negroes, five of yellow fever. Memphis ventures to hope that her hour of relief has come, and that the scourge has yielded to the ice king. It has been cold to-day, and ice has formed in the gutters.

Fever Statistics.

MARSHALL, Tex., 28.—The total number of deaths from yellow fever since its appearance is sixty, of which twenty-two took place last week. There was a frost last night, and the ice is an eighth of an inch thick this morning. There are prospects of a black frost to-night, which it is hoped will prevent the further spread of the pestilence. It is estimated that at least fifty cases are under treatment in this city and county.

Trial Refused—Appointed.

CHICAGO, 28.—The supreme court has refused a new trial in the case of A. J. Perteet, the colored wife murderer, convicted in the criminal court of this city, and his execution is fixed for Friday, the 12th December next.

E. Frank Leonard has been appointed superintendent of the insurance department in the auditor's office, Illinois, in place of Wm. Stadden, deceased.

Murder.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., 28.—John M. Laughlin was found dead on the road yesterday, with his breast and throat mangled by a charge of shot; the supposed murderer is his cousin, with whom he was on bad terms, and who has disappeared. This is the fourth murder in the county within six months.

CANADA.

Parliamentary.

OTTAWA, 28. — Parliament met again to-day, and after the transaction of the regular business the debate on the address was re-opened by Sir Francis Hincks.

MEXICO.

Revolution Ended.

MATAMORAS, 27.—It is announced that the revolutionists succeeded in securing Gen. Hepeda, near Cardila on Saturday, after his defeat, and that he renounced his pretensions and submitted to the authorities which deposed him and elected Doctor Salas governor, and that his followers will surrender. Saltillo is held by federal troops, who confine themselves to sustaining the authority of the general government, leaving the State authorities to settle the local dispute. The revolution is regarded as ended in the State of Coachilo.
