OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, UTAH, - FEB. 19, 1902.

ON TRIAL FOR BURGLARY.

Major Glasman Pays His Fine, but is Still Defiant.

Will of T. C. Chamberlin Discovered - Divorce Suit - Lap Robe Thief Caught - The City Battle.

The hearing in the case of the state of Utah vs. Harry Wadell and Fred Shattuck, charged with the burglary of Browning Bros. run store on December 1, 1901, was continued yesterday afternoon before Judge Rolapp and a jury. Officers Gillespie and a jury. Judge Rolapp testified to the fact that the store was broken into by the defendants and the subsequent arrest of the defendants and the other two defendants, who are also charged with the crime.

The next witness called was the most important witness for the state, Amos Campbell, a young man who has been lodging at the county jail for the past few days while he awaited trial. He testified that he had been in a cell next to the defendants in the jail, that one day while he was lying on the bed he overheard Wadell and Shattuck in conversation in the corridor in which they discussed their burglary of Browning Brothers store, which was as follows: "On the evening of the 1st of December, we broke into the store and walked up Twenty-fourth street to Washington avenue, that Shattuck walked along Washington avenue first towards Twenty-fifth street and then down Twenty-fifth street to the place of lodging and in a couple of days went to Salt Lake, where they were arrested. That Wadell and Shattuck both said that they did not want any direct evidence could be brought against them at the hearing, as they had kept good watch the night of the burglary and were sure that no one had seen them commit the crime."

At this juncture the state rested and the testimony of the defense was taken. A. E. Knudsen, clerk at the Ogden house on Twenty-fifth street, was the first witness called. He testified that Shattuck came to the hotel on Sunday night, Dec. 1, and paid $25 for a room; that he showed him the room about 9:30 in the evening, but that he did not see him after he went to the room.

Wm. H. Stackhouse, a blacksmith in the employ of the Southern Pacific, was the next witness called. He testified that he had been paying a visit to Wadell and Shattuck at their place of lodging on Twenty-first street, for about four weeks before the alleged burglary; that he (Wadell) was at the Stackhouse home on the night of the burglary, and was there from five to ten days after the burglary. In cross-examination he became somewhat ruffled and said he did not know who he was talking to, or just when the burglary was perpetrated, but knew nevertheless that Wadell was not out of his house the night of the burglary.

Harry Wadell, the defendant, was next placed on the witness stand and testified that he had been staying at the Stackhouse home, and did not have any conversation with the burglary. He also denied having been conversing with Shattuck as had been testified to by Campbell.

Fred Shattuck also testified in his own behalf to the fact that he stayed at the Ogden hotel on the night of Dec. 1 and was not out of his room after going to bed that night. He also denied having had a talk with Wadell about the matter.

This completed the taking of the testimony and the arguments were commenced this morning by District Attorney Hayes and James Ingobretsen for the state, and Attorney McCormick for the defense.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Suit has been filed in the Second district court by James McEwan against Ethel McEwan to secure a decree of divorce. The complaint sets forth that the plaintiff and defendant were married in St. Louis, Mo., on the 12th of January, 1895, and that since that time the grounds of cruelty and intemperance have existed.

WILL OF T. C. CHAMBERLIN.

In the matter of the estate of T. C. Chamberlin, deceased, James Fingrove was in court and opened the case by his counsel, who was a will which the deceased devised to his children, Jesse Jenkins, Eva May, and a portion of his property of every description to the heirs of John M. Holladay, of Temple Court, New York City, and his wife, Mary A. Chamberlin. The will was read in court.

THE MAYOR PAYS HIS FINE.

The following letter with a check for $10, to pay Mayor Wm. Glasman's fine imposed by Judge Rolapp, for his violation of the quarantine laws, was received by the judge:

Ogden, Utah, Feb. 18, 1902.

To the Hon. Albert Howell, Judge of the Municipal Court:

Dear Sir: I herewith with my check for $10 in payment of the fine imposed by your honorable court for the technical violation of the health law. It was my intention to appeal the case, but learning that the expense to the city would be $100, I prefer to pay the fine. The mayor's salary is sufficient to pay five such fines each and every month, and if necessary to root out corruption and crime from this city, I will be behind post house doors, I will only be too pleased to pay the fines.

Very respectfully yours,

WM. GLASMAN.

THIEF CAUGHT.

Last evening Dr. H. J. Powers had a lap robe stolen from his buggy on Twenty-fourth street by J. W. Williams and Ole Johnson. The owner took the robe to Nelson & Pells' livery stable where he tried to sell it. Mr. Nelson thought that the robe belonged to Dr. H. J. Powers, and placed the man under arrest, holding him until the doctor came. Ole Johnson, who has often been in the tolls of police court for late for stealing, was also arrested implicated in the theft.

RENOVATING CITY BATTLE.

The interior of the city jail is undergoing a general cleaning which is needed badly, all the cells have been thoroughly washed and renovated. The oldest of the bedding has been burned, and the other bedding has been thoroughly cleaned. A good supply of new quilts has been bought and will be kept for the use of women or sick people who may need the care of the police. Rock has arrived at the stockade and the prisoners will be given medical culture training on the rock pile.

WILSON-MCCARTY WEDDING.

Samuel McCarty and Miss Annie Wilson, two well known young Ogden residents, were married yesterday afternoon by Judge Joseph Hall. Judge Hall has been actively ill for nearly three weeks, with pneumonia, confined to his bed, but now so far recovered as to be able to get around in the house.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Mrs. D. H. Perry and daughter Louise have returned home from a pleasant visit to the coast. Postmaster S. W. Ross, of Lehi, is visiting in Ogden. The Weber State academy literary society will give a ball in the academy hall Thursday evening. J. H. Griffin of Terrace, Utah, is doing business in Ogden. G. A. Gibbs of Salt Lake is in Ogden this week in the interest of the proposed electric car line. The ladies minstrelns will appear at the stockade tonight. O. B. Gibson has returned home from a business and pleasure trip east.

IT DAZZLES THE WORLD.

No discovery in medicine has ever created one quarter of the excitement that has been caused by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is a new discovery in the treatment of the most common and dangerous disease of the human system. It is a new discovery in the treatment of the most common and dangerous disease of the human system. It is a new discovery in the treatment of the most common and dangerous disease of the human system.

PROVO.

STILL CLAIMS WEDDING A JOKE.

Guard Elmer a Captain—Court Notes - Blohm-Petersen Nuptials.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Feb. 19.—A typographical error in the note in last evening's "News" on the trip to Provo of Mr. Fuller and Miss Thorpe, makes it appear that a marriage certificate was issued to Mr. Fuller and Miss Mathis. This is an error, as the affair is reported here. The man who performed the ceremony, it is said, did not issue a marriage certificate to them, and no such document was signed by them, and that in connection with the ceremony, according to the Fuller's statement, that the marriage ceremony was a "joke," is what he heard in making the claim that the ceremony was not valid. A marriage license giving the couple legal permission to marry, was, however, issued to them in the regular form by the county clerk of Carbon county.

CAPTAIN R. H. THOMAS.

Second Lieutenant R. H. Thomas, company G, U. S., was last evening elected captain to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Captain Buch. Col. Park came down to take charge of the election. He has been in the company on the efficiency it has attained in the short time it has been organized, and bestowed high praise on Captain Buch for his ability as a commander. The election was held at the residence of Mrs. Frank Greenwood, whose chances of recovery are considered very doubtful, and Mr. Roy Stockham, who is on the road to recovery.

A POOR MILLIONAIRE.

Lately starved in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of Dr. King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach, aid digestion, promote assimilation, improve appetite, Price $2.00 by mail. Back if not satisfactory. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

PANGUITCH.

VICTIMS OF DIPHTHERIA.

All Public Gatherings Suspended, Pending Abatement of Disease.

Special Correspondence.

Panguitch, Garfield County, Feb. 16.—The little five-year-old daughter of Albert D. Clark, and the 15-year-old son of Fred Jud, both of Santaquin, Utah, victims of diphtheria, and both were buried Wednesday. Since then three cases of diphtheria have developed, but the doctors say they are out of danger.

IN THE COURTS.

The application of John M. Holladay, of Santaquin, for letters of administration in the estate of Henrietta Holladay, deceased, has been set for hearing March 1.

KLONDIKER TO WED.

A marriage license was issued to Lewis F. Peterson, 29, and Dora Blom, 18, both of Santaquin yesterday. Mr. Peterson returned from the Klondike country a few weeks ago. He has properties on Wade creek which he expects will bring him some fortune, and he intends to return to the north some time this spring.

Illness of Patriarch Ed. Cliff - Lectures by Prof. John T. Miller.

Special Correspondence.

Mount Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Feb. 18.—Young men of American Fork were yesterday permitted to plead guilty before the justice of the peace, to petty larceny and fined $25 each, which they paid, for entering a house in American Fork and taking $5.

Coughing?

Start at once for your drug store for some cough medicine. If you meet your doctor on the way, tell him you are going after a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he has anything better to offer you, get it. We want to help you, and so does your doctor.

"I coughed terribly after having a gripe. If it had not been for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I don't think I could possibly have pulled through."

MONROE.

LEWIS TO HEIR MAGLEY.

Goold-Johnson Nuptials - Sunday School Superintendency.

Special Correspondence.

Monroe, Sevier Co., Feb. 17.—The arrival on Tuesday last of Elder Magley, one of the members of the B. Y. A. South American exploring expedition, was highly enjoyed by every member of the ward. A reception party was tendered him on Friday. The program consisted of the reading of a letter from the B. Y. A. South American exploring expedition, to which he very feelingly responded. On Sunday he addressed the people, depicting the beauties of the countries they passed through, some of the members of the expedition. The speaker was especially interesting in his portrayal of the remarkable providences of God in sustaining them, and answering their prayers. Elder Magley considered the expedition a great triumph for the church, and he could not be induced to pass through a like ordeal again.

BALDWIN-JOHNSON NUPTIALS.

Bro. Oscar Johnson, of Park City, and Sister Scott D. Baldwin of this place, were joined in wedlock by Bishop S. W. Goold, at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday last.

SUNDAY SCHOOL, SUPERINTENDENCY.

Yesterday, John A. Johnson was set apart as superintendent of Sunday schools and churches in the ward of Provo, as his counselors.

THE LAST HEARD OF IT.

"My little boy took the cough and cold and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all the time."

W. S. Pender, an Elder of the Josephite church, has been holding forth the past week to fair-sized houses. He has acted very fairly and gentlemanly, and on Sunday night Elder Parley Magley addressed a crowded house, refuting the allegations and statements of Mr. Pender. His address was highly appreciated.

NEPHI.

Inspecting Company A, Infantry - Report of Elder Klenke.

Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Jun. Co., Feb. 17.—A large and attentive audience gathered at the tabernacle yesterday evening to hear Elder A. Klenke give a report of his travels with the B. Y. A. South American expedition. Bro. Klenke returns home much pleased with his trip and hopes the work will soon be taken up by him. Col. H. M. Lund of the N. G. U., was held Saturday last inspecting company A, First Infantry. The boys passed a very creditable examination.

SAVED HIM FROM TORTURE.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning, and the life destroying inflammation, is unbearable. The tortures are unending. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, all kinds of sores, it is unequalled. S. Geralt, St. Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A box of ointment cured me." Beware of counterfeits. Godde-Pitts Drug Co., corner First South and Main streets.

PRICE.

COUNTY SOCIAL REUNION.

Methodist Mission May Close - Grand Jury Report - Courts.

Special Correspondence.

Price, Carbon Co., Feb. 17.—Handsome invitations have been issued for a Washington's birthday ball at Town Hall, next Friday evening, under the auspices of the ladies of the mission committee. There is one person from each settlement in the county, the purpose being to get together in a friendly and old-fashioned manner.

METHODIST MISSION MAY CLOSE.

The Methodist mission, which was established at Price some two years ago, may be discontinued, the reason assigned being that the fund for such purposes is growing smaller each year and the work cannot be kept up. Rev. Samuel Allison, who has been in charge of the mission here and at Helper and Castle Gate, where services are also held each Saturday and Sunday, will likely return to Salt Lake City, and give another charge. His salary here is $40 per month.

THE DANCE GIVEN THE OTHER EVENING BY THE PRICE WARD MUTUALS IN AID OF THEIR ORGAN FUND, WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED AND NETTED A HANDSOME SUM.

STORING HONEY.

Considerable honey is now coming to Price from Emery and Utah counties and is being stored here until such time as there is a market for the product. The output of the two counties is about seven carloads and much of this will be carried over until next year unless conditions are much better soon. The product is now being stored in the warehouses of the Price river above the town, and is being considerably adulterated. It is used in candy and baking. The strained article this time a year ago brought about a cent a pound at Price.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

The grand jury, recently in session, directed the return of a bill of indictment against the members of the Price river above the town, and is being considerably adulterated. It is used in candy and baking. The strained article this time a year ago brought about a cent a pound at Price.

ITINERANT FAKES.

Down here we are overrun with itinerant fakes who sell their nostrums at $1.00 per bottle, costing 10c, and dear at that. Any price. Manti had the good sense to subscribe the people's health and pocket by demanding what the self-made doctor thought an exorbitant license and he passed on.

CLERK'S WISE SUGGESTION.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and heartburn," writes Mr. S. Geralt, of St. Paul, Ark. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I have no more trouble with and when one can eat to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily. You don't have to diet. All the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food. Godde-Pitts Drug Co., corner First South and Main streets."

ORANGEVILLE.

OLD FOLKS ENTERTAINED.

Epidemic of Measles - New Schoolhouse Crowded - War Veterans.

Special Correspondence.

Orangeville, Emery Co., Feb. 15.—All the forepart of the week committees and their aids have been busy preparing for a grand entertainment for the old folks of this ward, and yesterday afternoon carriages and buggies brought them to the Social hall, where they were received very kindly, and after being given high chairs to indicate their position for them, the oldest occupying the highest seats of honor, and when all had arrived, 15 minutes were given for each of the members of the B. Y. A. South American exploring expedition, to which he very feelingly responded. On Sunday he addressed the people, depicting the beauties of the countries they passed through, some of the members of the expedition. The speaker was especially interesting in his portrayal of the remarkable providences of God in sustaining them, and answering their prayers. Elder Magley considered the expedition a great triumph for the church, and he could not be induced to pass through a like ordeal again.

EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES.
