There are the two priesthoods, the Meichisedec and Aaronic, typitying the right and laft bands of God; the former ruling is spiritual and the latter in temporal things. In the ordinances of the Gospel are delineated the spiritual and temporal things of the language.

Thus there was a great meaning in

Now, in the light of the infinite love of God for His creatures, I cannot be lieve that such as might fail to be baptized should be forever consigned to suffering in a burid fire. But I think these words mean that they should be condemned and their con-demnation should consist in their bedemnation should consist in their being cast out from the presence of God.

Instead of Paradise using the highest heaven, it is a spiritual condition in which the spirits of the dead await the resurrection. Those who have been righteous will rejoice in this state, while those who have done wickedly will continue in a condition of outer darkness, a place where they will feel remorse and sorrow for their sins, and perhaps repent.

the sea gave up its dead, and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them. This John descrives as the second resurrection, to take place a thousand years after the first, of which he also speaks. During the thousand years Christ will reign upon the earth as "King of Kings and Lord of Lords." Who are the kings over which he will reign? Those who are raised at the first resurrection. The earth shall rest during this period, of which the Sabbath is typical, which Israel, in the days of Moses, were commanded to observe.

We are now fast approaching this We are now fast appreaching this sacred time. Is it wonderful that before its arrival, God should introduce another dispensation of the Gespel, and call upon mankind to repent? Is it wenderful that He should invite His children to the feast He has prepared for them? He has set His hand again to gather His people. The Savior said: this Gosp-1 of the kingdom shall be preached in all nations and then shall the end come. The end of the world means the termination of all unrighteousness, and of the power of Satan. Through the Prophet Juseph Smith God has sent a message of revelation and repentance to the world in the same manner and by the same authority by which the Apostles chosen by Jesus were sent to the nations of the earth. were sent to the nations of the earth. The same priestheod which these apostles held has been restored. Some may ask, What need to restore this priesthood? Because all who formerly held it were taken away from the earth nances of the Gospel did not exist among men. When the servants of God in the days of the primitive church who held this authority, were martyred, or became extinct, men became darkened in the minds concerning the plan of salvation, and began to teach for doctrine the commandments of men.

John the Baptist, appearing unto Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdervas an Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery as an angel, ordained them to the Asronic Priesthood, and told them it should Priesthood, and told them it should not be taken from the earth again till the sons of Levi offer again a sacrifica is righteousness.

Man is a dual being, baving a spirit and a body. The Church of God is both temporal and spiritual. The spirit or the body alone will not be exalted, but both joined together will be. We have a type of this in the resurrection of the Savior. When He presented himself to His disciples after His death. He had the same spirit. clothed of the Savior. When He presented himself to His disciples after His death, He had the same spirit, clothed with the same body, as before His death. The speaker described the manner in which Jesus convinced Thomas of the reality of the resurrection as related in the New Testament, and spoke of the difference between walking faith and by sight.

The resurrection of Christ was a real and literal raising of the dead, and was "Thunderbolt" express was standing typical of the resurection of the on the track in front of the station righteous. Skeptics may seek to rea when the caboose and some cars, the typical of the resurection of the rightcous. Skeptics may seek to reason the doctrine away; but they cannot change the fact that Christ was raised from the dead; and if He had power to raise Himself, He has power to raise His brethren. If we would have part in the first resurrection, we must obey the Gospel in its purity and fulness. But in the second resurrection all will be raised, for as death came into the world by the act of one man, so shall the resurrection of all be brought to pass by the power of Christ.

The promise is that they that over-The promise is that they that over come shall inherit eternal life. Over come what? Their own matures, bringing themselves into subjection to the will of God, conforming heir acts and desires thereto in all things.

The New Jerusalem shall be built in this generation, and a cloud shall rest upon it by day and a light by night. It is not enough that we are baptized for a remission of our sins; it is necessary that we should live thenceforth in the manner required by the law of God. In being baptized we trained at hand the resurrection, and it is required of us that we shall thence come what? Their own natures, bring-d ath and the resurrection, and it is required of as that we shall thence forth walk in newness of life. For this reason, after we are baptized in water, the servants of the Lord, holding the Melchisedek Priesthood, lay their hands upon us and the spirit of the Lord descends upon us, to guide as in the path of truth and righteousness. We should prepare ourselves for the coming of the Lerd; for He will come as a thief in the night. We should prepare ourselves to meet Him, by a righteousness of life, and by purifying our bodies, and controlling our passions and desires, bringing them into harmony with the will of God. We must be more spiritually minded, for to be carnally minded is death.

Do not suppose that because you pay your ti hing regularly that you can defrand your brother, or do wrong in other things with impunity. The strength of a chain is in its weakest link. So with the strength of a man's character.
